

PEACE TREATY SEES LAST OF CLOSED DOORS

OPEN DISCUSSION IN SENATE STARTS.

EXPECT LONG DEBATE

Verbal Battle Over Altered Pact, as Recommended by Committee, May Be Waged Four Weeks—Democrats Begin

[By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 15.—"I call up the treaty of peace with Germany." With these words, Senator Lodge, chairman of the foreign relations committee, formally opened discussion in the senate of the treaty as reported by the committee.

For the first time in the history of the senate, the great treaty is being considered in open session, before a thronged gallery, instead of behind closed doors.

Immediately after Senator Lodge formally made the treaty senate business, the first gun in the barrage of speeches from the democratic side was fired in an address by Jones of New Mexico. From now on until the final vote on the treaty is taken it will remain the senate's unfinished business, taking precedence over all else. It is estimated that the debate will take four weeks.

Senator Lodge also put into the record a copy of the treaty with Austria, with the allied note telling Austria to take the treaty just as it was written. Lodge said that a Chicago newspaper gave him the copy.

PUPILS TO RECEIVE PHYSICAL TRAINING

University of Oregon Graduate to Handle Special Work in Grades and High School.

Physical training in the grammar grades and the high school of the Bend public schools for the first time will be under the personal direction of a teacher specially trained and equipped with the knowledge to handle this feature of the school training.

Miss Dews expects to make a big feature of her department this year and will devote much time to the promotion of athletics for the girls.

The public school will have access to the B. A. A. C. gymnasium this year, where Miss Dews will hold most of her classes.

In carrying on her work she is anxious to obtain the cooperation of the parents of the pupils to insure success.

Wilson Blushes As Seattle Girl Kisses His Hand

[By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.] SEATTLE, Sept. 15.—Some where in Seattle is a young woman who made President Wilson blush. Just before he boarded the train for Portland last night, there was a swish of skirts, and someone darted into the circle of dignitaries saying farewell. Before the president knew it, an extremely good looking girl had kissed him on the hand. President Wilson was plainly embarrassed. The girl smiled and disappeared in the crowd. President Wilson's departure from Seattle was marked by a demonstration in which cheering crowds, lining the streets from the hotel to the station, took part. The president stood up in his auto during part of the ride, flourishing his hat.

[By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.] SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 15.—From 10 to 17 German spies escaped from the compound at Fort Douglas early today. Four men believed to be some of the escaped enemy aliens were captured before noon at Ogden.

PUPILS CROWD BEND SCHOOLS

BIG ATTENDANCE ON OPENING DAY.

One Hundred and Fifty Children Given Vacation Until Kenwood Building Is Finished—Text Books in Big Demand.

There will be no room to spare in the Bend schools during the present year. This much was established this morning on the opening day of school, when City Superintendent S. W. Moore found every building in the city well filled, and some badly overcrowded. No figures on attendance were available today, but it is considered certain that a marked advance over registration at the beginning of the term last fall will be shown.

More than 150 children will have a vacation until Wednesday morning, and perhaps for longer than that. Because of the unfinished condition of the new Kenwood school, only the first three grades intended for that building are now attending classes, temporary accommodations having been found for them in the old Kenwood building. It is hoped, however, that the new school will be ready for occupancy by the middle of the week.

At the Reid school, accommodations for all classes above the fourth grade were insufficient. At the Central school the first grade was unusually large, the high school was full, and the junior high overcrowded.

Bend drug stores which had the agency for the new text books to be used this year had a large sized contract also, and on some of the books it was expected that there might be a shortage.

In nearly all the rural and union districts, classes started in the Deschutes county schools this morning.

[By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.] PORTLAND, Sept. 15.—Benjamin Allen, representing the Cleveland Plain Dealer, was instantly killed this afternoon when the automobile in which he was riding in the Wilson procession turned turtle near Gresham. Allen's throat was cut when he was hurled through the windshield, causing instant death.

"Dad" Patterson, driver of the auto, was also killed. Three other newspaper men were slightly hurt. Patterson attempted to avoid a collision with another car, swung out too far, and the auto turned over. They were returning from Crown Point, on the Columbia River highway.

