

PREMIER'S FALL NOW CONFIRMED

LENINE MAY BECOME SLAV DICTATOR.

Russian Embassy in Washington Will Not Recognize Maximalist Government—Stockholm Paper Denies Kerensky's Arrest.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—American Ambassador Francis, in Petrograd, cabled the State Department a confirmation of the overthrow of the Kerensky government, the arrest of cabinet members and bombardment of the winter palace. Reports that the peace radicals control Moscow almost ended official hope that Kerensky could re-establish the old provisional government. The Russian embassy is refusing to believe that the radical movement will succeed. The embassy predicts that Lenine will announce himself either premier or dictator. The exact whereabouts of Kerensky is unknown.

Moscow Seized.
Cables to the State Department today asserted that the Maximalists seized Moscow on November 8, closing all conservative newspapers, and placing all railroads and telegraph offices under guard.

The Russian ambassador announced this afternoon that the embassy in Washington will refuse to recognize the Maximalist government. He declared that the Maximalists do not represent all Russia, and that they cannot express the people's will.

American Ambassador Francis, in Petrograd, cabled today that everything is o. k., indicating that the Maximalists have not yet been forcibly opposed.

ARREST REPORT DENIED.
STOCKHOLM, Nov. 10.—It was declared by a Stockholm Socialist paper today that Kerensky and his cabinet are not under arrest, and that Kerensky himself is at the front.

SISTERS MAY TAKE HOSPITAL

FIVE MEMBERS OF CATHOLIC ORDER NEXT MONTH—FATHER SHEEHAN MAKES ARRANGEMENT.

Catholic sisters from Indianapolis may take over the Bend Hospital the earlier part of the year if the five of their order who are expected to arrive in Bend next month look upon the proposition favorably. Word to this effect has been received by Father Luke Sheehan, who is now in the east completing arrangements with the sisters.

The idea of having sisters in charge of the hospital is not a new one. When Dr. E. C. Coe opened the institution over two years ago he tried to bring them here, but found no sisters available at the time. Later representatives of a prominent order proposed to erect a hospital of their own in Lava Park but the plan was not found feasible on account of the war situation. Three months ago Dr. Coe again discussed the matter with Father Sheehan and he corresponded with various orders until he found one which would consider it. Accordingly he went east about two weeks ago to arrange for their taking over the hospital. They will arrive about December 15.

Although the staff of the hospital will necessarily be changed, the institution will continue to care for the mill people. J. D. Donovan, who has managed the hospital up to the present, will probably remain connected with it as an X-ray expert. On or about the first of the year, should the sisters decide to stay, the change will be made.

MARINES BOMBARD MINIATURE CITY

Soldiers of the Sea, in Practice, Are Taught to Keep Fire From Churches and Hospitals.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
QUANTICO, Va., Nov. 11.—U. S. marines bombarded an enemy city yesterday and the only buildings left standing after the terrific fire were churches and hospitals.

It was only a miniature city, to be sure, and the buildings were not more than a foot high. Cities in miniature are used as objectives by marine corps artillerymen in training here, and the little buildings in them are plainly labeled "gun factory," "barracks," "church," "hospital," etc. The marine gunners are careful in training to avoid hitting buildings marked "church" or "hospital" and in practice they show wonderful marksmanship in razing building adjacent.

SEASON FOR MOVING STOCK NEARLY ENDED

Two Big Shipments Leave Tomorrow—Cattle Are Brought Up From South.

This year's movement of sheep will be practically ended when the 16 car special train leaves tomorrow for Chicago with 2200 head of stock shipped by W. H. McCormick. The Union Pacific is providing special transportation for them while the O.-W. R. & N. is also sending an extra train to Portland the same morning with 275 head of cattle which K. O. Bulck has brought up from the southern border of the state. Through the efforts of S. L. Wiggins these have been brought through Central Oregon instead of California. Mr. Wiggins is endeavoring to direct similar shipments through here and develop the local line as an avenue for stock.

The question of the validity of Madras as the county seat of Jefferson county has been renewed by a petition presented in the supreme court this week asking for a re-hearing. Further action may be taken within the next few weeks.

