FALSE CHARGES.

Workers in the recent Red Cross membership campaign now and then came upon people who refused to take memberships on the ground that the Red Cross was not properly administered, that a large part of its funds were paid in salaries to people who were not entitled to them and were otherwise improperly used. Another common charge was that supplies made by Red Cross members never reached the soldiers but were sold and the proceeds pocketed.

We do not know how prevalent this idea may be and whether it is actually believed or merely used as an excuse for turning a solicitor away. It would seem important, however, to do everything possible to combat it and to run the accusations, if believed, to the ground.

No one can deny that the Red Cross does a most magnificent work. If the charges which have been voiced are true there is no one more anxious to see that they are run down and the guilty persons punished, than the leaders who direct the work which is done. Such speculations, which we do not believe exist, can be only an infinitesimal portion of the total business of the order, and are no reason for denying assistance to the cause.

The man with any knowledge of such wrong doing owes it to the country to come forward with his facts; the man without knowledge has a double duty of stopping the rumor if it comes to him and running it back to its source. He should also report to the nearest Red Cross chapter.

GET THIS RIGHT.

What is intended by the Meatless and Wheatless Day, called for by the regulations of the United States Food Administration, is clearly stated below:

1. Meatless Day—No beef, pork or mutton to be served in any form. This includes sausage, hash, Hamburger, steak, Sweet breads, tripe, liver, brains, kidney, pigs feet, meat soups, etc.

Substitutes which may be used include game, poultry, fish, eggs and sea foods. Also cheese in combination with macaroni, spaghetti, rice, hominy, etc.

2. Wheatless Day—No wheat products to be served in any form.

This includes bread containing any wheat flour, whether white or graham; wheat cereals; white and graham crackers; macaroni, spaghetti, cakes, pies and pastry containing wheat; sauces containing flour or bread crumbs.

Substitutes which may be used include breads, pastry and pies made from combination of corn meal, barley flour, rye flour, oatmeal flour and rice flour. Popcorn has been found to be a satisfactory substitute for some kinds of crackers.

Do not use wheat on Wednesdays on the theory that it will not keep over until the next day. It can be used later for toast and other purposes, and must in no instance be served on Wednesday.

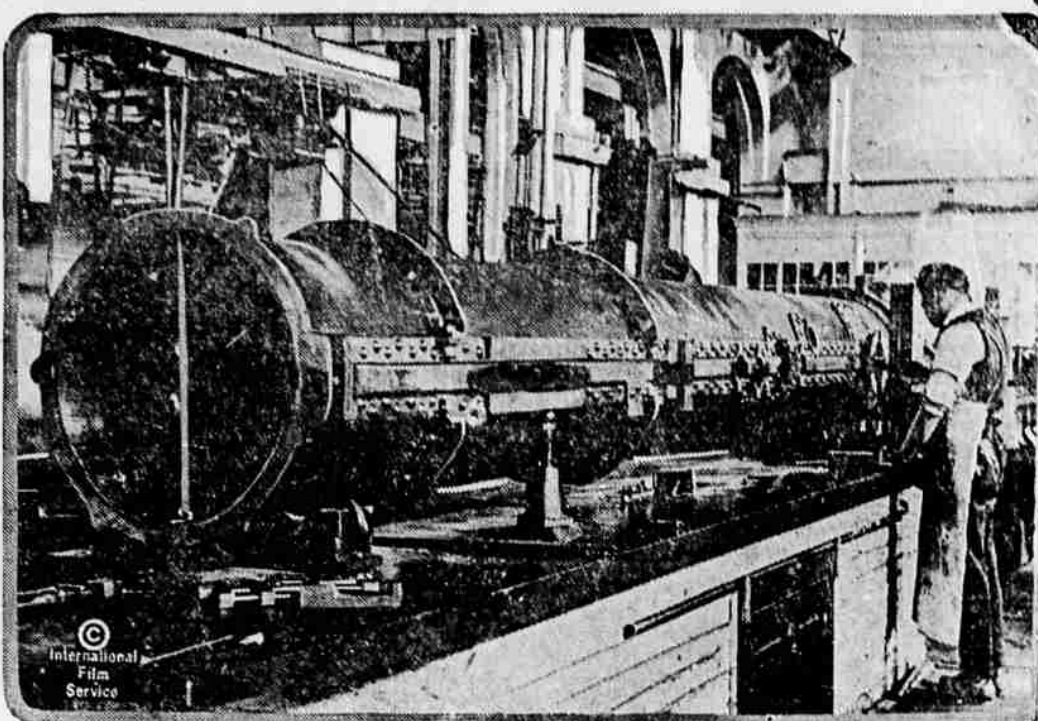

Recipes for bread, cake and pastry containing no wheat flour may be had on application to this office.

