PROGRESS.

Secretary Burleson announces that all cable company property will be returned to the owners at once. This property, it will be remembered, was taken over by the government after the armistice was signed, but by a proclamation dated November 2. At the time it was charged that in his over powering desire to get into government ownership all wire lines, Secretary Burleson had caused the date to be inserted as prior to the armistice, although the actual signing of the proclamation was after.

At any rate, the armistice having been signed when the proclamation was issued, the need for the action seemed to have gone, and now, as the government operation of the cables is reviewed, it is even more difficult to understand why they should ever have been taken over unless, as seems to be well demonstrated, Mr. Burleson was trying to carry out his pet idea of government operation, and eventually government ownership.

Six months have shown how poorly his idea can work.

The next advance will be when the land lines are returned to their private owners and the next and greatest when Mr. Burleson turns the post-office department over to his successor.

A bear, mascot of the 147th infantry, has the name "Theda Bara." Both the bear and Theda are Bara. Which, we wonder, is barest.

The school district credit must be fairly good when it can get a premium of more than $2000 on a $28,000 bond issue.

Bombs are being sent through the mails to prominent men. Look out for yours.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING? BETTER LOOK OUT!

Kidney and bladder troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow upon you, slowly but steadily, undermining your health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering, begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you feel that you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1086 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its sale.

The good housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Their use restores strength and is responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

CHURCH PLANS ARE ACCEPTED

floor to the ridge the height will be 55 feet. The building will be of local pressed brick with grey stone trimmings, all of which will harmonize with the trimmings which have been selected. The windows, of which there are a large number, will be six feet wide and 12 feet in height, of stone and cathedral glass. The sills will be about 12 feet above the floor.

The new edifice will have a seating capacity of approximately 500 persons. The plans as to the interior finishing and arrangement have not been fully decided upon, but they provide that the interior will harmonize in every particular with the exterior, which will be completed entire.

As to the approximate date of beginning construction, Mr. Thomas was unable to state. It will depend largely upon the labor and material conditions. Mr. Thomas hopes that construction may begin early in the summer.

The church will sit upon the present site of the Catholic parish house on Franklip street, east of Bond street. The grounds will be graded and harmonize with the style of structure. Mr. Thomas will soon have an illustration of the front elevation for publication.

Country Is Warned of Timber Shortage

we would have been hard put to meet the call for lumber.

"Southern pine manufacturers state the bulk of the original supplies of yellow pine in the south will be exhausted in 10 years and 3000 lumber plants will go out of existence.

"It is estimated that for every 40 billion feet board measure of merchantable lumber 70 billion feet are wasted in the field or at the mill.

"We have all seen our newspapers jump in price against the will of the publisher. Ask the first newspaper man you meet about the cost of white paper and he will tell you the question is his nightly nightmare. Paper conservation should be taken up in the schools, as it has by thousands of business concerns. The situation is acute.

NOW WE MAY KNOW BOSWELL

Description of Biographer, Written by Himself, Reveals Him as Very Human.

How pleasant it is to know that Boswell, who we have always thought was merely a kind of animated notebook, was a droll, vain, bibulous, warm-hearted creature, a good deal of a Peppy, in fact, says Collier's Weekly. A. Edward Newton's entertaining "Amenities of Book Collecting," a volume of essays which shows that a business man can write better literature than a hundred professors mullied into one, makes Boswell very human! How jolly to hear that Boswell wrote press notices about himself! Here is one of his own blurbs, which we quote from Mr. Newton's book:

"Boswell, the author, is a most excellent man; he is of an ancient family in the west of Scotland, upon which he values himself not a little. At his nativity there appeared omens of his future greatness. His parts are bright, and his education has been good. He has traveled in post chaises miles without number. He is fond of seeing much of the world. He eats of every good dish, especially apple pie. He drinks old hock. He has a very fine temper. He is somewhat of a humorist and a little tinctured with pride.

He has a good, manly countenance, and he owns himself to be amorous. He has infinite vivacity, yet is observed at times to have a melancholy cast. He is rather fat than lean, rather short than tall, rather young than old. His shoes are neatly made, and he never wears spectacles."

This brings the excellent Boswell very very close to us indeed; he might almost be a member of the Authors' league. Especially apple pie, bless his heart.

ONE YEAR AGO TODAY (May 1)

British lines stagger before relentless attacks of the Huns on fifteen mile front in Flanders.

Appalling losses fall to halt German assaults in the Noyon sector. Ypres salient still held by the French and British, but at a tremendous cost.

Germans massing thousands of reserves at Liege to force decision regardless of losses.

Vanguard of America's millions lend small reinforcement to hard-pressed Allies.
