AN ALL-STAR CAST

Headed by Wallace Reid and supported by Dorothy Davenport, Anita King, Raymond Hatton, A. D. Carpenter, Frank Lanning, Charles D. Geldert, Ted Duncan, Donald Bowles, and others.

"The Squaw Man's Son"

Here is a great picture, blending strangely the tang and snap of the American West and the pomp and ceremony of the ancestral halls of "old England."

EDWIN MILTON ROYLE

The author of "The Squaw Man."

Has written the sequel to his famous play, which was also the first lasky picture, in response to the popular demand to know what had become of Hal, the Squaw Man's son.

Ed. Dunn, of Tumalo, is in Bend today on business. He has nearly completed a private irrigation system on a 320-acre flat across the river from the town and is planning to plant it with alfalfa. The work has taken two months to complete and includes a dam and ditch. Mr.
Dunn came here originally from Cor-

Sunday in Bend Churches

Catholic Church Services.

Masses on Sunday will be at 7:30 and 10 o'clock. Instructions for the children are given every Saturday morning after the 8:30 mass.

First Scandinavian Lutheran Church.

Sunday school at 10:00 a. m.
Preaching at 11 o'clock.
Evening services at 7:45 o'clock.
Scandinavians cordially invited.
J. H. BRONO, Pastor.

Presbyterian Church.

Next Sunday morning the matter of food conservation in the United States will be fully discussed in the Presbyterian church. The pastor will speak at 11:00 a. m. from the subject
"How to Win the War Against Germany."

A number of things are of the utmost importance, and these things will be brought out in the fullest details. The pastor has been appointed to represent the federal board of food conservation in this county, and last week had the privilege of getting a great many things first-handed. The message that Hon. James W. Gerard brought to the citizens of Portland will be echoed in this address. The facts in the case are startling. Come and hear them.

The 7:30 service will be a mass meeting of all the churches. This will be in preparation for the coming series to be conducted by Dr. Lyon.
There will be services every evening
next week.
