

[COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MAY 19.

Philadelphia, May 19.—The Academy of Music was crowded to-night by an enthusiastic audience to hear Senators Doolittle and Cowan on national issues.

Cowan followed in an argument in defense of sustaining laws by virtue of which the rebellion had been crushed.

New York, May 19.—During four months ending April 30th, 48,722 immigrants arrived, and since that date 17,901, making a total of 66,623.

The Mexican Club of this city has passed a series of resolutions denouncing Santa Anna as an enemy to liberty and entirely unworthy the confidence or sympathy of the Liberal cause.

GRANT COUNTY UNION CONVENTION Pursuant to notice, the Union Convention met at the Court House, in Canyon City, on Tuesday, May 1st, 1866.

For Senator—L. O. Sterns. For Representatives—M. M. McKean and Thos. H. Brents.

For County Judge—Frederick Adams. For Sheriff—M. P. Berry. For County Clerk—A. Morehead.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the veto by President Johnson of the Civil Rights Bill, intelligence of which has been received since the adjournment of the State Union Convention, affords just cause to fear that the unhappy difference existing between the President and Congress is radical and irreconcilable.

Resolved, That we have implicit confidence in the wisdom, patriotism and integrity of Congress, and in the ultimate success of its efforts to throw the safeguards of the law around the liberties of all the people of the United States, and secure to every man his rights in the courts of justice.

Resolved, That justice, sound policy and the honor of the nation alike require that the recent adopted amendment to the Constitution of the United States should be faithfully carried out, as well in spirit as in letter, and that this be done only through Congressional action; and that we regard any factious interference by the President with the Constitutional isolation of Congress upon this subject as opposition to the Constitution and encouragement to disloyalty, and a violation of his oaths and the nation's solemn and oft repeated pledges.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the States lately in rebellion being represented in Congress by loyal men, and opposed to their being represented by men who are disloyal.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the action of those of our Representatives in Congress who voted for the passage of the bill known as the Civil Rights bill, and that we look to the President for a strict enforcement of the same, thereby securing to all equal and exact justice.

On motion that a report of the proceedings be published in the MOUNTAINEER and Oregonian the Convention adjourned.
