GERMAN STRIKE ASSUMES GIGANTIC PROPORTIONS; FRANCHISE DEMAND MADE

GOVERNMENT SEEKING TO PROVIDE FOOD.

FIND HIDDEN STORES

Several Hundred Thousand Men Included in Walkout—Munition Factory Workers May Be Among Strikers.

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)

AMSTERDAM, April 21.—Twenty thousand munition workers in Berlin and Spandau are striking as a protest against the reduction of bread rations, according to the latest information obtainable here.

Scores of conflicting rumors, including reports of great violence, came in today. A great force of strikers is said to have revolted at Madgeburg, and to have attempted to burn public buildings in that city.

RIOTERS IN MADGEBURG

Madgeburg, April 21.—Grave rioting is in progress here, 10,000 strikers demanding that violence be resorted to.

CHECK MUNITION OUTPUT

ESSEN, April 21.—It is reported that the employes of the Krupp's ordnance works are joining in the strike.

LEIPZIG JOINS STRIKERS

LEIPZIG, April 21.—Several thousand strikers are out here, but munition plants are believed to be unaffected. Berlin officially denies reports of rioting. It is reported that German influence in Austria is weakening.

DYNAMITE EXPLODES; KILLS AND INJURES

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)
PITTSBURGH, April 21.—Nick Fellis, a Hungarian, was instantly killed and three others fatally injured in a dynamite explosion at Russellton last night. The police are investigating the report that Fellis was making bombs when the explosion took place.

TOTS LEAVE THEIR HOME; PARENTS FEAR THEY ARE IN DANGER

City and county officials are seeking for Thelma and Harold Svenson, who suddenly left home last night. The children took only a small quantity of provisions with them, and have not been seen since. Their parents are alarmed for the youngsters' safety.

U. S. DEPARTMENTS TO FLY FLAGS OF EUROPEAN ALLIES

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—For the first time in history, the flags of foreign nations will fly from a Washington public building. Flag poles are being erected over the State, War and Navy buildings for the French and British flags.

WILL INVESTIGATE O.-W. R. & N. RATES ON FARM PRODUCTS

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)
SALEM, April 21.—The State Public Service Commission today ordered a thorough probe of the freight rates on farm products now in effect on the lines of the O.-W. R. & N. and on the Oregon Short Line. A reduction in rates would mean that great shipments of grain now going to Puget Sound ports would be sent instead to Portland.

B.-S. WILL PLAY S.-H. BASEBALL TOMORROW

Mills' Office Forces Will Tackle the Horsehide and Stick On Local Diamond.

The office forces of The Shevlin-Hixon Company and the Brooks-Seaton Lumber Company will play baseball tomorrow afternoon at the ball park for the benefit of the Bend Amateur Athletic club. The game will be called promptly at 2:30. The lineup of the two teams is being kept a secret, by order of the captains.

BEND RIFLES EFFECT MARCHING DIVISION

B. A. A. C. Will Have Four Companies to Drill Under Army Regulations—Prince Is Captain.

The Bend Rifles, the marching division of the Bend Amateur Athletic club, was formed last night at a meeting held at the Emblem club. Although there was only a small attendance, officers were elected and drilling will probably begin next week. It is intended to consolidate all enlistments for the time being under one company, with Frank R. Prince, captain, and Carl A. Johnson, first and second lieutenant. The plan as outlined provides for four companies, each unit to be under the regular discipline of the U. S. army manual of arms.

BLASTING REPORTS THOUGHT ARTILLERY

(By United Press to the Daily Bulletin)
BOSTON, April 21.—The explosions heard a few days ago, thought to have been artillery firing, were due to blasting at Seltun, Mass., a man named Emerson reported to Captain Robertson, chief of staff.

GUARDSMEN ENGAGE IN PITCHED BATTLE

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)
COLUMBUS, April 21.—Seven National Guardsmen and eight unknown men engaged in a pitched battle last night on the State Fair grounds after two looters had been found in one of the cavalry barns, militia officers admitted today.

