What have you done today to help win the war?

AUTO LICENSES.

Confirmation of arguments advanced during last spring's campaign for the highway bonds is found in the number of auto licenses now issued in Oregon. A news report says, "Automobile licenses are increasing in number far in excess of what was estimated when the campaign for the $6,000,000 road bonds was made. State Highway Commissioner Adams says that in his arguments in the campaign he estimated that there would be an increase of 20 per cent and that this would take care of the bonds, principal and interest, but today in Portland he saw an Oregon machine whose license number—46,000—shows that there has been an increase of 35 per cent—almost twice the increase anticipated."

TO THE POINT.

Our country: Its need is our need, its honor our honor, its responsibility our responsibility. To support it is a duty, to defend it a privilege, to serve it a joy. In its hour of trial we must be steadfast, in its hour of danger we must be strong, in its hour of triumph we must be generous. Though all else depart, and all we own be taken away, there will still remain the foundation of our fortunes, the bulwark of our hopes, a rock on which to build anew—our country, our homeland, America!—From American Magazine.

DON'T STOP.

When someone stops advertising, Someone stops buying.
When someone stops buying, Someone stops selling.
When someone stops selling, Someone stops making.
When someone stops making, Someone stops earning.
When everyone stops earning, Everybody stops buying.
Keep going.

Mrs. Bates Honored—

Saturday night Mrs. George Bates was pleasantly surprised at her home by a number of friends, who entertained in her honor with an informal party. Piano and violin music was provided for dancing by the Messrs. Falks, and a delightful buffet luncheon was served. Cards were also indulged in. Miss Christie Downer, in behalf of the guests, presented Mrs. Bates with a handsome silver service. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Beat, Mr. and Mrs. Haglin, Mr. and Mrs. George Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Tweet, Mrs. Oliver Johnson, Mrs. Alice Benner, Misses Olga, Myrtle and Agnes Johnson, Hazel Thorson, Christie Downer, of Portland, Cora and Gertrude Bates, and Messrs. Hexburg, Roberts, Halverson, Shoults, Gibbons, Falks, Jack Peterson, Hans Hagan, Carl Hagan, Chris Kostel, Martin Peterson, John Peterson, Craig Coyner, Roy Loven, O. E. Hangalo, J. Buckhose, George Bates, Mac McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Bates.

Initial Meeting Success—

The first meeting of the Parent-Teachers association for this year drew a large attendance yesterday afternoon. Committees were appointed to take up the new work, and a treasurer, Miss Helen Manny, was elected. Mrs. F. Thordarson, Mrs. H. J. Overturf and Mrs. Louis Bennett were appointed to select members for the program committee. The annual reception for the new teachers is to be held as soon as possible in the new wing of the high school. On account of the building not being complete no definite date was set. Meetings for this year will be held on the first Wednesday of each month at 3:15 in the high school auditorium.

Baptist Social—

In the parlors of the Baptist church last night the young people held one of their regular monthly socials. Mrs. F. J. Clapp and Mrs. T. H. Foley had arranged a program of games and at the conclusion of the affair served ice cream and cake. Members of the Sunday school classes present were Misses Katharine Pugh, Beatrice Barringer, Helene Francis, Goldie Cannon, Elsie Horn, Hattie Dick, Orpha Hauck, and Messrs. Henry Moore, James Mayne, Carl Greene, Will Greene, Ralph Cooper, Elmont McCully, Glenn Gosney, Seward Baggs, Alva Silvers and Mason Henderson.

Missionary Society Elects—

New officers for the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church were elected Thursday when the organization met at the home of Mrs. F. Thordarson. Those chosen were Mrs. F. S. Francis, president; Mrs. F. Thordarson, vice-president; Mrs. W. H. Staats, recording secretary, and Mrs. K. Nelson, treasurer. Work for the new year was discussed, the society deciding to support a Bible woman in India. The study for the ensuing year will be Africa, the first program, "The Land of the Crescent," to be in charge of Mrs. O. E. Powers, with Mrs. Thorson as hostess on October 11.

Children's Party—

Little Preston Hartranft celebrated his fifth birthday Tuesday afternoon with a party for a number of his playmates. The children played games until called into the dining room where a delightful collation was served. A huge birthday cake occupied the center of the board and the young host did the honors by extinguishing the candles. Playmates asked in for the festivities were Mary Howard, Neomi Hartranft, Russell Lucas, Bessie Reynolds, Harold Reynolds, Rosine Forrest, Roy Lumberg, Robert Foley and his sister and Lillian Eng. Mrs. Lumberg assisted Mrs. Hartranft with refreshments.

Riley-Ward—

A quiet wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charlotte E. Ward, when her daughter, Alice, became the bride of Ovid W. B. Riley. Rev. Hartranft was the officiating clergyman. Mr. and Mrs. Riley will spend a month on their ranch near Tumalo where he is well known as a stock man. Miss Ward was the sister of Miss Charlotte Ward, who was recently married in Portland.

Birthday Celebration—

Another party of the week was given Sunday afternoon by Robert Arnold on the occasion of his seventh birthday. Rosine Forrest, Charlotte Gagan, Russell Lucas, Ellsworth Staats, Antoinette Arnold and little Miss Jackson helped him celebrate the day. Mrs. Arnold served ice cream and cake before the children took their departure.

Luncheon for Five—

One of the attractive luncheons of the week was given by Mrs. Guy McReynolds Thursday at noon. A distinctive centerpiece of pink and white sweet peas and dainty floral place cards formed the only decorations. Places were laid for Mrs. A. L. French, Mrs. C. E. Nichols, Mrs. L. H. Gerbing, Mrs. H. B. Ford and Mrs. McReynolds.

Impromptu Luncheon—

Before motoring to Tumalo Wednesday afternoon to organize a branch of the Red Cross, Mrs. Harry Brooks entertained members of the party with luncheon at the Pilot Butte Inn. Those sharing her hospitality were Mrs. J. C. Vandeventer, Mrs. H. M. Greiner and Miss Helen Manny.

Wedding at Deschutes—

An event of interest last Saturday at Deschutes was the marriage of Miss Carrie Bell Livesley to William Lewis Bergstrom. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. George Livesley. The young couple will be at home after today.

Nickerson-Reynolds—

Miss Gertrude Reynolds and Howard Nickerson were principals in a quiet wedding at the Presbyterian parsonage Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Hartranft officiating.
