

Daily Mountaineer.

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 1, 1896.

Dr. Brooks has removed his office to Federal street, nearly opposite E. P. Fitzgerald's store.

Mr. WINANS, of Baltimore, has presented $25,000 to the managers of the Southern Relief Fair in that city.

REMEMBER, if you vote the Democratic ticket on Monday next, you vote to send Joe Lane or Rev. Joe Smith to the U. S. Senate.

The Pennsylvania Legislature has disfranchised all deserters from the army and navy during the late war.

The report of the Chief of Police of Mobile, for the quarter ending April 1st, shows that 1,753 arrests were made in three months, of which 1,132 were white, and 622 blacks.

The proposition before the Iowa Legislature to amend the Constitution by erasing the word "white" from the article on suffrage has passed both Houses.

Mr. JOHN R. HOOD, one of the absconding Tennessee legislators, has been expelled from that body, of which he was considered an unworthy member.

Forty or fifty Indians near the Missouri Coteau, while hunting buffalo, were caught in a terrible snow-storm and perished, with the exception of one man who brought no tidings.

The Charleston South Carolinian chronicles a new phenomenon in that city, namely, a demand on the part of the blacks for higher wages. The colored stevedores are unwilling to work unless paid two dollars a day.

LONG PRIMER HALL, a Fort Alcatraz Democrat, is about starting another Democratic organ. That's good. Hall and Beriah Brown will do the Union cause much good. Birds of a feather flock together.

Mrs. ANDREW JOHNSON recently sent to the Baltimore Fair for the relief of the destitute women and children of the South, a beautiful basket of exotic flowers, cut from the White House conservatory.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Boston Journal says that two of the Episcopal churches in Charleston, S. C., are making a united movement for educating colored children, and have already six hundred scholars under their care.

Mr. ROBT. MAYO's estate, known as Powhattan, on James river, near Richmond, and where, according to a dubious tradition, John Smith's life was saved by the fair Pocahontas, is said to have been sold to Colonel North, of Massachusetts, for $26,000.

We understand that the Polk county curiosity is to be exhibited this evening. We did not learn what the price of admission will be, but it is believed that his owners, Joe Lane and Rev. Joe Smith, intend that it will be moderate.

JOHN H. REGAN, formerly rebel Postmaster General, is busily working a farm in Texas, laboring with his own hands. He writes: "I make fence, grub, pile and burn brush, plow, etc., and am as thoroughly bronzed as other laborers."

The evidence of W. E. DAVIS, in the Geer trial, in addition to other important matters, established the fact of the killing of fourteen more Union-prisoners at the time of the alleged mutiny than have heretofore been reckoned among those shot on that occasion.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. Gaston, editor of the Statesman, called on us to-day. He is engaged in canvassing the State for the Union ticket. Mr. Gaston's speech at Oregon City a short time since, stamps him as an able advocate of the cause he is seeking to advance.

THE accredited correspondent of the Nation says that in Mississippi the seventy teachers in the colored schools are required to report monthly to the Freedmen's Bureau, specifying, among other things, the number of pupils of mixed blood. In the twelve schools which happened to stand at the head of the list, there are returned 287 children of pure African blood, and 777 of mixed blood.

WHO ARE THE REAL FRIENDS OF SENATOR NESMITH?

Every citizen of the Dalles believes that Senator Nesmith is the true and tried friend of our local interests. To his energetic and well directed labors in the United States Senate, not only the Dalles people, but all eastern Oregon, is largely indebted for favors, and for our future prospects. His re-election to his present position will most certainly secure earnest endeavors towards the speedy erection of the Branch Mint at this place, and the consequent upbuilding and future prosperity of our city; and his re-election depends largely on the choice of Representatives from Wasco and other counties on this side of the mountains; and hence it becomes an important question for the people to determine whether the Union or Democratic candidates are the proper men to trust on this important question. Permit us to call the attention of property holders and voters to the facts bearing on this point. It is now definitely settled and well understood in the Willamette valley and Southern Oregon, and doubtless among those on the inside of the Democratic "ring" here, that in case the Democrats carry the Legislature, they intend to have a "Simon-pure" bed rock Democrat for the Senate, or, rather than take Nesmith, or any Johnson man, then prevent an election by refusing to go into a joint convention. The Democrats all over the State say that Nesmith has never represented them, that he is a traitor to their party, and that his influence in appointments, and all his votes, has gone only to divide, distract and demoralize the Democracy; and that with such a man as him for Senator they become weaker by divisions, and his election is really worse to them than that of Gibbs or Mitchell. Such being the position taken by nine-tenths of the Democracy, the great mass that would control, if they got into power, (and good reasoning it is) how is it possible for two or three Democrats from Wasco to do our friend Nesmith any good, even if they should be elected? They would either have to go into a Democratic caucus, and be bound by its action to vote for old Jo Lane, or somebody of that ilk, or refusing to go into their party caucuses, prevent an election at all by compelling their Democratic associates to vote against a joint convention. Let no friend of the Dalles be deceived. The true position of the Senatorial question, so far as the Democratic party is concerned, is this: Give us Jo Lane, John F. Miller, or some reliable Democrat, and Nesmith never, or we will prevent an election.

On the other hand, if the Union party carries the Legislature, a joint convention of the Legislature will be gone into without any caucusing or wire-wrangling of that kind, just as it has been in our Union Legislatures heretofore, and our Union representatives from Wasco would be free to vote for Senator Nesmith, and do all they honorably could for his election, without the trammels of any caucus. Both the Union candidates for the Legislature in this county are reliably for Senator Nesmith, and therefore for Dalles interest, and being members of the Union party, and not compelled to go into any caucus, or see a failure of election, they are therefore from their very position, as well as their sentiments, the real friends of J. W. Nesmith.

Again we say to the property holders, voters, and all others interested in the growth and prosperity of the Dalles, that the election of Humason and Dodge cannot possibly do us any good, no matter how friendly they are to Nesmith, because they belong to a party, nine tenths of which openly declare that they will prevent an election, rather than elect J. W. Nesmith; while every Union man in the State says, "any man for Senator, before a Copperhead of the Joe Smith, Miller or Lane stripe!"

A LETTER from Maj.-Gen. Sherman to the Secretary of State of Iowa, says: "In order to afford the best protection to the emigration of the year we have made the region of Montana, and the routes leading thereto a separate military department, of which Gen. P. S. George Cooke is the commander." He also says: "If emigrants will go to Omaha, Fort Kearney, Atchison and Laramie, thence to Fort Reno, they will find a well guarded road all the way, and also the Missouri river route. It will be dangerous to go by the Niobrara route this year."
