

Daily Mountaineer.

SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 6, 1866.

What has become of that picnic? Are we going to have it? Don't all speak at once.

Gov. Gibbs and Col. Hawkins announce that they will address the citizens of the Dalles on Saturday, June 2d.

The Yreka Journal shows that all is not humping that bears the name, for the miners on Humbag Creek, Siskiyou county, are very numerous, busy, and prosperous.

Pub. Docs.—We are under obligation to Hon. E. D. Holbrook, Delegate from Idaho, for many public documents, by yesterday's mail.

The celebrated tragedian, Edwin Forrest, has arrived in San Francisco. It is expected that he will visit this State before his return East.

The Government Commissioners have examined and accepted the second section of the Union Pacific Railroad. This track is now being laid at the rate of a mile a day.

Our friend, Maj Barnhart, of the Umatilla Reservation, arrived from below last evening. The Major thinks he will remain here until Tuesday morning.

A few days ago a wagon load of quartz, weighing nearly twelve tons, was hauled from Gold Hill to Carson river. The team which drew this enormous load consisted of eight mules.

The Democratic County Convention will assemble at the Court House, to-morrow, for the purpose of nominating candidates for county officers. Trot out your stock and let the show begin.

From a private note received from Canyon City, we learn that great disaffection is manifest on the part of the Democrats of Grant county at the nomination made by the County Convention. Several Democrats say that they will not vote the ticket; but when the democratic whip is brought to bear upon them they will be all found in the traces pulling up hill for dear life.

The stage from Canyon City arrived last evening about 10 o'clock. Mr. Wheeler informs us that yesterday between Des Chutes and Bake Oven he experienced a severe snow storm, snow falling as thick and fast as it usually does in the middle of winter. No late depositions are reported on the road, although Indians are often seen lurking about. The damage done by the freshet at Canyon City is estimated at $25,000.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Hartford Times says he was surprised to meet in Hartford, lately, a soldier whom he had helped to bury and read the burial service over in Virginia, in the Fall of 1864. The fellow was in a trance at the time he was buried, and afterwards partly dug himself out of his very shallow grave, was discovered by the rebels, helped out and sent to Richmond as a prisoner for a year, and then to Georgia until the war ended.

A "Bilk."—There is a paper published in San Francisco called the Mining and Scientific Press, which professes to give all the mining news of the Pacific coast. We have carefully searched through that sheet for the past month, and failed to see one item in regard to the mines of Oregon or Idaho; while columns are devoted to the "played out" diggings of California, Reese River, etc. The miners in this section should set that sheet down as a "bilk."

THE CANTASS.—G. L. Woods and Col. J. K. Kelly, candidates for Governor, addressed the citizens of Jacksonville, on the 23d ult. The Sentinel reports a synopsis of the speeches of both gentlemen. "Judge Woods agreed with Mr. Kelly that the States were not out of the Union. He endorsed more of the measures and policy of Johnson—more of them than Col Kelly—but in some things he did not endorse Johnson. He said that the States were technically in the Union, but those that had rebelled had not the same rights as those that had not; for Johnson appointed military governors in the South, but would not, certainly, claim any right to appoint one over New York or Oregon."

THE NOMINATIONS.

The nominations made by the County Convention yesterday, are, in most part, entirely satisfactory to the Union voters of the County. The feeling among the delegates seemed to be to put unobjectionable men in the field, and how far they have succeeded is now before the public. The nominations of Messrs. Hogue and Koege, for the Legislature, are good; Mr. Hogue served the people of this county in the Special Session, and with his official action there the people are familiar.

Mr. Koege is a gentleman of more than ordinary intelligence, and stands high in the estimation of the people as a good, upright citizen, and one that will faithfully discharge any trust reposed in him. Though not a politician, he is thoroughly posted in the affairs of the nation in its present crisis, and can intelligibly legislate on all matters that may come before the Legislature for his action. We cordially recommend him to the voters of Wasco county as a man worthy of their confidence and support.

The nomination for Clerk, Mr. R. B. Reed, (the present incumbent,) is one that will prove satisfactory to every man in the county. Mr. Reed has filled the position for the last two years with credit to himself and the county. He is the most competent, honest, and obliging man the people have ever trusted with that office, and we feel confident that they will trouble him with the position for the next two years.

For Treasurer, Mr. Geo. H. Waldron.—Everybody knows George, and those who do not will be sure to make his acquaintance on election day when they vote for him.—All we could say about George can be best expressed in a few words—He is a "bully" good fellow, and ought to be elected.

Mr. Crandall, the nominee for Sheriff, at present holds the position of deputy, under Sheriff White. He is a good officer, prompt and vigilant, and if elected Sheriff, will, no doubt, make an efficient one. He is well known throughout the county, and we have no fears but that he will be elected.

We might go through the whole ticket and especially name the different men placed upon it for office, but we deem it unnecessary. Suffice it to say that they are the best men in our county, men who are identified with our every interest, and will discharge their respective duties, if elected, with honor to themselves and their constituents.

The platform put forth by the convention comes next in turn. It reaffirms the one adopted by the State Convention at Corvallis. We think it would have been wiser had the Convention passed squarely upon the issues now before the people. It would necessarily choke off the unlimited number of questions propounded to every Union speaker upon the stump, and firmly fix the party where it belongs—on the side of the Government, and in opposition to all traitors.

The resolutions in reference to protection on the road hence to Owyhee are eminently proper, and a just rebuke to the commander of this military division. We hope they will be immediately forwarded to our delegation in Congress, and we have no fears but that some of the delegates will interest themselves in the matter, and seek to give us the protection prayed for.

That very pious Christian sheet, the California Express don't like the Mountaineer's "Indian policy." Don't like the brutal course of the people of Canyon City, in offering a reward for scalps, and remarks: "Here is civilization for you!" Wonder if that fellow don't belong to the Massachusetts Indian Protective Society? You had better come up here as a missionary to the Snake nation. You would do an immense amount of good. He closes a column article on the treatment of Indians, as follows: "We hope to see the National Administration inaugurate a new system of treatment for the Indian, so that he may be made a friend, rather than an enemy, and that white men, who enact the real savage, are reached by the strong hand of justice, even though it be in the shape of prison bars for life."

CATHOLIC COUNCIL.—Archbishop Spaulding, under authority from Rome, has issued letters addressed to all Archbishops and Bishops in the Catholic Church in the United States, convening them at Baltimore on the first Sunday of next October, to inaugurate the Second Plenary Council.

Epitome of Telegraphic News.

(COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.)

Washington, May 1.—It is understood that in a cabinet meeting to-day, the President invited an expression of opinion from his constitutional advisers respecting the plan reported to Congress by the reconstruction committee. An interesting and animated discussion ensued. Mr. Seward declared himself in a very decided and emphatic manner against the plan of the committee and in favor of the immediate admission of loyal representatives.
