HE'LL SURVIVE.

(The Oregonian.)
We observe, without the least feeling of alarm for the victim, that Representative Forbes has incurred the bitter displeasure of the Portland Journal. It seems to be that newspaper's notion that the way to build up journalistic influence is to visit epileptic wrath upon those who decline to do its bidding. It has done so in the past, yet the marks of its displeasure among former members of the legislature have continued to shine. Quite generally they have been elevated in politics or public esteem.

C. N. McArthur, who was held up while speaker, as a scoundrel for what he did and a rascal for what he did not, has been sent to congress. Gus Moser, who received all kinds of apologetic advertising as author of a "spoilsman's bill" and as chief instigator of a "midnight resolution," led a large field of candidates in the last election, and was chosen president of the senate.

So why should Forbes worry? Together with Stanfield and Bean, who are also traduced by the Journal, he is recognized by the public as a leader in legislation—intelligent, forceful, honest, unafraid.

Mr. Forbes has a vision that extends beyond his district. He accomplished at Salem much for the good of all Oregon, and much in behalf of that portion of the state which he directly represents. He devoted his attention to constructive measures, while the Journal ignored them and egged on its own piffing policies. Mr. Forbes' crime consists of the fact that he worked hard for his constituents and the whole state and not at all to enhance the influence of the Portland Journal. Mr. Forbes will survive.

SCHOEL TAKES FIGHT BY KNOCKOUT ROUTE

Wins From "Speck" Woods in Fifth Frame at Prineville Smoker—Second Bout Scheduled.

Gilbert Schoel scored a decisive victory over "Speck" Woods, of Bend, last night at the Prineville smoker, when he was awarded a knockout just before the tap of the gong in the fifth round.

A left hook to the jaw left "Speck" dangerously groggy, he clinched to save himself, and immediately after the break, Schoel shot over a right cross to the temple flooring his opponent. At the count of nine, Woods started to rise, and sank to his knees as Schoel menaced him with a sure knockout punch, and took the count. Schoel was breathing easily when the fight ended.

The first two rounds of the match found honors easy, and in the third "Speck" received a point had he not fouled Schoel, causing Referee Billy George to give a draw in this frame also. The fourth was distinctly Schoel's, and clever infighting distinguished his treatment of Woods. Throughout the battle "Speck" fought at long range, but slowed down the fight badly, particularly in the first two rounds, by his repeated clinches. Schoel's boxing and hitting met with the unqualified approval of the fans, but his footwork was slow, and he was manifestly over weight.

As preliminaries, Billy George and Fred Gilbert put on an exhibition four round go, and Ted Hoke, of Bend, and Bob Hilyer fought four rounds to a draw.

Schoel and Gilbert will fight in Bend on the evening of March 12, when Billy George meets Farmer Burns, it was announced.

RELIGIOUS LEADERS WILL DOCTOR SOULS

(By United Press to The Daily Bulletin.)
BOSTON, Feb. 27.—On the theory that men's souls will be sick after the European war has finished tearing them to pieces, famous religious leaders met here today to consider what spiritual medicine shall be prepared for them. The prevention of future wars by proper religious teaching also will be considered.

"This convention of the Religious Education association," said Secretary Dr. Henry F. Cope, of Chicago,

William F. Cody in The Adventures of Buffalo Bill

ESSAY-K-E-S-E; Five Parts; Published January 29

Now that William F. Cody has passed on across "The Great Divide," on beyond the realm of the great plains, of the wolf, the buffalo and Indian, the Essany offering, "The Adventures of Buffalo Bill," should find favor with all film audiences. There is enough interest and thrills in this picture to prevent it from dragging and it is well worth seeing.

"Buffalo Bill" and his wild west shows have been the delight of children of all ages and for them to see this veteran showman and plainsman, now that he is dead, actually walking before them should give them even greater delight.

The picture shows "Buffalo Bill" in the early days when he was a pony express rider, in his raids on the Indians and in some of his more thrilling hand-to-hand encounters with the chiefs of tribes.

The town of Cody, Wyo., which, as a camp, was founded by "Buffalo Bill," is shown at the time it was a camp and at the present time—twenty years having elapsed.

In his later life "Buffalo Bill" is shown hunting buffaloes with the Prince of Monaco. And then his home life is shown. All the way through the film is adventurous.

WOMEN'S HOTEL IN CHICAGO NOW OPEN

$150,000 Building to be Run as Philanthropic Institution on a Cost Basis.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—The Mary Dawes hotel for women, the gift of Charles G. Dawes, in honor of his mother, has been opened for business.

The hotel, modeled after the Dawes hotels for men in Boston and Chicago, is a $150,000 stone and brick building, with rooms for 250 guests. It is run on the same principle that the other Dawes philanthropic institutions are—that clean, wholesome hotel accommodations can be furnished at much less than the prevailing cost, if operated without profit, under scientific management.

Rooms rent for ten to thirty cents a day, and guests may be either permanent or transient. Each room has a window, rugs, lockers, mirrors, bed with an abundance of clean linen, access to bath facilities. A cafeteria in the basement provides wholesome meals at cost. Breakfast may be secured for five to six cents, and dinner for 10 or 12 cents. Sewing rooms, a beautifully furnished lobby, and a complete laundry for the use of guests are provided.

WHY DO WE HAVE DECAYED TEETH?

The albuminous film that forms on teeth is a perfect breeding-place for decay germs. This albuminous film holds an acid which comes in contact with the tooth and cannot be reached by neutralizing alkalies. This is the cause of decayed teeth. If your teeth have become affected it is only the natural course, so come before it is too late and have your teeth examined. We can place your teeth in perfect condition by our

GREAT NEW DAY PAINLESS METHOD

Which is ENTIRELY HARMLESS; extract the decayed teeth and roots and make you a perfect fitting new set of teeth, natural color. The public have good reason to place all confidence in The King Bee Dentists.
