LIBERTY BONDS.

Secretary McAdoo says:

"It has been brought to my attention that numbers of merchants throughout the country are offering to take Liberty Loan bonds of the first and second issue at par, or even in some cases at a premium, in exchange for merchandise. While I have no doubt that these merchants are actuated by patriotic motives, I am sure that they have failed to consider the effect which the acceptance of their offers would have upon the situation. We are making the strongest effort to have these government bonds purchased for permanent investment by the people at large, to be paid for out of the past or future savings of those who buy them. Purchases thus made not only result in providing funds for the uses of the government, but they also effect a conservation of labor and material.
When the bonds are exchanged for merchandise, it defeats the primary object of their sale, it discourages thrift and increases of expenditures, thus depriving the government of labor and material needed for war purposes. In addition to this, such bonds when taken in exchange for merchandise must in most cases be immediately sold in the open market.
This naturally tends to depress the market price of the issue and makes it less easy to sell future issues at the same rate.

"I hope that the merchants of the country, upon a more careful consideration of this subject, will discontinue their efforts to sell merchandise and take Liberty Bonds in payment."

EXCHANGING THRIFT CARDS.

- Q. When I have filled the Thrift Card, what do I do?
- A. Take it to a postoffice, bank, or other authorized agency, surrender the card and pay in cash the few cents difference between the $4 worth of Thrift Stamps and the price of a War-Savings Stamp for the month in which the exchange is made.
- Q. What do I do next?
- A. You take the War-Savings Stamp given you in exchange for your Thrift Card, ask for a War-Savings Certificate, if you haven't one already, and attach the stamp to the Certificate.
- Q. Should I continue to buy Thrift Stamps?
- A. Yes. Ask for a new Thrift Card and begin again.
- Q. Do Thrift Stamps bear interest?
- A. No.
- Q. Then why are they issued?
- A. To make it convenient for you to save in small amounts so that you can purchase a War-Savings Stamp which does bear interest.
- Q. May I exchange Thrift Stamps for War-Savings Stamps at any time?
- A. No; only on or before December 31, 1918.
