

REMEMBER the speaking at Chapin's Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. The "five issues" will be discussed.

In Carson City there is a dancing school conducted on strictly moral principles—"cash in advance, and no huggin'."

A WOMAN in Pennsylvania has petitioned for a divorce "because she and her husband does not agree on politics."

THE HOUSTON Telegraph says that in a few years the sheep interest in Texas will not be second even to cotton.

We notice our friend and fellow typo Lieut. Wm. M. Hand in town. He is looking fat and saucy.

THE GOVERNOR of Iowa has appointed Miss Stebbins notary public. This is said to be the first appointment to that office ever received by a woman.

THERE is a stove in Richmond, Virginia, which was brought over to this country in 1770. Evidently it belonged to one of the "First Families."

We are blessed with genuine "Web-foot" weather, with a strong indication that it will continue. Truly, it never rains at the Dalles!

MR. CHAS. F. BROWNE (Artemus Ward), it is said, has been offered $20,000 in gold, together with his traveling expenses, for a six months' lecturing-tour in England.

GARRETT DAVIS has devoted the "feeble remnant of his life," to use his own words, to efforts to overthrow the Federal Government, because of the passage of the Civil Rights Bill. Stocks remain same as before.

"It is calculated," says the Cork Examiner, "that within the past week upwards of four thousand persons left for America via Queenstown, two thousand of whom are of the middle and farming class."

ON the evening of June 2d Gov. Gibbs and Col. Hawkins will address the citizens of Wasco county, in this city, on the political issues of the day. Pass the word that there may be a rousing meeting.

CHOLERA PREVENTIVE.—The Governor of Missouri has issued a proclamation to the people of that State to pray and fast in anticipation of the cholera. An irreverent exchange suggests that chloride of lime would be more efficacious.

We have received supplemental sheets of the Statesman, containing the great speech of Mr. J. Gaston, and other interesting matter which is worthy of perusal. They should be scattered broadcast throughout the State, so that the people could read the "living issues."

THE river, at this point, has been at a stand still since last night. From parties who came from above yesterday we learn that Snake river was falling rapidly. We hope the Columbia will recede before the next rise of that stream, as by that we will be partially safe from high water the present year.

We were not aware that the old Democratic party had been transformed into the Johnson-Seward party, until Saturday last Judge Humason (good authority) made the statement. How do you like that, old time Democrats? We had supposed that the principles of Democracy were as firm as Gibraltar, but they must acknowledge that either the principles or their candidates change.

"PROSCRIPTION FOR OPINION'S SAKE."—The Herald, of yesterday, published the names of some parties in Portland who were supposed to have discharged men in their employ because they were Democrats. We had supposed that the Herald would have kept silent on this matter. There is now in this office a compositor, who, with one other printer, was discharged from the Herald because of Union sentiments and could not be made the tool of the clique who control the Herald. This we supposed would have been a check on that establishment, and that they would have considered themselves as getting off well if it had been kept silent. If there is any more proscription for opinion's sake in Portland, the Herald will please note it.

How THEY STAND.—The Democracy has had a great deal to say about the Union candidates for the Legislature being opposed to Mr. Nesmith, and have labored hard to prejudice Union voters against the candidates upon local questions. Particularly is this the case against Mr. Hogue, who is represented as being hostile to Mr. Nesmith's re-election; but we have evidence to the contrary in Mr. Hogue's speech at Fifteen Mile Creek, on Saturday last. He is friendly to Mr. Nesmith, and more, that he will support him for re-election to the U. S. Senate, if at the time of convening the Legislature, things exist as they do now; and that he will make his party influence subserve the local interests of the people of this county. Gen. Humason does not commit himself as strong as does Mr. Hogue in favor of Mr. Nesmith, or the local interests of this people. He must submit to and obey the dictates of his party caucus, irrespective of his individual opinions or preferences. What friend of Mr. Nesmith believes that he could receive the nomination for re-election to the office he now holds in a Democratic caucus? If there are any, let them think the matter over, and they will soon decide. There is Jo. Smith, Fiddling Whitaker, J. F. Miller, and hosts of other lights in the Democratic party, who are to be served first! Do not be deceived by men who have no interest in Mr. Nesmith's election.—He has as much chance of receiving the nomination in a Democratic caucus as would Old John Brown, were he alive! Those who desire to advance Mr. Nesmith's interests must vote for the candidates of the Union party as the only way to bring about that result.

AN ARMY OFFICER REPRIMANDED.—A court-martial convened at Fort Boise, Idaho Territory, convicted Captain Wm. B. Hughes of disobedience of orders and conduct prejudicial to good order and military discipline, by purchasing Quartermaster's vouchers and other claims against the United States, and sentenced him to be suspended from rank and pay proper for four months, and to be reprimanded in General orders.

The above we find in the San Francisco Call of May 18th. The trial of Capt. Hughes was caused by a worthless scamp named Funk, who served as Lieutenant in the Washington Territory Volunteers, and whom Capt. Hughes was instrumental in having dismissed from the service for a crime for which he ought to have gone to the penitentiary. The charges preferred against Capt. Hughes were disobedience of orders in being a partner of the firm of Du Rell & Co., doing business in Boise City, which he did not pretend to deny. We regret that the court imposed any sentence on him, for the revenge sought to be gained by a worthless blackguard. Capt. Hughes is well known in this community as an officer who has at all times discharged his duties to the best interests of the Government, and is far above the reach of designing men.

GENERAL CONNOR.—This able and gallant officer was, upon his own application, mustered out of the volunteer service on the 30th ult. He was solicited to remain in service by the War Officer, as well as by nearly all of our Western Senators and Representatives, familiar with the Mormon question in Utah. He, however, declined, basing his application for muster out on the ground of more than three years continuous service in the army as Brigadier General. On the 19th of April last he was made a Major General by Brevet, and on the day his order for muster out was made he was tendered a commission as Colonel of Cavalry in the Regular Army. It is not yet decided whether he will accept the commission. Last week he was in Washington in conference with General Grant on matters pertaining to this Territory. He will return here early in June, and we hope to see him wearing the eagles of the Regular service—while they would honor him we know that he would honor them. He is loved and respected by every true soldier who has ever served under him, and is only hated and feared by those who hate the Government and the principles it represents.—Vedette.

COMING OUT OF THE HOLE IT WENT IN AT.—A writer in Blackwood's Magazine, who professes to have been a Confederate officer, tells a story in the last number of that magazine which sounds somewhat Munchausenish, about a rebel soldier who fell by his side. A Yankee bullet had struck him in the middle of the forehead, and he was regarded as killed outright, but, to his surprise, he found him a few hours later fighting again. The writer of the article accounts for this in these words: "According to the Surgeon's statement, the ball, striking obliquely, had glanced, passing between cuticle and skull, all round the head, emerging at last from the very place it had entered!"—S. F. Call.

REMEMBER, if you have a cold or cough, that Hall's Pulmonary Balsam will cure you quicker than any other known remedy. The genuine is put up in fifty cent bottles only.