Remember the Wheatless and Meatless Days and keep them wholly.

LUNAR RAINBOW SEEN IN WEST LAST NIGHT

Friends of County Clerk J. H. Haner were treated to an unusual sight last night in the shape of a lunar rainbow which was visible in the western sky between 6 and 6:30 o'clock. This does not mean that only Mr. Haner's friends could see the phenomenon. It was visible to all. Mr. Haner, however, saw it first and at once got busy on the telephone to call his friends' attention to it. The rainbow made a complete arc and, although at times faint, showed the rainbow quite clearly in spite of the darkness.

MAKING TORPEDO TUBE IN AMERICAN ARSENAL

The great arsenals of the United States are working night and day to supply the needs of the navies of America and the allies. The illustration shows a torpedo tube in process of manufacture.

TO GIVE DANCE.

As a preliminary to the reorganization of the Emblem club and reopening of the club house, an informal dance will be given in the club hall on Saturday night, invitations having been sent out today. It is expected that a meeting of the members will be held next week to consider plans for the future.

MOTOR COMPANY IS IN NEW QUARTERS

Cent-Ore Garage Occupies Entire Fox Building On Bond Street—Equipment Complete.

New quarters in the recently completed L. L. Fox building on Bond street are now being occupied by the Cent-Ore Motor Co. E. P. Jech and J. L. Van Huffell, proprietors of the garage, have arranged the structure to include show rooms, stock rooms and offices.

On the lower floor is the display room 20 by 35 feet, and a stock room of the same dimensions. The remaining space is occupied by storage rooms, the main office and a ladies' waiting room which is complete with every convenience.

An electric elevator, 12 by 18 feet, carries the cars to the second floor where the shop is located. Model equipment has been installed throughout the building. The entire floor space in the garage is estimated at about 13,500 square feet. All of the flooring in the lower room is concrete. A gasoline pump has been placed beside the driveway in front and provision has been made inside for wash racks for the cars.

COMPENSATION IS CONSIDERED

mas day the board worked until late securities the railroads could finance themselves.

Heads of the roads predict that advancing expenses for maintenance will necessitate the government making good a deficit on most of the lines by diversion of their business to other routes. The net income guarantee, however, protects all.

President Wilson today proclaimed that he had empowered McAdoo by general or special orders to do anything that he deems necessary in order to run the railroads as a war machine solely for efficiency and as a means to victory.

SUNKEN SHIPS BEING RAISED

War Brings Day of Resurrection for Many Vessels for Years Listed as Discarded Wreck.

Certainly the day of resurrection has come, for ships, hulks long since sunk, all but forgotten, rise in their very bones, take on renewed bodies and with the rhythmic heart-beat of new engines feel the blood coursing in their veins once more. Observes the Boston Transcript. Abandoned coal barges, hulls of whale ships, of little cargo carriers that have lain at dismantled wharves for half a century, struggle from their graves in the ooze, feel again the measured clink of caulking iron, lift proud topmasts and shout with joy from the very diaphragms of their swelling sails as the forefoot thrills to the blast of blue water. Wrecks of the ancient side-wheelers rise as well and with a vigor of engine life such as did not exist in their day, go down to the sea.

The sea shore is probed for these, and the very lakes send their quota. At Ashland, Wis., for instance, on Lake Superior, the side-wheeler Emerald, sunk at the slip 24 years ago, is on her way up. The ore-carrier Sevona, which broke in two on a shoal six years since, is to be raised and put together again. And so the reports come from slip and shoal the world over.

If the war, with all its menace and its heartache, can give up once more a mighty merchant marine and revive the proud traditions of American seamanship, as it bids fair to, it will have done one great thing for the country.

The Easy Way Out.

Candidates at the second officers' training camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison are laughing over the manner in which one of their number in a recent trench maneuver acquired the grade of zero for intelligence on the efficiency card of the instructor officer, according to the Indianapolis News.