SEA GULLS DRIVEN BY SUBMARINE WAR

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)
LONDON, April 21.—Hardships of the new relentless submarine warfare haven't been confined to the terrestrial population of the earth. Even the seagulls today showed signs of the strain.

PICK A HERO, ANNAPOLIS BOYS ARE TOLD

Photo by American Press Association. The 183 midshipmen who were hurriedly graduated from Annapolis Naval academy as soon as war seemed inevitable were told by Secretary Daniels to select a hero in our navy to admire, especially Admiral Dewey. In the above picture the graduates are standing in front of Bancroft hall.

FIRST MUSICIAN GOES INTO ARMY

HUGH O'NEIL, OF BEND, WILL REPORT FOR DUTY IN SEATTLE—HEAVY ENLISTMENTS MADE FROM PRINEVILLE.

Because he is the oldest son in the family, Hugh O'Neil will leave tomorrow morning to enlist in the United States army. A sister, living in Walla Walla, has already joined the Red Cross work. Mr. O'Neil will enlist as a musician, and is the first man from Central Oregon to go into this division of the service. He will go first to Walla Walla, to visit his parents, and from there will ship to Seattle to report for duty.

Heavy enlistments from Prineville are reported by Recruiting Officer Davis, the following having signed up from the Crook county seat to leave Monday night from Redmond: William A. Bundy, aviation; Brice Ewing, Cary Stearns, Robert Hilyard, Carl Hyde, Stanley Morris, Millard Elkins, Asa Battles, Norris Bixby, Herbert Belknap and Alex Barnes, Coast Artillery. On Monday morning, Clarence Mayes, Roy O. Powell and Harry Hamlin, of Hay Creek, will leave from Bend to join the Coast Artillery.

GARDNER-WILKINSON SUED FOR DAMAGES

Joe Young Brings Action for $5000, for Injuries Received While Engaged in Logging.

The Gardner-Wilkinson Lumber Company is named defendant in an action for damages brought by Joe Young, a former employe of the company, for the recovery of $5000 for personal injuries said to have been sustained while he was engaged in logging operations for the company last winter. In addition to the damages for personal injuries, Mr. Young asks $530 paid by him for medical attention while he was in an alleged serious condition.

Crawford & Crawford, of Portland, and Chas. W. Erakine, of Bend, appear for the plaintiff.

FORMAL WARNING GIVEN ALIENS IN COUNTY

Under the proclamation of the President of date April 6, 1917, it is unlawful for alien enemies to have in their possession the following articles:

An firearm, weapon, or implement of war, or component part thereof, ammunition, maxim or other silencer, bomb or explosive, or material used in the manufacture of explosives; any aircraft or wireless apparatus, or any form of signaling device, or any form of cipher code, or any paper, document, or book written or printed in cipher, or in which there may be invisible writing.

I am requested by the United States Attorney to publish notice of the above in all the newspapers within this county, and to place the information in the hands of all the police officers, the sheriff and his deputies within the county, and to further notify all alien enemies within this county to bring to either police headquarters of any town or city, or to the office of the sheriff, and there surrender any and all articles which it is unlawful for them to have in their possession under the above provision.

The police officers or sheriff will give to you a receipt for such articles or article surrendered, and at the close of war such articles will be returned to you.

I am further requested to give notice that any alien enemy who fails to surrender such article within 24 hours after such public notice, will be subject to summary arrest if such article shall be found in his possession, and all such articles will be seized and forfeited to the use of the United States.

Therefore, all alien enemies within Deschutes County, Oregon, are hereby given public notice of the provisions of the proclamation of the President above referred to, and are hereby notified to surrender to the sheriff or to the police officers of any city or town in the county within 24 hours after the publication of this notice, any article that you may have in your possession named in the foregoing, and unless you do surrender such article within said time, you are hereby notified that you will be subject to arrest and the forfeiture and confiscation of your property.

H. H. DE ARMOND, District Attorney.

INJUNCTION ASKED BY UNITED PRESS

Would Stop Use of Name by Anti-Prohibition Publicity Company in Cleveland.

