PAULINE FREDERICK m Fedora"
A Grunwant Petun

"Fedora" was long ago made lamous by Sasah Bernhardt on the epoken stage and by Lina Cavaberi in opera. It is that wonder-ful story of the woman whose hatted for a man turns to love, while his burning love for her becomes the bitterest animosity. This

It is an absorbingly interesting story of love and intrigue in Russia, and the various scenes are filled with thrills and exceptional heart appeal. The various roles are portrayed by unusually clever screen players.

"America's Answer," which will be presented at the Liberty theatre Wednesday and Thursday, January 29-30, is not the ordinary press agented film play. It is a chapter of the great drama of the war, registered by U. S. signal corps photographers. The picture was made and is presented by the division of films, committee on public information, in order to show the millions of contributors to the several Liberty loans, the purchasers of thrift and war stamps and those who have so generously given in other ways for the needs of the war just how the great sums have been expended and what, in a physical way, has been accomplished in France during the
