FACTS AND FANCIES

A young woman Calais, France, has recently been relieved by disgorging from her stomach a living lizard six inches long, which had troubled her for four years. The critter was quite lively, and bit the sides of the bowl, and ran about until it was killed by the attendants.

Surgeon C. W. Walsh, in a letter to the Medical Times and Gazette, states that he has found two grains of oxalate of cerium and one drachm of compound tincture of valerian, invaribly gives great relief in sea sickness. The dose may be administered at intervals of thirty minutes.

A gentleman was promonading a fashionable street with a bright little boy by his side, when the little fellow cried out: "Oh pa, there goes an editor!" "Hush, hush!" said the other, "don't make any sport of the poor man-God only knows what you may come to yet.

Professor Hough, of the Dudley Observatory, at Albany, speaking of the comparative changes of the barom. eter and thermometer during the cold snap of last February, says that in January the barometer attained the greatest evelation ever known in the United States.

A "spiritual medium" sends to the Philadelphia Press the following communication, said to have been received from the spirits at half-past nine o'clock, February 4th: "France is without an Emperor! You will get the news in ten days. This is for a

THE fashionable and artistic world of Paris are raving about the extraval gances of a certain Madame de Palva, who, as liodne, seems outdoing all her predecessors in leonine peculiarities. In her charming house is a grand stair-case, each step composed of a solid block of malachite, and valued in its self at $100,000.

OLD Swipes asked blunty, "Are you the Methodist parson just come here to the Methodist parson just come here to preach? "I am," pleasantly replied the minister. "Well," said Swipes, "will you please tell me how old the devil is?" "Keep your own family re-cord," quickly returned the preacher, and left the room amidst the roars of the company.

A London journal says that city must be relieved by the widering of old steets and the creation of capacious new ones to carry of the overflowing streams of traffic, and adds: "We must accomplish those objects by some means, or London will be choked by its myriads of passengers, as the whale is said to be choked by shoals of herrings."