Following a wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Price left for Pendleton to attend the Round-Up. From there they will drive to California, planning a 7000-mile wedding tour lasting over two months, before returning to make their home in this city.

HIS THREE R'S

MANY WILL SEEK TO LEAVE AMERICA FOR NATIVE LANDS

[By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.] NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—A stream of emigrants from America that will number hundreds of thousands will flow back to European countries as soon as transportation facilities will permit, according to consular officials in New York, who report that their offices are swamped with applicants for passage back to the old countries.

Authorities familiar with the situation predict important effects from the wave of immigration, which reverses the usual trend of traffic. Hitherto, there has always been a huge flow of immigration from the European lands to America.

Several reasons are suggested as responsible for the turning of the emigration tide between Europe and America. Jointly they are considered sufficient to cause a wave of immigration to Europe.

The general tie-up in transatlantic traffic during the five years of war is one of the causes for the concentrated desire of Europeans to return home now, think authorities. Many men who came here to work have not been able to visit their families during the war.

Applications filed with consulates show that the majority of these emigrants do not intend to return to America with their families, but feel that they will have better opportunities in the old countries. High wages during the war, and especially during America's participation in it, have enabled most of the foreigners to return home with savings sufficient to make them quite independent on the old scale of living.

It is predicted, however, that few of them realize the cost of living in Europe, where scales have risen more than in America, and that these returning "capitalists" will be disappointed. This will be especially true of Italy, it is believed, where it has long been the custom to go to America a few years and return a well-to-do citizen.

The greatest permanent rush of peoples will be to the small nations freed from yokes of Austria and

TONAPAH MINE STRIKE ENDED

OLD SCALE TO BE PAID, BUT MINERS' COMMITTEE WILL BE RECOGNIZED—SUPPLIES WILL BE SOLD AT COST.

[By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.] TONAPAH, Sept. 15.—Gold and silver mines of the Tonapah divide reopened today after having been closed for several weeks by a strike. The agreement adopted provides that the men will return to work at the old scale, and stipulates recognition of the miners' committee.

The operators agreed to establish a commissary, selling food and clothing at cost. At the end of 60 days a conference will be held to consider results and form other plans for reducing the cost of living.

The settlement conforms with President Wilson's new program of dealing with the railroad employees.

MAY CUT COST BY DEPOSITING BOND INTEREST

WAR LOAN DIRECTOR GIVES ADVICE.

COUPON TOTAL LARGE

$85,000,000 Would Be Put in Circulation if All Bondholders Spent Interest Today—Saving Means Price Drop, Declared.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—The United States government will pay out more than $6,000,000 today in semi-annual interest to holders of third Liberty loan bonds in the twelfth federal reserve district. Today's interest payment, added to the two previous interest installments paid on third loan bonds by the government, gives a total of nearly $18,000,000 earned since May, 1918, by the $287,975,000 invested by 1,402,584 purchasers of bonds of the third loan in this federal reserve district.

"Be sure and clip your coupons and cash them," is the advice broadcasted to holders of the third loan bonds by Robert E. Smith, director of the war loan organization of the twelfth federal reserve district. "Coupons uncashed are idle money. It is no trouble to cash your coupons. Just clip the September 15 coupon off and present it at any bank and you will get your money. It is no more trouble than getting change for a bill."

Chance to Cut Prices.

If all bondholders in America cash their coupons today there will be in circulation tomorrow nearly $85,000,000 more money than was in circulation yesterday. That is approximately the total amount of interest to be paid out on the third loan as a whole today.

"Here is a chance for the people to hit high prices a hard blow," said Director Smith. "Every man, woman and child who owns a third loan bond should cash the coupon and immediately buy thrift or war savings stamps or treasury savings certificates which bear more interest than the bonds. Investment of the third loan bond interest at the bank window immediately upon cashing the coupons will keep that $85,000,000 out of circulation and thus help keep prices down.

I cannot urge too strongly the wisdom of letting the government keep this interest money and, not only that, but continued buying of war savings stamps out of every pay envelope. If everyone in the United States would set aside something each week for war savings stamps earning them 4 per cent. interest compounded every three months, it would be a very short time until there would be a noticeable drop in prices."
