DESCHUTES COUNTY BILL UP FOR VOTE TOMORROW

SENATE INDICATIONS ARE FAVORABLE.

"BONE DRY" BILL UP

Justified by Criminal Records, Says
Sponsor—Easily Evaded, Says
Lafferty—Bill is Passed
Easily in House.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—The Deschutes county bill will not come up in the Senate for a vote until some time tomorrow, it was determined today. Indications at present are in favor of the measure receiving the endorsement of the upper house.

Debate on the Anderson "bone dry" bill started this morning, continuing without interruption until noon, and was resumed at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Representative Anderson declared that the bill is of the utmost importance to the state's welfare, in a speech in which he reviewed the history of prohibitory legislation in the state for the last four years.

Bill is Attacked. He declared that criminal records showed prohibition to be justified. Representative Lafferty attacked the provision of the proposed law, allowing fraternal orders to import liquor for sacramental purposes. He said that secret societies could easily evade the law.

Representative Mackey attacked the emergency clause which the measure carries. He said that no emergency exists, and that it constitutes a bad precedent.

That the measure constitutes the greatest economic problem before the legislature, was the contention of Senator Burton. He said that the abolition of slavery, and the abolition of the liquor evil are parallel economic questions. The bill passed the House by a vote of 53 to seven.

SUCCESSFUL FARMER TO START TEACHING

John Tuck, Aged 54, Takes Examination for Certificate—Formerly Taught in the East.

After retiring from the life of an educator for several years, John Tuck, of Powell Butte, was in the city today to take an eighth grade examination for a teacher's certificate. He expects to teach in the vicinity of Redmond for the balance of the school year, as an accommodation to the school board. Mr. Tuck is 54 years of age.

He has been an educator for the greater part of his life, but worn out by the confining life, abandoned teaching for farming after he came west 11 years ago. Successful in tilling the soil, and with regained health, he declares that his return to educational work will be of short duration.

ALLIES VICTORS ON ALL FRONTS

BRITISH AND FRENCH RAIDS
SUCCEED, AND GENERAL SARRAILS
ADVANCES IN THE MACEDONIAN SECTION.

(By United Press to The Daily Bulletin) LONDON, Jan. 29.—That the Allies are victorious on five battle fronts was the announcement given out officially today. The British conducted raids near Neuville, St. Vast, and Lestransloye, and the French were successful in a raid at Verdun. General Sarrails, heading French, British and Serbian forces, advanced on the Macedonian front, toward Priplep.

The Russians retained a gain along the two-mile front on the Roumanian-Carpathian line. They halted an attempted German offensive toward Riga.

GERMAN SUBMARINE TAKES LARGE TOLL OF ALLIES' SHIPS

The transport was crowded with troops, and sank in 10 minutes.

TOM MADOC IS BROUGHT BACK

RUNAWAY BOY TELLS OF LIFE AS ORPHAN, AND SAYS HE WOULD MUCH RATHER LIVE IN THE COUNTRY.

After an absence of nearly two weeks, little Tom Madoc, who left his home here a week ago last Wednesday, was brought back to Bend from the Dale Tussing homestead, by O. O. King, a mail carrier, and given into the care of S. E. Roberts.

The youngster was not greatly overjoyed at being brought back from the country, but was inclined to take the matter philosophically. He said that he was an orphan, and had been adopted last July, coming to Bend with his foster parents about five weeks ago. He declared that he preferred living in the country, and would have liked to remain on the Tussing homestead indefinitely. Mr. Madoc asked last week that the boy be returned.

Although in no sense bashful, the boy was not talkative, only replying briefly to direct questions. "No, I wasn't afraid," was his reply when questioned in regard to his lonely trip from Bend. "There wasn't anything to be afraid of." Shortly after his arrival, Sheriff Roberts took the little chap to a restaurant, and watched him consume a meal that would have made some grown men jealous.

