

SECOND QUOTA GATHERS TODAY

C. M. FRAZIER PLACED IN CHARGE.

Drafted Men Meet This Morning For Instructions—One Travels From Virginia—Farewell Dance to Be Given Tonight.

As a semi-final step to the sending off of Deschutes county's second 40 per cent for the draft, conscripted men gathered this morning in the Council chambers of the O'Kane building to receive directions from Sheriff S. E. Roberts, chairman of the draft board, and County Clerk Haer, also of the board, in regard to mobilization. Charles M. Frazier, who traveled all the way from Virginia to Bend to be present at the meeting this morning, was appointed by Sheriff Roberts as captain to have charge of the men scheduled to go tomorrow night.

Eleven of the first choice drafted men are now ready to go from Bend and include Frank Zielinski, David R. Miller, John W. Garrison, Charles M. Frazier, Herbert H. Edgar, Irving B. Horner, Harry Thomas, Ralph T. Cooper, William W. Wheeler, Chester A. Brown and John Johnson. In addition there are, Edward Walker, expected to go from Eugene, Frank G. Hedstrom, who will probably report at American Lake from Napa, California, and John R. McKenzie, who will go direct from Portland. John Price, the fifteenth man, is herding sheep in the Blue Mountains, and the draft board expects to be able to reach him in time for him to make up one of the 40 per cent.

Roll call will be held this evening in the O'Kane building to secure a final list of the men who will leave for Camp Lewis.

Honoring the Deschutes county recruits, a dance will be given this evening at the Hippodrome, and Manager Harrison Latham appeared this morning at roll call and extended a special invitation to all who are joining the colors. Special music for the affair is promised.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS WILL BE DISCUSSED

Possibilities Under Bancroft Act Will Be Considered By Council In Meeting This Evening.

Further consideration of the bonding of the city under the Bancroft act to provide for street improvements in Bend will feature the regular monthly meeting of the city council to be held at 8 o'clock this evening in the O'Kane building. It is expected that the council may authorize the Lumbermen's Trust Co., of Portland, now examining the city charter, to suggest such changes in the local ordinances as will make it possible for Bend to take advantage of the Bancroft act.

Little else of importance is scheduled for discussion, routine matters being listed for the balance of the meeting.

MRS. M. J. KELLEY HAS TALENTED NIECE

Friends of Miss Carolyn Davies were interested to see in yesterday's Oregonian a recent picture of her and an article descriptive of her work. She is visiting in Portland at present. Miss Davies is well known in Bend, being a niece of Mrs. M. J. Kelley, and having visited here in the past. For the past few years she has been living in New York where her poetical work is in demand by the leading magazines of the country.

I. W. W. Expected to Base Defense on Denial of Charges

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 2.—The coming I. W. W. trial is expected to rank with the country's most famous labor hearings such as those of the Haymarket rioters, Mollie McGuire, and the McNamara dynamiters. The defense is expected to present a general denial of all charges. Government evidence shows the existence of a nationwide plot to paralyze industries and thwart military operations, and in general obstruct the completion of America's cause in the war. Half of the men arrested were held under an indictment that covers 40 pages. It is alleged that 15,000 offenses under 10 specific charges are contained in it. Secretary Baker and Governor Lister, of Washington, support the eight-hour day fight expected to be used by the defense in the trial.

FOWL PLENTIFUL ON OPENING DAY

LOCAL HUNTERS FIND EXCEL- LENT SPORT AT CRANE PRAIRIE — GEESE STILL AT LAKES—ALL BIRDS WILD.

Fulfilling pre-season prophecies, local sportsmen who left Sunday for the upper river at the opening of the water fowl season, returned last night, declaring shooting to be the best in years. Mallards were unusually abundant, and a few teal and pin-tail ducks were bagged. Crane Prairie yielded the best results and more than 20 hunters were in that vicinity.

As far as could be learned, C. E. Hamilton, P. L. Gallagher and Jack Stanley secured the record bag, bringing back 18 ducks. Others from Bend included Harry Reingold, Oscar Matchett, William Smith and E. Heath. A number tried their luck on the Deschutes.

Few geese were seen, as the cold is not yet severe enough to drive them from the mountain lakes, where they are reported to be gathered in great numbers. Hunters declare that all birds are extremely wild.

Because of the heavy snows of last winter, marshes are more plentiful than usual, and at Crane Prairie, much of which is often dry at this time of year, the water will average 12 inches in depth.

DESCHUTES COUNTY IS WITHOUT WARDEN

Heavy Enlistments Cut Off Money, and Commission Adopts Re- trenchment Policy.

Word that he has been retired from active service as deputy game warden in this section has just been received here by John Cunningham, of this city, from State Game Warden Shoemaker, the letter authorizing Mr. Cunningham's withdrawal giving lack of funds as the reason for the action. The fact that so many men who would otherwise have purchased licenses has curtailed the usual income of the commission, necessitating a retrenchment policy.