CHINA VEXED AT U. S. ACTION

(By Robert J. Bender.)
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—China feels that the United States has double-crossed her in the informal understanding reached between America and Japan, because Chinese officials were not consulted.

The Chinese foreign office states that China is bound to other countries for after war trade. It was learned that when peace is declared the Asiatics may resume friendly relations with Germany, depending on that country instead of on the United States in adding to withstand Japanese pressure in China.

ARGUMENT ON MOTION POSTPONED A MONTH

Owing to the absence of Vernon A. Forbes in Eugene, arguments were not heard this morning on the motion to strike out the reply in the case of Stadig vs. Deschutes County, popularly known as the county division case. Judge Duffy was here from Prineville today for the purpose of giving the hearing, but the matter had to be postponed until the latter part of December, when the Jefferson county court will be over.

Springer Quits Under Fire; Wallace Gets Job in Crook

SALEM, Nov. 10.—N. G. Wallace, of Prineville, was named county judge of Crook county yesterday by Governor Withycombe, to succeed Judge Springer, who resigned to avoid recall proceedings said to have been pending against him.

The change in county judges in Prineville comes as the climax of a stormy year in Crook county politics. Recall proceedings had been earlier considered at a mass meeting in the county seat, one of the chief complaints made against Judge Springer being that he made his home on his ranch in Jefferson county. Agitation for his removal was temporarily dropped when he removed to Crook county. Shortly after, Judge Springer filed a suit for $50,000 damages against the leaders in the campaign, charging libel. The suit was decided against him, however.

N. G. Wallace, the new head of the Crook county court, is well known to Deschutes county people, chiefly from the fact that he is counsel for the plaintiff in the quo warranto proceedings, filed shortly after the formation of Deschutes county, questioning the existence of the county.

Many Asked Recall.
The story of the latest recall campaigned, said to be responsible for Judge Springer's resignation, is told in the Prineville Enterprise as follows:

"A committee consisting of Harold Baldwin, cashier of the First National bank, E. J. Wilson, cashier of the Crook County bank, and Collins W. Elkins, a merchant of Prineville, circulated petitions for Judge Springer's recall, two days last week.

"Everyone, with very few exceptions, signed when a petition was presented. The people of Prineville have at last begun to awaken to the fact that it is necessary for them to pay some attention to the desires of the farmers and ranchmen, and also to clean up their own skirts. The people of Prineville were responsible for Judge Springer getting into office, and also for keeping him there, in spite of the farmers' efforts to get rid of him. But now that his rottenness and guilt have been exposed and proven to our business men, they in their turn propose to prove their unannounced condemnation of such unprecedented actions on the part of a county judge, by forthwith ousting him out of office, with the help of the country folk."

The First National is already a depositary of the State of Oregon, Deschutes county, and the City of Bend.

ALFALFA MAN WINS SUIT FOR DAMAGES

W. Pyatt Gets $72.50 In Justice Court For Injury to Horse Last May.

W. Pyatt, of Alfalfa, was given the verdict in the justice court today in a civil action brought against H. M. and E. T. Johnson, of Redmond. The plaintiff was awarded $72.50 and costs by the court. Mr. Pyatt in filing the suit asked for $125 damages for crippling a horse which the defendants had hired from him in May of this year.

The defense claimed that the subcontractor working for them on the construction of the Prineville railroad had hired the horse, but Miss Johnson, bookkeeper for her brothers, testified that she had taken up the matter with Pyatt for the company. Attorney W. B. Daggett represented the defendants and C. W. Erskine, the plaintiff.

TEMPORARY ORDERS GOVERN QUARANTINE

As a temporary arrangement until the city health committee can hold a formal meeting, Chief of Police Nixon will continue to call Dr. U. C. Coe in to make examinations of reported cases of contagious diseases which are within the range of quarantine regulations. This was the instruction he received this morning from A. E. Edwards, chairman of the committee and which settled the question of authority as to enforcing quarantine.

Grade schools throughout the city will reopen next Monday morning unless more new cases of scarletina develop before that time. So far as known, the epidemic has begun to die out.
