

GRAIN PRODUCTION WILL BE BOOSTED

Washington, Oregon and Idaho Crops For Next Year Will Be in Excess of Present Season.

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin) WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 19.—Washington, Idaho and Oregon next year will far exceed all previous grain production records.

That's practically assured today. Only unfavorable weather next spring and summer can prevent it. With half a chance, the inland empire will produce millions of bushels more than ever before.

Thousands of acres are being put into wheat for the first time and winter wheat is particularly popular with the farmers. Weather conditions are now favorable for planting and the farmers are taking full advantage of it.

MARKET MASTER IN PORTLAND IS FIRED

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin) PORTLAND, Oct. 19.—Lawrence Hayes, in charge of the municipal fish market, was promptly fired yesterday when city authorities learned he had conspired with other fish dealers to boost fish prices. The municipal market was established to reduce the retail price of fish and to encourage the fishing industry in Oregon.

PRINEVILLE WOMAN HONORED AT EUGENE

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin) EUGENE, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Collins Elkins, of Prineville, was elected vice-president for the fourth district at the convention of the Oregon Congress of Mothers and the Parent-Teacher association here yesterday.

BOY'S EVIDENCE GIVEN AGAINST HIS MOTHER

for the purchase of his ranch, she denied having ever had in her possession. She stated that she was sick in bed seven days just prior to February 26. Likewise, she denied having had any laudanum in her house at any time or of receiving any check for $500 from Rawlings. When she learned that a note was in the bank involving her property she took the matter up with Rawlings instead of appealing to the First National Bank to look into it.

Another witness appearing for the plaintiff was Ole Simonson, who lives on the homestead adjoining that of Mrs. Bailey.

D. P. Boone, J. Warner, Ole Lauson and Ivan Knotts appeared this morning for the defense. Judge W. D. Barnes, called by District Attorney De Armond in rebuttal for the state, testified as to the reputation for truth and veracity of the boy, Oscar, of whom, as a ward of the county, he has personal knowledge.

AT THE MOVIES

Liberty Theatre.

Wonderful dance scenes in which Alice Brady and Alexis Kosloff, the famous Russian dancer, are the principals, feature "The Dancer's Peril," the latest World Picture Brady-Made which comes to the Liberty Theatre on Saturday night only. This picture tells a thrilling tale of a beautiful young Russian girl who, by her grace and beauty becomes the star of the great Russian ballet. She is the daughter of a Russian grand duke, but because her mother was not of the nobility her father dares not acknowledge her. When the ballet goes to Paris the girl's father tells her caretaker to keep her alone and not allow her to go to Paris. But the girl runs away and goes with the ballet. The impresario of the dancers, a vicious rake, becomes infatuated with her and surmises that she is afraid of the duke's daughter. In Paris the girl falls in love. There her mother is one of the reigning beauties of the city and when the impresario, under a ruse, gets the girl into his apartment the girl's mother saves her in a remarkable manner. The girl is reunited to her lover and happiness crowns her life.

Miss Brady is seen at her brilliant best in this scintillating offering. This drama sparkles with the fire of romance, glows with life and throbs with the music of the dance. In it Miss Brady appears as the star of the Russian ballet—a character new to her and to the screen—and her impersonation is superb. Vivid dance scenes feature this production.

Grand Theatre.

Here's something new in vampires, a sort of vest-pocket edition. She's June Daye who is appearing with Stuart Holmes in "The Derelict," a William Fox production. Miss Daye prides herself on being the youngest as well as smallest siren on the screen.

This special feature play is to be shown at the Grand Sunday night and Monday.

Miss Daye's pride in luring men is purely professional. Her early ambition was to be a saver not a destroyer.

Before the stage had thoroughly mastered her Miss Daye longed to be a nurse and had practically completed a course of training at a large New York hospital when she obtained a chance to go with the Ben Greet Players. Her knowledge of nursing, however, has been very useful. Often during her screen career she has given first aid treatment to fellow players who have been injured in their work. From the Ben Greet Players Miss Daye went with Robert Mantell and later played with Henry Ludlow, the Cripple Creek Company and the Clansman Company. While with the last company she was invited to watch the Biograph players at work.

At the studio she was introduced to the director who asked her if she would like to play a part. She accepted the offer as a sort of lark, but found the work so fascinating that as soon as possible she quit the stage for the films.

"Within the Law," the screen version of Bayard Veiller's sensational stage success, which was viewed by more than four million theatre goers in the United States and Canada, will open at the Grand next Wednesday and Thursday. As a legitimate stage production, "Within the Law" was a popular attraction and financial success that has made a high-water mark all producers have been seeking to reach since Selwin & Company demonstrated that more than two million dollars could be forced into theatre box offices through just one play.

UNCLE SAM GETS THE MONEY.

Liberty Bonds are sold direct from the United States Treasury Department to the people. There is an appropriation of a small sum for rent, clerk hire, postage. No commissions are paid and the local and state campaigns are defrayed by private patriotic subscriptions, practically all workers donating their services.

ROBINSON CRUSOE IS HANDED A LEMON

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin) COQUILLE, Or., Oct. 19.—Robinson Crusoe is a literary lemon, in the opinion of 20th century youths. There's nothing in books by Henry and Alger, these juvenile critics declare, and a good many books intended for boys and girls are too sissy, or impossible, or unreal. Goody-goody books are all to the bad. The boy of today favors such books as "Bob, Son of Battle," the Rover boy series or "Tom Sawyer," while the girls support "Pollyanna" and "The Harvester." John C. Almaek, superintendent of the Coquille schools, got the opinions of 218 girls and 167 boys attending junior high schools in Ashland, McMinville, Springfield and Eugene on the subject of books.

We Are Booking Order Now for Spring Delivery

On account of the number of orders that we have at the present time, we have been forced to take orders for spring installations. We have a number of large orders that we are working on now, and as the metal strips have to be cut at the factory it is necessary to find out now about the work for this next spring.

With our experience in this work, and the modern system that we are using, it is possible to do the work in a short time, but we have to get the orders in from thirty to sixty days before the work is to be started.

At the present time we are working on the Pilot Butte Inn, and can be seen there at any any time.

Remember Any Style or Shape Window Can be Filled with the National Metal Weather Strips.

OFFICERS DRILLING AT AMERICAN LAKE

(By United Press to the Bend Bulletin) CAMP LEWIS, Wash., Oct. 19.—Pity the officers—particularly the Presidio training camp men. They are busy from early morning until late at night. The day holds nothing but work for them.

In addition to drilling their squads and going to school, officers from the Presidio school themselves are being drilled like the rawest rookies. Divided into squads they are put through the simplest movements.

Commanding officers explain that an officer soon gets rusty if he merely commands a company all the time.
