JOHN PETERS PASSES

Former Resident of This Locality Dies Soon After Removal.

Word was received here yesterday of the death of John Peters, formerly of this vicinity, at a sanatorium on Puget Sound, where he had been taken by relatives. The cause of death was not learned, although it was known that he was threatened with a general breakdown at the time of his removal from his home near here a few weeks ago.

Mr. Peters had engaged in farming and stock raising in this locality for 12 years, and during that period had lived alone in his bachelor's cabin.

As far as is known, no relatives reside in Central Oregon. Two sisters are living in Auburn, Washington.

At the Movies

The Grand Theatre tonight and Friday offers an unusually good dramatic and comedy program, in "Acquitted," featuring Wilfred Lucas, Mary Alden and Bessie Love, all three of whom are well known Triangle actors. The play is intensely dramatic and realistic. In addition,

Chas. Murray, the well known comedian, will be featured in "His Hereafter," a ripping good comedy. The Bend Theatre tonight and Friday offers the thirteenth chapter of "The Lass of the Lumberlands," which is increasing with interest with the coming of every chapter. Helen Holmes has become a favorite. A blended program will be offered with this feature. Manager Perin has made a careful selection of candidates for tomorrow night's amateur night, which is becoming popular.
