FEEDING CHANGE AT POWELL BUTTE SEEN

POWELL BUTTE, Jan. 21.—This year sees a marked change in the feeding in the Powell Butte section. Generally the hay raised here has been sent away to market, but this year hundreds of cattle and sheep are being fed on the ranches where the hay was raised. Stock has been sent in here for feeding purposes from as far as Klamath and Lake counties and the Powell Butte country is fast becoming a popular feeding ground.

Wurzweiler and Sons sold to Dan Clark 203 head of cattle, which were shipped into Idaho as feeders last week.

A large force of men was called out last week to clear the ditches and laterals of the C. O. I. in order that the water which had already been turned in might get through.
