BEND SOLDIER TO REMAIN OVERSEAS

H. P. Crow Will Stay Indefinitely to Demonstrate American Logging Methods to French.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Crow have a letter from their son, Hugh P. Crow, who has been with the 20th Engineers, since his enlistment in December, 1917, stating that he received his discharge from the service June 12, and has accepted a position with one of the French buyers of United States machinery used in France during the war. He will remain there indefinitely.

He has been chosen to exemplify for the French, American methods of logging.

AWARDS SHOWN FOR WINNING ANGLERS

$25 Fly Rod Offered in Distance Contest—Accuracy Contest Also Calls for Valuable Prizes.

Four prizes for the Central Oregon anglers who will enter the fly-casting contest on July 4, are on display in the windows of the Douthitt Electric company. There is being shown one fly rod, valued at $25, which will be given as the first prize in the distance contest. One reel will be given as second prize in distance. The accuracy contest with the dry fly calls for a first prize of a $9 casting rod, and the second prize an $8 reel.

Parade July 4th

9 A. M.—Assemble on Greenwood Avenue. All decorated floats and special features from Wright Hotel toward railroad viaduct. Goddess of Victory float at head of float division following marshal of the day, aides, band, speakers, officials and fire department.

All undecorated automobiles form on Greenwood Avenue, single file, on east side of the railroad tracks toward Pilot Butte, to be in readiness to move with the procession.

It is requested that the thoroughfares be kept open on Wall, Bond and the connecting streets between 9:15 A. M. and 10:30 A. M. in order to allow the pageant to proceed without interruption.

Capt. Jack Herbert and Lieut. Frank Prince will direct the formation of various divisions and will be stationed at assembling points.

9:30 A. M.—Parade marches on Greenwood to Wall Street; on Wall south to Oregon; east on Oregon to Bond; south on Bond to Minnesota; west on Minnesota to Wall; south on Wall to Franklin; east on Franklin to Bond; north on Bond to Greenwood—traverse the same line second time and form double column at the corner of Bond and Franklin, and follow on Bond to Greenwood; west on Greenwood to Wall; south on Wall to Louisiana Street to the place of the program, near the B. A. A. C. Gymnasium.

Information

Hold the small orange colored tickets handed you during the progress of the parade. Two hundred tickets will be distributed. There are 10 prizes each a $2.50 gold piece. The winning numbers will be published in The Bulletin and Press July 5. Every automobile, decorated or undecorated, is desired in the parade, thus helping to clear the streets and getting a chance on the $2.50 gold prize and swelling the cavalcade and victory celebration.

Insights of Railroad Agents

Plan your vacation to visit one or more of them, where the days are cheerful and the nights bring refreshing sleep.

Old Ocean is a summer-time delight. Its invigorating salt-laden air and the splash of its surf temper your nerves, redden your blood, whet your appetite, restore your wasted energy, bring new vim and health.

Up in the Mountains

You get an equally beneficial phase of recreation. You leave behind the dull and sordid things of daily business life. The scenery is sublime and inspiring. Nature's great plan, surroundings and charms renew you. You can "hike," camp out, climb lofty peaks, fish numberless trout streams and lakes, ride horse-back, lounge in your hammock, rest, sleep and forget all your cares. Meanwhile you are breathing the purest air, drinking sparkling crystal waters, eating wholesome food and being made all over new.

Can You Resist Such a Challenge!

Ask the local ticket agent to help plan your trip. He will tell you just what the fare is, and give you other helpful hints. It is the aim of the United States Railroad Administration to extend every possible aid in making vacation travel convenient and satisfying to the public. The National Parks have all been greatly improved and were never so appealing as they are now. Beautifully illustrated booklets giving minute information of their delights and wonders have been issued by the Administration and are for free distribution. Ask your local agent for any of them.