INCONSPICUOUS HEROISM KEYNOTE OF BRITISH VALOR IN GREAT WAR

By William Philip Sims,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

WITHE THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, Jan. 29.—The world knows the English race as a race of enormously reserved people. Just how reserved they really are one must live out here to realize. The most thrilling engagement of the war does not loosen the Englishman's tongue any more than his afternoon tea, if as much.

I have been trying to get the story of some British heroes. It can't be done. They say what they do belongs to the unit they happen to be in. The unit says the glory belongs to the next higher unit, and so on until one is told that the honor belongs to the whole British army.

The theory is that it is very unfair for an individual to be signaled as a hero. They say it is not treating the other fellow right for one to be press-agented and heralded all over the world as the doer of great deeds because every day there are hundreds upon hundreds of men who are risking their lives in the deadliest of dangerous undertakings and are never heard of. Luck, one is told, makes more heroes than anything else—luck which provides the opportunity and luck which lets one be seen while grasping it.

The French look at it in much the same way, but if anything, the British carry the idea further. A French aviator is called an "ace" when he brings down his fifth enemy aeroplane and gets his name in the papers. There are many Englishmen

COUNTY COURT CONVENES HERE

BIDS FOR SUPPLIES IS CHIEF BUSINESS.

Portland Firms Submit Same Offers for Record Books—Two Bids are Made for Transcribing Crook County Records.

Opening of bids for the transcribing of records from the Crook county books to the books of Deschutes county, the furnishing of record books, and typewriters, constituted the order of the day when the Deschutes county court met in the council chambers of the O'Kane building this morning.

The contract for furnishing record books was sought by four Portland firms, and by what was considered at least a remarkable coincidence, all four bids were for the same amount.

Bids are Varied.

For the transcription of records, two bids were entered, one by A. R. Bowman, of Prineville, and the Crook County Abstract company. Mr. Bowman offered to handle the work for seven cents a folio, including carbon copies, with six cents a folio for work done without copies. The Crook County Abstract Co., on one kind of work, submitted a bid of seven and .35 cents, and on another variety, a quotation of seven cents. These bids included carbon copies, without which a reduction of one and one-half cents per folio was offered.

The afternoon was largely taken up with discussion of the bids submitted, and the relative merits of offers and of the stock.

NOTE LEAK IS DENIED

(By United Press to The Daily Bulletin) NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Pliny Flisk, a broker, testified in the leak probe hearing here today, and categorically denied receiving information on the leak from a cabinet member, or splitting the leak pool with Secretary McAdoo. He suggested that the committee imprison Thomas W. Lawson as a perjurer.

Flisk said that the office records showed no dealings with cabinet officers or government officials during the period covered by the leak.

WOLVES KILL AND EAT HUNTSMAN, IS ACCEPTED BELIEF

Man's Bones, Shreds of Clothing, Rifle and Three Dead Wolves, Point to Tragic Fate.

(By United Press to The Daily Bulletin) GOLD HILL, Or., Jan. 29.—It is believed that a pack of timber wolves killed and devoured John Hammersly, a government hunter, on Willows Flats, in Jackson county, within the last few days.

Hammersly disappeared a short time ago, and searchers started out soon after to seek traces of him. The rescue party found only the gnawed bones of a man scattered about on the ground, a rifle, shreds of clothing, and the dead bodies of three wolves, mute evidences of a deadly combat.

All indications pointed to a desperate struggle having been waged. It is believed that Hammersly had fought off the wolves until his ammunition was exhausted, and then succumbed in the unequal conflict.

SNOW CUTS OFF DUST NUISANCE

INDIAN PREDICTION FULFILLED,
WHEN STORM, ALMOST BLIZZARD, IN SOME SECTIONS, VISITS COUNTRY.

