

GENERAL STRONG'S headquarters are ordered to Portland.

STRAWBERRIES four and five inches in circumference, are not very uncommon in Marysville, Cal.

It is estimated that eighteen thousand elephants are yearly killed to supply Sheffield, England, alone with ivory.

PERSONAL.—Mr. W. C. Holman, an old resident of the Dalles, returned from the East on Monday night, where he had spent the winter.

SPEAKING.—The Congressional candidates will address the people of the Dalles this evening at 7 1/2 o'clock, at Chapin's Hall. Turn out, everybody!

The Catholics are making preparations to grandly celebrate the eighteen hundredth anniversary of the martyrdom of St. Peter, on the 29th of June.

The Appeal, always assiduous toward the commercial interests of Marysville, says that nearly every man and woman in the city own a dog, or two dogs.

In Virginia City, a company of forty Chinamen have hired two wagons for $1,300, to carry them to Idaho. They will be welcome inhabitants of Idaho.

On Saturday night last, a party of Indians made a descent on a band of horses belonging to J. N. Clark, between Bridge Creek and Pennington, on the Canyon City road, and succeeded in running them off.

DURING the present political excitement our citizens should not forget to make arrangements for appropriately celebrating the coming Fourth of July. It is near time that some action was had on this matter. Let some person take hold and start the ball a rolling.

"Too Truo"—The Virginia City Enterprise relates that a Boston gentleman visited that city, and when asked how he liked it, said that he liked it very well, but, nevertheless, he thought in going among the mines and mountains there was "rather too much exercise to the mile."

FIGHT AT VANCOUVER.—A fight occurred between a party of soldiers, of the cavalry, and some citizens, at Vancouver, on Monday night, in which one soldier was killed and three others wounded, besides two burdy-gurdy girls had their legs broken. It appears that the soldiers were paid off on Monday, and after night went to the town for the purpose of "cleaning out" a burdy-gurdy house. Several shots were fired and stones flew thick and fast. The fight lasted some time, but finally the soldiers were driven from the house and order was restored.

HOW TO KEEP CHOLERA OFF.—Many people are anxious to know how to comport themselves in conduct and matters of diet, so as to be free of the danger of an attack from cholera. Medical authorities generally agree in the following propositions: Keep the person and premises clean; have rooms well ventilated; avoid excessive use of intoxicating drinks; be careful of the diet, and eat nothing but healthy and plain food; eschew shell-fish when the cholera is about; expel all fear from the mind; be quiet and at ease to business as usual; be regular in all habits and generally abstemious.

FROM THE UPPER COLUMBIA.—The steamer Forty-Nine, plying on the Columbia river between Little Dalles, W. T., and Death Rapids, B. C., Capt. L. White, commanding, has made her first trip. She left Little Dalles on the 15th of April, and arrived at Death Rapids on the 24th—a distance of nearly 300 miles.—She had a large number of passengers, en route for the Columbia mines. The trip was not a pleasant one, as it was storming nearly all the time, besides they had to break through twelve miles of ice. The snow on the river banks ranged from two to four feet in depth. Only two persons had come in from the other side this spring; both of them had their feet badly frozen. They report that the trail cannot be traveled with safety for over a month yet. Nearly 300 miners wintered in the mines. Several more creeks have been discovered that give promise of great richness. The steamer made her return trip in twenty-six running hours. The road from Colville to Little Dalles is in good order.—The steamer was to start on her second trip on Monday, April 30th.—W. W. Statesman.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

The Democratic Convention which met in this city on Monday last, put forth a ticket, which, to say the least, is weak. The expectation that the convention would put forth candidates who "would sweep the county" has not been met, and whereat some of our Democratic friends feel very sore, though like good Democrats "will support the ticket." The nominees for Representatives to the Legislature, Messrs. Humason and Dodge, were put forward with a double purpose, the former to catch the votes of shaky Union men, and the latter to use the influence of the O. S. N. Company for the ticket. Mr. Humason is not by far the choice of his present party in this county, but his nomination was forced on the old "stand-bys," and they, as a matter of course, were compelled to swallow the pill. If the men who urged his nomination suppose that any man in the Union party is weak enough to vote the ticket because of this nomination they are badly fooled individuals. While we recognize in Mr. Dodge a gentleman of good standing in the community, he is not the person the people of this county desire to send to the Legislature. Employed at this point as Agent of the O. S. N. Company, he is no further identified with us. He is here as a transient person, and has no interest among us. Subject to be ordered to a different station at any time, he is not capable of representing the wants of the people of the county, from the fact that he is unknown to them. To represent the wants of any people in a legislative body, a man must be known to his constituents and be familiar with their interests. If the Democracy of this county have not men in their party who are of the people, they had better have made no nominations, but let men who own property to the value of thousands, pay taxes, and are in other ways identified with our interests, go and represent us. This county needs men who will work in the next Legislature—men who will work, not for the interest of any corporation or company, but for the whole county. These men the Union party present to the voters of Wasco county for their suffrage, and we have no fears but on the 4th day of June next they will roll up a majority such as this county has never given to any candidate.

The candidate for County Clerk, Mr. Holland, is a good citizen, but of his clerical ability we know nothing. The people have tried the present incumbent of that office and find him all that they desire. We hardly think the citizens of this county can better themselves, and we know they do not intend to try.

Mr. Ferguson, for Sheriff, was as good a nomination as could be made out of the material before the convention, but will have to go with his ticket—up Salt river.

Mr. Buchanan, for Treasurer, is a good nomination. He is a competent man for the position, and if elected will make a good officer.

The whole ticket is one that can easily be defeated in the county if the Union men will go to work between now and election. It is top heavy, and we are of the opinion that it will require more steam to propel it through the canvass than the candidates are able to carry.

Good Ore.—Mr. Smith, of Beaverhead, has shown us some fine specimens of Rattlesnake ore, among others, we specially mention that of Golden Gate lode, which is mainly silver ore, though assaying $59.68 per ton, in gold. A deep shaft has been sunk on this ledge, by Messrs. Smith & Graeter, and the total assay from an average specimen is worth $523.20 per cord. We hear that furnaces will spring up there, in all directions within the next few months. Lieutenant Johnson, who with his lady, has lately paid us a visit from Rattlesnake, is delving and digging on the Eaton and other lodes, the assays from which are most satisfactory. A large mill is coming up from the river, to be placed on the ledges under his management.—Montana Post.

SPRING FREIGHTING.—On Sunday last, Messrs. train of eleven wagons started for Cache Valley, Utah. Frank Koon's train of a dozen wagons left for Salt Lake City. George Swan went in charge of the Allen & Millard wagons, the old Butterfield freight express. Majors train of twelve wagons in charge of Hugh Chain, wagon-master, has rolled out en route for the summit of the Divide between this and Snake river, to fetch flour left there last fall.
