tion pictures, the taking of pictures of human beings playing their allotted roles in a drama which is being performed on the bottom of the ocean, has been accomplished by the Universal Film Company in their wonderful picture, "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea." The story of this photoplay is a dramatization of Jules Verne's masterpiece of imaginative fiction which has been read by millions of people under the same title. In the filming of this photodrama the marvelous Williamson inventions were utilized to take the moving pictures under the surface of the ocean. By this patented device many thrilling scenes, including the fight with the octopus and the trip through the shark infested waters near "Mysterious Island," were photographically recorded. The taking of this picture required two years' time and the services of 2000 actors. This photoplay, "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea," will be the attraction at the Liberty Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. In order to accommodate all who will want to see this great picture, two full performances will be given each night, the first beginning at 7:00 p. m. and the second at 9 o'clock. The management of the Liberty has secured the cooperation of the local school authorities and in order that every child may have an opportunity to witness this remarkable educational feature, special school children's matinees have been arranged for both Tuesday and Wednesday, at 3:00 p. m. The schools will be dismissed in time each day for the children to reach the theatre and a special admission price of ten cents has been made for students of all grades. The admission price for adults at the matinees will be 25 cents. The night prices will be 25 cents for children and 35 cents for adults.

Another extraordinary news picture will feature the Saturday night and Sunday matinee at the Liberty Theatre this week. It is a special extra war news edition of the Mutual Weekly and shows "Old Glory on the Battle Front," and the latest American army landing in France. In addition Vincent Colby, the world famous cartoonist, has contributed a full reel cartoon comedy drawing of the "Seven Cutey Pups," a story so well known to every child, and now for the first time shown in motion pictures.

The popular Miss Gail Kane is the star of the feature, "The Red Woman." Taken near Albuquerque, New Mexico, "The Red Woman" contains some strikingly beautiful and impressive views of the scenery in that section of the southwest. Against the background of this scenery the players have enacted a drama of remarkable intensity and force. The story deals with the love of an Indian maiden for a white easterner and it tells of the startling manner in which she saves her lover from death at the hands of a Mexican bad man and of the great sacrifice that she makes for him. Everything comes out happy in the end, however. This new World Brady-Made will be shown at the Liberty Theatre on Saturday night and Sunday matinee.
