ACT IS SIGNIFICANT

New Tells President It Is Impossible for League Covenant to Pass in Present Form—Reservations Wanted by Keyes.

[By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31.—President Wilson has brought up for discussion with republican senators the possibility of the senate passing a resolution expressing in a general way this government's interpretation of certain provisions of the league of nations covenant, it was learned here today.

It was hinted that such a resolution would not require resubmission of the document to the other signatory nations. The president did not say that he was willing to compromise, but this discussion of a possible resolution couched in general terms is regarded as significant.

Senator New said that he has told President Wilson that it was impossible for the league of nations covenant to pass the senate in its present form.

Senator Keyes of New Hampshire, who had his interview with the president this morning, left the White House declaring that his "back was stiffer than ever" for reservations to the league covenant. Senator Keyes said that his conversation with the president was mostly about reservations, but that Mr. Wilson desires an unreserved acceptance of the covenant by the senate.

[By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31.—Universal military and naval training is provided in bills introduced in the senate by Senator Chamberlain of Oregon and in the house by Representative Kahn of California.

The bills provide that every male citizen between the ages of 18 and 20 must take six months' training either in the army or the navy unless he has previously been in the service for six months or is physically unfit.

The bills also create a great reserve army composed of all men who have served during the great war. They are to serve for a period of five years in the reserve, and all those under universal training for 10 years after their discharge.

Seventeen Negroes and 13 Whites on List—Troops Now Patrol Negro Quarters—Hospitals Filled with Injured.

[By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.] CHICAGO, July 31.—The death list in Chicago's four days of race rioting this morning stands at 30. Of this number 17 are negroes and 13 whites, the list having been made up after the death this morning of Thomas Coppelan, an 18-year-old negro.

The black belt, where most of the rioting and arson has occurred, is quiet this morning, but is patrolled by 6200 militiamen and guardsmen. Troopers were sent to the negro district at midnight and were distributed throughout five zones. As soon as they made their appearance they were given a baptism of fire with a rain of more than 100 shots. They returned the fire, but no casualties were reported.

In the south end, where the negro settlements are located, hospitals are filled to overflowing with the wounded of both races. More than 500 who have been shot and injured by beatings are in hospital and several hundred others are receiving treatment for their injuries at home.

It was stated authoritatively at the White House this morning. One of the first steps taken by the president will probably be to lay the whole matter before the cabinet for consideration. It is also known that the president is tremendously interested in the reports of the federal trade commission on its investigation of the big packing concerns.

Friends of the Kenyon bill to regulate packers will have Wilson's support, according to advocates of the measure. In addition a resolution is pending in the house asking Wilson what additional authority he needs to obtain lower prices. Action on the resolution is expected soon.

Moonshiners Find a Rough Road

"Most of man's best laid plans—those made before July first"—are very fast being uncovered and wrecked. The word "moonshine" no longer means mountains and feuds. It can mean a loft in a sky scraper—or a sub basement under a florist shop, as federal agents are proving. In every state, city and town—illicit moonshine stills are being confiscated. Here is a more elaborate brass coil still taken in a raid at Chicago. Federal agents are examining it.

The petition is being circulated by R. M. Smith. The improvement contemplated will include approximately two blocks.

Two other petitions asking pavement and concrete walks and curbs have already been started, one seeking the hard surfacing of Delafare from Bond to Hill, and Lava road from Delaware to Kansas, being practically completed as to signatures, while the other, asking improvement of Delaware from Bond to St. Helens place, is of more recent origin.

Residents who backed the first petition were anxious for a concrete pavement, and it is understood that the signers of the two later petitions will, for the sake of uniformity, hold out for the same material.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31.—President Wilson is opposed to having the United States share in any indemnities paid by Germany, so Bernard Baruch, member of the economic commission of the peace conference, told the foreign relations committee of the senate today.

Putting into operation the principle first enunciated by President Wilson as one of his 14 peace points, of "open covenants of peace openly arrived at," the committee smashed all precedents and considered the peace treaty at a session wide open to newspapermen and the general public.
