J. H. Haner is in Eugene a few days having his eyes treated. He went down Saturday night and plans to return the earlier part of this week.

J. Edward Larson, of the Bend Steam Laundry, is making improvements at his plant by partitioning off a space 16x12 in the southeast corner of the building for an office.

Miss Sadie Whitfield, chief operator at the telephone office, went to Portland Saturday night to attend a three-days' conference of operators' delegates from all over the state.

Mrs. J. Edward Larson accompanied her brother, T. H. Amundson, to Portland this morning. Mr. Amundson has been visiting here and is now on his way home to North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hatter and children came in from Fort Rock Saturday and passed the day in town before leaving for Kennewick, Washington, in the evening. They will visit relatives there.

In order to take a homestead near La Pine, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Slear came in the latter part of the week from Puyallup, Washington, and will make their residence in this county. Mr. Slear was formerly in the electric business.

Mrs. E. Wheeler and children, of Bengough, Saskatchewan, and Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Paulson, of Crocker, South Dakota, concluded a three weeks' visit in Bend and left this morning for Long Beach, California, where they will spend the winter.

On their way in to their homestead at Fort Rock after an absence of 19 months, Mrs. C. B. Webster and son stopped in Bend yesterday. They were in Portland during the principal part of last year. W. L. Cook came up to meet them at the train with his motor car.

T. A. McCann, of The Shevlin-Hixon Company, returned this morning from a business trip.

The farm home of W. C. Van Cleave, near Deschutes, was destroyed by fire last night. Nothing was saved from the flames, according to reports this afternoon.

DR. MARVIN SPEAKS AT METHODIST CHURCH

An enthusiastic audience at the Methodist church last night listened to the talk given Dr. M. H. Marvin, a member of the Washington State Industrial Welfare Commission and Federation of Labor, on "Religion and Righteousness." Dr. Marvin is here on a three days' trip from Portland and will deliver two more addresses, one tonight, on "The Story of My Conversion," and another tomorrow on "Reforms and Reformers." This will apply especially to labor problems and should be of intense interest to the people of Bend, according to Rev. Stewart.

DESCHUTES VOTERS WILL NOT RE-REGISTER

SALEM, Or., Jan. 21.—(Special to The Bulletin.)—General Van Winkle has advised District Attorney De Armond, of Deschutes county, that there will be no necessity of the voters of Deschutes county, who have once registered in Crook county, to again re-register for the primaries and general election this year. A bill that was put through the legislature through the instrumentality of G. P. Putnam, former secretary to the governor, and Mr. Van Winkle himself, is responsible for this saving of considerable expense and a vast amount of trouble to the electorate of that county. Under the bill in question it is permissible to remove the registration cards of all Deschutes county electors from the files of the clerk's office in Crook county and arrange them in alphabetical order and according to their proper precincts in Deschutes county. Consequently, under the permanent registration system, the voters of Deschutes county who have registered once in Crook county under that system will be entitled to vote at the coming elections without the necessity of again appearing before the county clerk, or other authorized officer, to register.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN PASSES THROUGH CITY

James W. Woods, of Cline Falls, Still Has Pass Given Him By President Lincoln.

Veteran of the first battle of Bull Run and an acquaintance of President Lincoln, is James W. Woods, of Cline Falls, who passed through Bend Saturday on his way to Portland. Mr. Woods is now 71 years of age.

The elderly man was a member of the Fourth Wisconsin regiment in 1861. With his school teacher and 15 other boys he enlisted in the same company. All were together at Bull Run but only three survived, the teacher and two boys. Mr. Woods was 15 years old at this time. He secured a pass to Washington, eight miles distant, and in that city attempted to get a furlough home but failed to impress the officers.

On the street he met President Lincoln and stated his case. The President then saw to it that the lad received a furlough and a pass on the train. Mr. Woods still has this pass in his possession.

During the Spanish-American war the veteran offered his services to the governor of Minnesota.

FOREST SUPERVISOR TAKES UP DUTIES

Norman G. Jacobson Is Here From Portland—Has Been In This District Before.

Norman G. Jacobson, supervisor of the Deschutes national forest, arrived Saturday night from Portland to take up his new duties in Bend. Last fall Mr. Jacobson was picked to succeed W. G. Hastings at the time V. V. Harpham, assistant supervisor, was sent to the Ochoco forest, but was unable to come here until this month.

The new supervisor has been in the forest service since 1910 and at the time of his appointment to the Bend office, was head of the cooperative fire patrol work in the Portland headquarters. He has worked in Central Oregon timber before and in 1912 was stationed at Crescent, cruising and making maps. He was also at Fremont and Lakeview. Mr. Jacobson says he is fond of this section of the state and is much interested in the work here. As yet he has not had time to plan definitely for the coming season.

FRENCH CLASS WILL BEGIN FEBRUARY 1

Mrs. Curt Muller, who has offered to give French lessons free to any of the men likely to go to France, announces that the class will be made up on February 1 and that all who wish to join must send their names to her before that date. No new pupils will be taken after the class is formed. Those who do not expect to be in the army but who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity to learn French will be taken in the same class on the payment of a fee to be arranged with Mrs. Muller. Names may be sent to Mrs. Muller at Red 1701.
