PETTICOAT REGIME FOR ILLINOIS CITY

Women Start Campaign Planning to Assume Charge of the City Administration.

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)

EVANSTON, Ill., March 21.—Weary of having mere men mayors and councilmen who spend their waking hours in Chicago and let municipal affairs in this exclusive suburb go hang, the women of Evanston have drafted a system of petticoat politics and plan to elect a woman-manned city administration the coming spring.

The women here have the franchise and the men rather expect them to put their plan into effect. Already they have one woman elected to the school directorship and another a justice of the peace, the first in Illinois.

The plan is to have the women win all the elective offices, then appoint women to all the appointive offices, including the position of fire and police commissioner. However, the firemen and policemen themselves will continue to be men.

"We will admit that men know
