STRAW VOTE IS HELD FOR EX-SERVICE MEN

Soldiers at Recruiting Station Here Want Opinions on Questions of National Interest.

Sergeants Yarborough, Main and Hawes of the Portland-Bend recruiting party now here for a few days canvassing for recruits for Uncle Sam's vocational schools, have been authorized to hold a "straw vote" in connection with the one which is being held at the general recruiting offices, Third and Oak streets, Portland, Oregon. The vote is being held for ex-service men and their immediate families. Civilians may vote if they desire, but their vote will be marked "Civilian" and will be counted separate. The Portland Oregonian has full returns of his straw vote daily and is exciting much interest as well as enthusiasm all over the state and southwest Washington.

Ballots have been received and those wishing to vote can do so by calling at the recruiting station on Oregon street and casting their ballots. The question voted on are as follows:

National prohibition, universal military training, the league of nations, Woman suffrage, what shall be done with the kaiser? which is the best, the American or French girl?

CARE OF WINDSHIELD GLASS

Application of Strong Soapuds Will Prevent Fog or Rain From Obscuring Vision.

Strong soapuds made from automobile soap and rubbed on the glass of the windshield and allowed to dry will prevent fog or rain from obscuring the vision through the glass. Kerosene is sometimes used for this purpose, but it does not last as long as the above, and glycerin is also recommended.

The Victor's Homecoming.

Sir Douglas Haly's Grenadier guard of honor at Charing Cross, when the man of the hour came home, was a particularly fine body of men, and from end to end of the lines there was hardly a man without wound stripes. Not a few of the distinguished people on the platform noticed that three of the guard, standing side by side, had 16 wound stripes between them.

STRIKE EPIDEMIC SWEEPING NATION

More Money, Collective Bargaining Right and Shop Committee Organization Chief Issues.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.—A strike epidemic appears to be sweeping the nation, according to reports received by the labor department. The number of workers who are out has not been computed. Strikers in general are demanding more money, recognition of the right of collective bargaining and the right to organize shop committees.

FRENCH LEADERS CALL OFF STRIKE

Lack of Confidence Shown by Deputies in Food Administrator Is Underlying Cause.

PARIS, July 19.—Labor leaders today officially called off the strike which was scheduled to begin on July 21, after the chamber of deputies had voted their lack of confidence in Food Administrator Boret. Labor leaders considered this to be a recognition of their protest against the high cost of living.

WOULD REMAIN 'UNDER COVER'

Sergeant Had His Reasons for Not Making at That Time a "Full an' Free Confession."

An American colonel in France was having difficulty with his safe. It was the headquarters safe. Its lock had jammed, and none of his staff could open it. While they were struggling with it a negro sergeant came up to them apologetically.

"Cul'n'l," he said, "if I ain't intruded into dis heah difficulty, I believes, sah, dat I might he'p yah."

"Yes?" said the colonel. "What do you suggest?"

"Cul'n'l," said the sergeant, "I suggests 'Co'p'l Hall'."

"Corporal Hall? Why Corporal Hall?"

"'Co'p'l Hall," the sergeant explained, under his voice, "was 'd' foah years a bugglah."

They sent for Corporal Hall and Corporal Hall opened the safe.

"Well, sergeant," the colonel said, "I'm glad to know about Corporal Hall. I wish I'd known it sooner. It would have saved us a lot of time with that safe. And tell me, sergeant—in case we may need to call on you some day—in what direction do your particular talents lie?"

"Cul'n'l," the sergeant answered, "Ah doan' want to tell no lies. Stand in' as Ah does daily in de presence of mah Makeh, mos' doubtless Ah doan' want to tell no lies. But if de time comes when Ah kin he'p yah, sah, Ah'll make a full an' free confession, a full an' free confession, sah."—Ben B. Lindsey in the Cosmopolitan Magazine.

DEATH OF A FAMOUS DUCK

Peggy of Rouen, N. J., Laid 325 Eggs in a Single Year, and Was Easily World's Champion.

The death of Peggy, the famous duck of Rouen, New Jersey, comes as a reminder to us that we would do well to follow the principles which guided the life of this excellent bird. Peggy was celebrated in two hemispheres as the champion egg-layer of the world, the New York Evening Post states. Peggy, in one year laid as many as 325 eggs. Yet, celebrated as she was, noted wherever eggs were laid or scrambled, head of her glorious profession, what was her attitude after we entered the war? Did she rush into print, airing her opinion as to what the president ought to do? Not at all. Despite numerous tempting offers from fowl fashions and other magazines, she refrained from utterance and continued contributing her daily drop to national victory. Even when the Germans opened their recent peace drive Peggy did not turn hysterical and demand that they at once surrender all the Strasbourg geese. She, still in silence, went on with her lay. It is related of her that on the morning of her demise she quietly produced an egg, and, indicating her satisfaction with a feeble quack, keeled over and expired.

Tanks Like a Deck of Cards

In the open stretch, beyond the last fringe of wood, we struck the field where the American tanks attacked the Huns on flank and rear and finished the battle of Argonne wood. Elizabeth Frazer writes in the Saturday Evening Post. Later we saw a complete outfit of these grotesque monsters go galloping across a shell-torn field. Their insignia were the characters on a deck of cards, and they always followed suit. Thus an ace of spades was always followed by the king of spades, the king by his spouse; and so on down to the tray. As we passed, the knave of hearts thrust forth a grinning face from his round armored little turret and waved a grimy paw. Close on his tail waggingly tangoed the ten spot. It was like some mad scene in "Alice in Wonderland."

Grim Jest Pathetic

Was Poe's tale "The Masque of the Red Death" prophetic? His story was that on the stroke of midnight a tall, red-gowned figure revealed itself amid revelers as Death by Plague.

A counterpart from real life is reported from Coevestry, Wales. It is the report of a masquerade ball, at which one of the masked celebrators simulated Death. In a black robe and with hollow eye-sockets.

Italy's Exports

Italian motor car exports showed a falling off for the first six months of 1918, compared with the corresponding period of the two preceding years. From January 1 to June 30, 1918, a total of 2,266 lorries and touring cars were exported, having a value of approximately £1,400,000, compared with 4,148 vehicles in 1917 and 2,731 in 1918. The number of touring cars exported during the first six months of 1918 was 728, this constituting a record, for the figures of the two preceding years were 244 and 503, respectively.

It's True in Terre Haute

The other day a primary teacher in the Terre Haute schools was teaching her youngsters about animals. She had told them about domestic animals and then gave examples of the cow and the pig. Then she turned to the children. "Can't some little boy name some wild animals?" she asked. John could. He rose with alacrity "Ghosts and Indians!" he shouted.
