LIBERTY THEATER.
William Farnum in the "Sign of the Cross."
William Duncan in "The Man of Might."

GRAND.

Tom Mix is a typical hero man. Recently he was seen at this theatre in one of the most striking wild west films. Tonight and tomorrow night he will be seen in a whirlwind secret service story, "U. S. A. Logan." This is a particularly strong feature for Mix. Fatty Arbuckle will also be in evidence in "Fatty's Predicament."

LIBERTY.

A faithful production of Rome in the time of Nero will be seen in "The Sign of the Cross," a feature which will show William Farnum in a role that is strong. This feature with the third episode of "The Man of Might" will be shown at the Liberty tonight only.

PETITION TO OUST JOHNSON IS LAUNCHED

which could not be learned today, alleges that the school director is overbearing and dictatorial, and attempts to dominate the acts of the other directors in a manner inimical to the best interests of the district. It also charges that he has allowed outside, "sinister" influences to dominate his actions as a member of the board. In this connection is mentioned one "Doreen, not a citizen of the district," who with Mr. Johnson, the petition declares, has caused the advancement of less efficient teachers and the retirement of more efficient instructors. Who the individual mentioned can be has not been definitely ascertained, although the name bears a certain phonetic resemblance to that of C. P. Dorian, a well known insurance representative who visits Bend frequently.

That Mr. Johnson has "ignored and continues to ignore the desires, wishes, demands and petitions of patrons of the schools, and is incompetent, inefficient and exercises a detrimental influence on school affairs," is the concluding accusation. Record Is Open.

When seen in regard to the matter this morning, Mr. Johnson declared that as far as the mere position of director is concerned he would be more than willing to leave the board at any time, but that he would absolutely refuse to quit under fire. "As a school director I have stood for what I believe to be right, regardless of any influence or pressure which might be brought to bear," he said. "There are no ulterior motives, and no alliances, as is intimated in this remarkable petition. I have always endeavored to work for the best interests of the district, and will continue to do so, regardless of criticism."

Mr. Johnson stated that he would answer the charges in detail whenever the petition is brought before the directors.

One of our "Indian" names loses some of its flavor of romance under the investigation of Will G. Steel, gazetteer, in Steel Points. He says that the musical name of Ne-wan-nah, in Clatsop county, Oregon, was derived from the circumstances that a pioneer of the place who employed several men also had a daughter named Hannah.

One of the men presented her with a hat, which she did not appreciate, and his fellow workers made sport of him by calling to one another in his presence, "Oh, Hannah." The term, Mr. Steel finds, finally became attached to the stream as O'Hannah, subsequently becoming Newannah. The word is also said to be Indian for "waterfall," but probably this is only a coincidence, for Mr. Steel gives full credence to the "Oh, Hannah" version.

Do You Need a Periscope?

Don't give up hope, even if you are a tiny person in a large crowd. To your rescue comes an adaptation of the periscope, designed specially for use in crowds. According to Popular Mechanics Magazine:

"It consists of a case, having a mirror set at the proper angle at either end, which can be extended to a length of two feet or more by reason of a bellows connecting the two ends. With the device lengthened, the mirrors are exposed so that the user can see over the heads of a crowd without difficulty."
