GIVE FOR ARMENIA.

It is to be hoped that the call for funds for the relief of the suffering Armenians will meet with a ready response in Deschutes county. The county quota is small—only $3100—and $800 has already been paid, leaving a balance of $2300.

All drives in the past have come at a time when business was dull, prices were high and when the uncertainties of the war led people to husband their resources more carefully than they would in prosperous times. Nevertheless, the response was quick and the calls made on us were more than met. Now, with the war over we are coming into a time of tremendous prosperity and all the more readily are able to answer this new call.

Out of our abundance let us give.

A SIMPLE TEST.

There is a very simple test to be applied to the plan for the league of nations now coming in for such bitter criticism in the senate. Is the plan, taken all in all, likely to bring an end to war, or will the world find peace in a return to former conditions? More specifically will the United States be safer if it joins such a league, or by attempting to maintain its so-called "splendid isolation"?

It seems to us that not only our safety but our duty lies in the league. It may be that, as the senatorial critics charge, the United States will sign away some degree of its sovereignty by joining, but will not the loss be more than offset by the gain? We will be simply sharing in a pact of civilization just as individual man has done as he has found himself associated with his fellows in community life.

Kipling tells of a man who found it hard to "Come in, and 'ands up and be still," but in the title of the poem he agrees that it is a pagan attitude. We are no longer pagans.
World peace is the hope of civilization. We can afford to give a little national sovereignty to gain a world democracy.

NATIONAL FOREST
CAMPS MADE READY

Deschutes Officials Will Offer 44 Sites as Headquarters for Camping and Fishing Parties.

Preparing for the coming summer, the administration of the Deschutes national forest has authorized the cleaning up of 44 camp sites throughout the forest. Various improvements will also be made, and signs posted showing distances to various points of interest.

National forest camps are offered free to all who wish to use them, and the number of campers availing themselves of such privileges is increasing yearly. The only request made by the forest service is that camp fires be extinguished and that camping places be left clean whenever the guests on the national forest take their departure.