Dust swirls gave way to snow swirls and the Warm Springs Indians' prediction of "heap big snow," in two weeks, was fulfilled, when a flaky covering was deposited at intervals from Saturday night until this morning. In Bend, the precipitation in a water equivalent, reached only .04 of an inch, while the snow depth itself, was approximately two inches, but in several sections near here, the storm amounted to a veritable blizzard. As no extreme cold was attendant no suffering among stock has been reported in consequence.

Drifting rapidly, the snow blocked roads in the vicinity of Bend, particularly the one to La Pine, where autos starting out yesterday, were forced to turn back without completing the trip. Drivers reported that the snow was so dry, that when found at any depth at all, the wheels would absolutely refuse to take hold.

Local climatic conditions indicated that the light fall of snow so far recorded is only a forerunner of more to come within the next 24 hours.

TWO OPERATORS WILL BE UTILIZED IN BEND

Western Union Finds Business Here Justifies Additional Help and Equipment—Hall Impressed.

Upon his return to Seattle last Friday, after spending several days in Bend installing equipment for the Western Union Telegraph company, J. Nelson, equipment man for the company, was instructed to return to Bend as soon as possible and add to the present outfit enough apparatus for two operators.

The Bend business it has been found is too heavy for one operator to handle, and as soon as the equipment is put in the two-man service will become effective. I. C. Hall, who has been in Bend for several days has been more than impressed with the town's activity and the future of the Western Union's business here.

A new window sign is being painted today on the window of the office today.

MEXICAN RIOTS ARE CONTINUING

OFFENSE TAKEN AT ORDER TO WASH.

Troops Charge Crowds With Clubbed Muskets in Juarez—Mexican Horsemen Use Whips Trying to Subdue People.

(By United Press to The Daily Bulletin) EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 29.—Five hundred Mexican men and women rioting at Juarez at the end of the international bridge this morning. They were enraged because they were not allowed to enter the United States without first bathing. They threw bottles and stones at the American sentries, and two soldiers were hurt.

The troops charged the crowd at the middle of the bridge, with clubbed muskets, and the Mexicans were driven back.

Federal authorities announced that one Mexican was killed in yesterday's rioting, and several wounded. Mexican women attacked David McChesney, an American reporter. They tore his clothes and scratched his face.

Four hundred women stormed the street cars, chasing the crews away, and hissing the "Gringos."

The Mexican cavalry charged the mob this morning, using whips. Shouts of "death to the Gringos" were frequently heard. The car company were frequently heard. The car company attempted to resume service, but women lay across the tracks to prevent this. All Americans have been prohibited from entering Mexican Juarez.

SPANISH WAR WIDOWS TO BE DISAPPOINTED

(By United Press to The Daily Bulletin) WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 29.—Widows and minor children of officers and enlisted men who have served in the war with Spain who have been hoping to be granted pensions by this congress probably will be disappointed. Those hoping for governmental relief and recognition must wait another year.

Swamped with appropriation bills and an administration railroad program which must be considered before March 4, Representative Johnson, of Maine, today admitted he had little hope that congress would take up his pension bill before adjournment.

CHANGE ORDERED FOR LOCAL MAIL

THROUGH POUCH SERVICE ON SUNDAYS TO TAKE PLACE OF RAILWAY CLERK—CITY DELIVERY WILL BE SOON.

Effective February 1, no railway mail clerk will serve on Sunday trains to Bend, Postmaster Henry B. Ford is notified. A pouch service will be substituted, but this will allow for no distribution until Monday, of mail from points along the line. The change will make no alteration in the disposal of through mail. This schedule is to continue in order until further notice.

Mr. Ford announces that all is in readiness for a city mail delivery, as soon as sidewalks are put in by the city council, but it is not believed that this can be done for the next four or five months. Street signs, prepared by the Ladies' Auxiliary, are practically ready for use. When the carrier system is established, it is the intention to have men on duty, and this, Mr. Ford says, would greatly relieve the present congestion, as not only would many of the boxes now in use be vacated, but the general delivery window would come into only occasional use.
