Teachers Hold Reception—
The annual reception which the old teachers give the new comers on the various faculties of the city schools took place Tuesday afternoon in the assembly hall of the high school. The tea tables were simply decorated in nasturtiums and asters. In the receiving line were Miss L. May Ritchie and Mrs. J. D. Davidson, who have taught in Bend the longest of any of the local instructors.

Confections, Tobacco, Drinks, Gloves, at "Lumberman's," near the mills.—Adv.

Final Session of Club—
The Women's Club of Bend held its last regular meeting of the year on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. D. Gilson. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and club colors, pink and green, chosen. Officers elected for the coming season were: President, Mrs. C. A. O'Brien; vice-president, Mrs. E. Snow; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Burton. An interesting program was furnished by the members. Papers were read by Mrs. C. A. O'Brien, on "People and Customs of Hungary," another by Mrs. E. Snow on "Invasion of Hungary," and a "Sketch of Budapest" by Mrs. E. D. Gilson. Mrs. W. H. Burton also had an article on "Resources of Hungary." Mrs. J. Alton Thompson, a new member of the club, was appointed chairman of the program committee, the other members of which are Mrs. Gilson and Mrs. Burton.

OLYMPIC PANCAKE FLOUR

Its the daily breakfast in thousands of western homes.

There is no other so digestible and healthful.
Honesty recommended as the daily diet of the entire household.

Because the ingredients are so blended as to produce a food that is appetizing and perfectly digested. Those who have found other pancakes indigestible will find OLYMPIC agrees with the most delicate stomachs.