Mr. Cunningham believes that the same policy is being followed throughout the state, but is unable to state whether or not it will be permanent.

FRANK PRINCE WILL LEAVE ON SATURDAY

Washington, D. C., Is Present Destination Before Going to France With Engineers.

In response to a telegram received this morning from San Francisco over the signature of Major S. O. Johnson, of the Twentieth Engineers, Frank I. Prince, of The Shevlin-Hixon Company, is preparing to leave Saturday for Washington, D. C., to accept a lieutenantancy in the same regiment. He expects to be stationed for at least six weeks in the national capital before being called for service elsewhere.

Mr. Prince returned a few days ago from San Francisco, where he went on military matters and at that time was given to understand that he would be given a commission in the Twentieth Engineers, better known as the second forestry regiment. It is the same military unit as that in which Paul Hosmer, also a Shevlin-Hixon man, enlisted recently.

Only lack of years prevented Mr. Prince from being granted a captaincy.

ARGENTINE PRICES ON FOOD TREBLED

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)
BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 2.—Food prices trebled here today when the stevedores struck, stopping the last line of communication between Buenos Aires and the outside world. The government has withheld a declaration of martial law throughout the nation, although such a step was thought likely yesterday.

Great suffering has been caused among the poor by the scarcity of food, particularly milk.

TRAFFIC LAWS ARE SENT OUT

CHIEF OF POLICE NIXON DIS- TRIBUTES ORDINANCE BOOKS BEFORE MAKING CLEANUP OF THOSE VIOLATING RULES.

Traffic ordinance booklets are being distributed by Chief of Police Nixon and Night Officer Kulp in order that the number of violations of the traffic rules may be lessened. Within 10 days if those who receive the warnings have not heeded them, arrests will be made and the persons concerned will be subject to the penalty.

A large number of motor cars in Bend have been running without both front and rear lights and with only one license number instead of one on both back and front. No arrests have been made but now a wholesale cleanup is planned. Five hundred booklets are being left on automobiles standing on the streets down town and a record is kept of each number which receives one, so there will be no chance of offenders pleading that they had no knowledge of the law.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE BEGINS AT SCHOOL

New Equipment Is Ordered—L. Boland Is Chosen for This Season's Coach.

Letters have been sent to the high schools at Hood River, Redmond, White Salmon and Prineville asking them to arrange football games with Bend high school. L. Boland, who has been chosen coach for the local team, has begun practice with the 18 men who have turned out. The lineup will probably be much the same as last year, due to the fact that most of the 1916 team was composed of under classmen.

New suits, sweaters and socks will be purchased by the squad at once so that they will make a good showing at the opening game of the season.

ASKS FOR LIBERTY LOAN SUBSCRIPTIONS

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)
INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 2.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo today pleaded with a great crowd to give the boys who have offered their lives for their country a means of defending themselves, by subscribing to the Liberty Loan. He declared that the failure to float a single loan would be more disastrous in the war than the loss of a great battle.

GERMANS SEE BRITISH MENACE

FIGHTING NEAR YPRES IS DESPERATE.

French and Russians Move Forward —Ostend and Zeebrugge Line of Communication Is Objective On Western Front.

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)
LONDON, Oct. 2.—General Haig has reported the British repulsed five distinct and violent German counter attacks in the Ypres sector last night. German losses were exceptionally heavy, and the drives were desperate. Haig's silence as to his own moves is believed to forecast a great British attack.

Germans have apparently discovered the British plans and are trying by frantic counter attacks to keep the British so occupied that they cannot mass for a great drive. The Kaiser's generals evidently see the menace of the British in trying to cut communications between Ostend and Zeebrugge.

RUSSIAN ADVANCE CONTINUES. PETROGRAD, Oct. 2.—Russians in the Riga sector have advanced a mile against the Germans, from Kron- enburg to Spittal.

FRENCH GAIN IN BEAUMONT. PARIS, Oct. 2.—The French re- pulsed two strong enemy attacks in the Beaumont sector. Artillery fight- ing is active today.

SEA OFFENSIVE IS CONSIDERED POSSIBLE

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 2.—The Allies, with American aid, will probably undertake a sea offensive next year. This deduction is drawn by the resolute attempts to cut the Ostend-Zeebrugge communications.

Germany is concentrating her submarines against American military ships. A submarine base will probably be established off the French coast in the American transport lane. The total number of allied vessels sunk remains practically unchanged.

Lord Northcliffe has stated that the United States must have 500,000 men building ships. He declares that the men would be of as much use at this occupation as in fighting the Germans as soldiers. "All of the million Americans now in training are useless unless ships are supplied to carry them provisions and food after they reach Europe," he said. Northcliffe admits that even with the bravery and ingenuity of British and American captains and Edison's devices the submarine problem is far from being solved.
