TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1917

What have you done today to help win the war?

"HIS MODESTY, THE KAISER."

Today we remove ourselves from this column in favor of Ring W. Lardner, who has done the best thing yet on the Kaiser. Taking for a text a paragraph from Ambassador Gerard's book, Mr. Lardner has written, under the title, "His Modesty, The Kaiser," the following:

"Finally in January, 1917, when he (Hollweg) was again talking of peace, I said, 'What are these peace terms to which you refer continually?
Will you allow me to ask a few questions as to the specific terms of peace? First, are the Germans willing to withdraw from Belgium?' The chancellor answered, 'Yes, but with guarantees?' He said, 'We must possibly have the forts of Liege and Namur; we must have other forts and garrisons throughout Belgium. We must have possession of the railroad lines. We must have possession of the ports and other means of communication. The Belgians will not be allowed to maintain an army, but we must be allowed to maintain a large army in Belgium. We must have the commercial control of Belgium.'"—Mr. Gerard's Book.

The Kaiser is a violet,
As modest as they grow,
Like Goldsmith's Man, the Kaiser
wants
But little here below,
Should we delay the joyous day
Of butchery's surcease,
When they're so dog-gone moderate,
The Kaiser's terms of peace?

What does he ask of Belgium?
Nothing that isn't fair—
A few big forts, a lot of ports,
The only army there,
Control of all the commerce,
The railroads and the wires;
Aside from which there's not a thing
His little heart desires.

And if he wants so little
From a land of Belgium's size He'll certainly go easy
On the rest of the allies.
Let's see if we can figure out,
Let's see if we can guess,
What all the cuss will ask of us
Before he'll end the mess.

Of course, he'll wish for Poland;
He'll claim Alsace-Lorraine;
That part of Portugal which lies Between the sea and Spain;
Roumania and Serbia
In toto and intact;
Not very much of Russia—
One-half, to be exact.

Of Italy, say Venice
And Florence, yes, and Rome;
The choicest site in Naples,
Where he'll build a winter home.
Of France, the whole of Paris,
Versailles, Calais, Bordeaux,
And all the rural districts
Where the champagne makin's grow.

Of Britain, O not very much:
Merely some guarantees
That English ships will make no trips Without first saying "Please!"
And that the Touts be given Exclusive right of way
Between the unimportant ports
Of Dover and Calais.

Of our U. S. he'll ask much less Because we started late:
Possibly New York harbor,
Besides the Golden Gate,
The Capitol, the White House,
Our railroads and our mills,
And just sufficient change to pay His and his sidekicks' bills.

The Kaiser is a violet,
As modest as they grow,
Like Goldsmith's Man, the Kaiser
wants
But little here below,
They say he's been that way since birth:
Shy as a young gazelle;
The Kaiser only wants the Earth—
But what he'll get is Hell.