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)

CLEVELAND, O., April 21.—The United Press associations of New York, has on file here today a suit in the federal court for an injunction against O. K. Shimansky to prevent him from sending out anti-prohibition propaganda and other publicity matter in such a way as to make it appear to come from the United Press.

Shimansky has been conducting a publicity campaign mainly in behalf of the liquor interests of late through a concern incorporated in Ohio as the "United Press Association Company." In sending out propaganda to newspapers throughout the country, however, Shimansky used the name "United Press Association," omitting the word "company."

The petition on file here today asks that the injunction perpetually restrain Shimansky from using the name "United Press," or "United Press Association," unless accompanied with the following explanatory statement:

"Not connected with the United Press Associations."

John H. Perry, counsel for the United Press, supported his petition with a large number of affidavits from prominent newspaper publishers, and several members of Congress stating they received liquor propaganda literature from Shimansky under the name of the "United Press Association."

TWO GERMAN VESSELS SUNK WHILE ON RAID

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)
LONDON, April 21.—Two German destroyers were sunk, and a third possibly destroyed as well, when the enemy's vessels attempted a raid on Dover, the Admiralty announced today.

CITY PREPARED FOR ELECTIONS

PAMPHLETS EXPLAINING CHARTER AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED ON, ARE DISTRIBUTED THROUGH BEND TODAY.

Formally announcing the coming municipal election to be held on April 30 in Bend, to amend the city charter, pamphlets were distributed today, explaining measures to be balloted on, high school boys being pressed into service to see to it that copies of the pamphlets were left at the home of every voter.

One amendment to be voted on provides for the creation of improvement districts, and the assessment of property to pay for such improvements, according to the zone system, another is to allow for the floating of $16,000 worth of refunding bonds, while the third is to exempt officials from suit for damages for personal injuries, unless the city shall have had notice of defective walks or other city property causing the accident.

FOOD PREPAREDNESS PLAN MOST POPULAR

Industrial Clubs Organized in Rural Districts Near Bend, Eagerly take Idea for National Aid.

That the school children and their parents in the rural districts are enthusiastically taking up the food preparedness idea, is the statement of County School Superintendent J. Alton Thompson, who with County Agriculturalist Blanchard, has just completed the organization of industrial clubs at the Arnold school, the Young school, and Tumalo.

FUNDS ARE NEEDED FOR THE RED CROSS

Mrs. A. E. Trahan Emphasizes That Effectiveness of Work Will Depend on Popular Support.

Need for funds to finance the work of the Red Cross Society after its organization in Bend, was emphasized this afternoon by Mrs. A. E. Trahan, whose efforts have been largely responsible for the movement to organize a chapter of the society in Bend. "We want everyone to feel interested in this," she declared, "for the work is not merely for a certain class, but for all."

FILIBUSTER MAY BLOCK DRAFT BILL

OPPOSITION DEMANDS REGULAR ORDER.

COMMITTEE AMENDS

Report Authorizes President to Try Volunteering System First—Shutting Off Supplies For Germany Is Considered.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—Opponents of the conscription bill this afternoon started filibustering tactics to delay the passage of the measure. Senator Thompson demanded the regular order of business, namely, consideration of the espionage bill, at the expiration of the morning's business. A score of anti-conscriptionists predicted "draft riots," if the conscription bill passes.

The House Military committee voted 12 to 8, favoring the general staff army bill, with the amendment authorizing the President to call for volunteers if he wishes, before the selective draft plan is tried.

May Restrict Trade.

Measures designed to prevent food and supplies from reaching the enemy through Scandinavian countries, are being prepared, it was learned by the United Press this afternoon. The problem is one of a general series of "trading with the enemy" restrictions, which the cabinet is working out.

Legislation sealing an airtight economic blockade against the Central Powers will probably be presented in Congress soon. While the United States is opposed to the idea of a blacklist, some means is sought to prevent the Scandinavians from acting as "go betweens" for Germany.

MEMBERS SUGGESTED TO GO TO RUSSIA

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—Elihu Root, Professor Harper, of Chicago University, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, and Charles Crane are among prominent Americans who are being considered for places on the commission which is to be sent to Russia from this country to aid in a readjustment of Slavic government affairs.
