What have you done today to help win the war?

MAIL ORDERS.

Every so often something is said about helping the local merchant, keeping business at home and downing the mail order house. Appeals are made to local self interest and the farmers, especially, are urged to buy where they sell and thereby keep their money at home, the farmers being the ones who are thought to be the chief mail order offenders.

Now comes the advertising manager of one of the leading Chicago mail order houses and says that it is largely the fault of the non-advertising merchants of a town if his house does business there. Here are his words spoken to the members of the Associated Advertising Clubs, at a recent convention:

"We have a bureau whose duty it is to read each week the country newspapers from all over the country. There is not a paper of any consequence in our trade territory that our bureau does not get. This bureau looks over these papers and WHEN WE FIND A TOWN WHERE THE MERCHANTS ARE NOT ADVERTISING IN THE LOCAL PAPERS WE IMMEDIATELY FLOOD THAT TER-RITORY WITH OUR LITERATURE.
It always brings results far in excess of the same effort put forth in territory where the local merchants use their local papers."

We doubt if a town ever had a more aggressive lot of advertisers among its merchants than has Bend.
By which token the mail order business out of here ought to be small.
How to make it smaller would be a profitable study for the Commercial Club.

Italy has tried to remove every possible excuse for Germany's destruction of works of art in Venice.
What's the use. The Huns would find an excuse anyway.

Over $4,000,000 worth of eggs have been found cached in New York City. At present prices that's not so very many.

Doesn't Always Work.

"Take my advice," said the man who has a great deal of litigation. "Do anything rather than go into court."
"I tried that once, and it taught me a lesson."
"How so?"
"I was given a stiff fine for resisting an officer."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Asmodeus.

Asmodeus is an evil genius or demon.
In the apocryphal book of Tobit he is represented as slaying the seven husbands of Sarah. In the Talmud he is described as the prince of demons and is said to have driven Solomon from his kingdom.

AT THE MOVIES

Grand Theatre.

"Even As You and I," the seven-reel feature at the Grand, Saturday night and Sunday matinee, depicts life in Bohemia as lived by a couple held aloof from the giddy whirl for a time by their gentle idealism. With dramatic situations it introduces into their happy home a modern citizen, proud of his cynical theory that there is no faithful love, and predicting that the two at no very distant day will betray each other.

Their journeys along the thorned path of life and their fall and rise fill the seven reels with the most intense interest. The strong cast is headed by Ben Wilson, Priscilla Dan and Mignon Anderson.

June Caprice, the girl with the sunny smile, gets mixed up in a thrilling cook story in her latest picture for William Fox, "A Small Town Girl," which will be shown at the Grand Theatre on Thursday and Friday. With the help of little Jane Lee, she hands the gem thieves over to the police. "A Small Town Girl" is a story of a county girl, who goes to New York to take care of her aunt's little girl. There in the squalid surroundings of a First Avenue tenement June meets Frank, (Bernard Delaney), her old sweetheart back home, who had come to the big city to make good.

In the same house with June is a band of crooks. They steal a jewel and hide it in the heel of the slipper belonging to Mame (Inez Marcel), the woman of the gang. Little Jane finds the slipper and gives it to June.
Frank calls and in a playful tussle over the slipper pulls the heel off.
The gem falls to the floor. Frank had heard of the theft and hurries to the police with the jewel.

Meantime the crooks discover the loss of the slipper. Mame quizzes Jane and learns she gave it to June.
With her men confederates she attacks June just as Frank returns with the police. When left alone June falls into Frank's arms.

RUBBERS! RUBBERS!

Men's Rubbers and Knit Goods of all descriptions

OVERSHOES

One buckle, two buckle, three buckle and four buckle Overshoes. Rubbers and Overshoes for ladies and children. Our advise is to buy them now, while our stock and line of sizes is still complete. The best grades of rubber are used extensively by the U. S. government in making war supplies, and when the present retail stock is exhausted we can safely predict an actual rubber famine.

MEN'S YARN SOCKS

With raw wool in Oregon 75c a pound, wool socks can still be found at the Reed-Smith Mercantile Co. at the same price as when wool was only 16c a pound.

While They Last
25c to 60c a pair

SPECIAL!

We have fully 200 Men's and Boy's Suits, in worsted and cassimeres, that are still at "before the war" prices. Styles are conservative and values great.

MACKINAW & BLANKETS

Are among other articles which war prices on wool are boosting to the sky, but early purchases enable us to offer a complete line to our customers at quotations prevailing nearly a month ago.
