The remainder of July and all of August promise to be most active months for the summer tourist, the beaches and mountain resorts luring people away during the warm days. Among those enjoying motoring are Mr. and Mrs. A. L. French and children, Cecil and Elzora, who have left La Grande, where they will join a party of friends and motor on to Crescent City, California. They plan to camp there about a week or 10 days before returning to Bend. Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McBride and Mrs. Claude Metz returned from their trip of about 10 days to Medford. Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Reed plan to leave tomorrow morning in their car for Seaside, for a short vacation. Others who are enjoying the beaches are Miss Esther Moore and little Elizabeth and Thomas McCann, who plan to spend a month enjoying the surf and other beach sports at Seaside. Mrs. M. H. Horton has returned from a week's trip to Seaside. Mrs. Ward Coble and her mother, Mrs. G. W. Turner, are at Seaside and expect to stay about a month. Miss Marlon Lawrence is enjoying her vacation in Portland, where she is visiting with friends.

Silver Wedding Anniversary—
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shriner celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Thursday afternoon and evening, with a reception and dance at the Hippodrome. About 40 of their friends called in the afternoon and 200 in the evening, to offer their congratulations. Many beautiful gifts of silver were received by them. A musical program was furnished by Healy's orchestra and dainty refreshments were served.

Bridge—
Mrs. C. E. Havard was a hostess Tuesday afternoon, when she entertained the members of the club at bridge. Those present were Mrs. A. F. Larson, Mrs. C. A. Fritzsche, Mrs. F. E. Toomey, Mrs. C. M. Rogers, Mrs. R. J. Todd, Mrs. Louis Bennett, Mrs. M. H. Symons, Mrs. Fred Huey, Mrs. S. L. Angell and Mrs. N. Norvutt. High scores were awarded Mrs. Larson.

Five Hundred Club—
The Five Hundred club was entertained delightfully this week by Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ford at their home. Honors at cards were won by L. A. W. Nixon and Mrs. Stella Hankin. Members present were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McCuiston, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. W. Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Henkle, Mr. and Mrs. Guy McReynolds, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Farris and Mrs. Stella Hankin.

THE WRIGHT HOTEL
will serve chicken dinner, together with strawberry or raspberry shortcake with whipped cream, young onions, radishes, cucumbers, head lettuce, and many other good things at 6 o'clock Sunday. All for 60 cents.—Adv.

Pay, Pray and Peg Away.
In a Long Island village there used to be and still is a group of people who thought a good deal of each other in spite of what they said, which was frequently of an unsympathetic nature. The group existed under various self imposed names and had a semi-humorous motto, which ran, "Pay, pray and peg away."
All the members of this little association are still alive, kicking and good natured.
It seems a good idea to suggest that their motto be made public and urged for more general adoption.—New York Sun.

OLD EQUIPMENT IS SAVED FOR ARMIES

Clothing and Weapons Picked Up on Battlefields Repaired and Used for the Second Time.

By William Philip Sims, (United Press Staff Correspondent.)
WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, July 21.—Did you ever stop to think what becomes of all the worn-out equipment of an army composed of millions of men?

At the outset of the present war much of this was pure loss. Now in the British army there is an "old clothes man," and the profits he reports back to his boss, John Bull, might make Morgan, Rockefeller or Carnegie envious.

The old clothes man "saves the scraps." He makes new things out of old. He cleans up the battlefields and camps and very little is wasted nowadays. His job is to collect everything from a horseshoe nail to a disordered siege-gun and put it back into commission.

Brass objects which have lost their usefulness are melted into ingots; cast-iron junk becomes pig-iron once again; bronze, tin, steel, nickel and everything of the kind which has irretrievably lost its shape is put into melting pots to be born again in another guise keeping up an eternal transmigration but serving all the while.

I recently visited one of these scrap-saving and repair shops. About 12,000 people are employed, mostly French women and girls.

Here great howitzers are repaired and government chronometers have their hair-springs readjusted; tents are patched and mended and covers are made for steel helmets; artillery wheels are repaired and micrometers put true again. There is a wood-working shop, a foundry for running brass, bronze, zinc, tin and iron; a boot repair department, a great machine shop; a gas mask repair department and many others.

In one room there were hundreds and hundreds of rifles.
"This is one day's arrivals," the commanding officer explained. "By tonight the room must be cleared to make room for tomorrow's arrivals."

Many of the rifles were muddy and rusty as though picked out of the mud on the battlefield. Women were cleaning these. In one corner a soldier was rhythmically swinging the rifles up, one by one to a rest and squinting through the barrels at a light to see if they were bent or if the rifling was damaged. The officer explained this was obviously the first bit of inspection because it would be a waste of time to repair other parts of the rifle if the barrel was damaged.

These rifles pass on down the line. When they reach the end they are as good as new and after being oiled are packed in boxes and shipped back to the front.

TO THE CITIZENS OF BEND.

The story is being circulated about town that I am opposed to the formation of a home guard here. I wish to state that I am not opposed to it or anything else that is for the protection of our country and homes.

A Loyal Citizen.
NOLAN H. GILBERT.
