

BIG CROWDS IN BEND ENJOYING REVELLE WEEK

WEATHER MAN FAVOR CELEBRATION

MANY ATTEND SHOWS

Attractions Offered by Carnival Company Draw Well, and Nightly Dances Bring Large Number to Gymnasium.

With ideal weather continuing, and more of the same kind predicted by the official forecaster, the second day of revelle week, the six day celebration staged by Percy A. Stevens Post, American Legion, started today just a few hours after the crowd of pleasure seekers gathered here on the opening day, dispersed early in the morning. Carnival men declared that the number of people patronizing the various shows and concessions of the Greater Alamo shows was unusually large for a first night, and at the same time a capacity crowd assembled at the Bend Amateur Athletic club gymnasium, where Cole McElroy's jazz orchestra provided the jazziest kind of dance music.

After six hours of really hard work, the court-martial presided over by Jack Herbert, adjourned last night, and military police were relieved from duty. Records of the court showed that more than 200 individuals had been arrested, tried, and with but few exceptions, convicted. Some were heard to complain that they had not been allowed the privilege of occupying the guard tent, but of course everyone could not be taken into custody, and the army and navy "cops" maintained that they were not to blame if anyone was slighted.

Bargain Day Tomorrow.

Today was Tri-county Day, when residents of Jefferson and Crook counties, as well as those of Deschutes, were especially invited to join in the festivities. Tomorrow will be Bargain Day, when merchants of Bend will offer inducements in the way of dollar bargains.

During the morning and early night were busy preparing for an afternoon, the attractions at the carnival were busy preparing for an even greater rush of business than that of last night, and it was noted that their best boosters were not the barkers, but those who attended the shows last night, and who were ready to repeat their visit, and to bring others with them. The animal show was a particular favorite, featuring Paul Johanning and his five trained lions, Princess Florine and her trick dogs and ponies, and George Bray and his mule, Maude, while the Slodrome, a huge cylinder with motorecyclists racing inside apparently defying the laws of gravity, possessed a peculiar fascination.

Water Show Attracts.

The water show consisted of high class fancy diving stunts, and submarine features, and Dollita, a midge 28 inches in height, with her children twice her own size, attracted many. Four different rides, the "whip," the aerial swing, a merry-go-round, and the Ferris wheel, were well patronized, while numerous side shows did their share of entertaining. Doll racks and the country store, where the sale of provisions was determined by the turn of a wheel, were other features at the big carnival.

NEW MANAGER FOR FOUR L DISTRICT

To take the place of A. Whisnant, a district manager of the Four L's, J. R. Johnson, of Portland, arrived in Bend this morning, and will remain in the city for the next two weeks. During the war Mr. Johnson was one of the national speakers for the Emergency Fleet corporation, and travelled extensively in the east in this work.

He will address an open meeting here on Thursday night, the exact hour and place to be announced later. A special invitation to the public is extended.

Youth Returning to Aged Prisoner After Operation

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
SAN QUENTIN, Oct. 21.—Youth is returning to the old man in prison here, who was recently given the interstitial glands of a hanged murderer. Before the operation, the man's appetite was poor, while now it shows a marked appetite. His pulse was formerly 72, but now has advanced to 76. His temperature is normal. Doctors stated that this indicates that the blood is pulsing through his veins with renewed vigor, and that his strength is returning.

RESERVATIONS ARE PROPOSED

REPRESENT COMPROMISE EFFECTED AMONG FACTIONS IN SENATE WHO ARE AGAINST ABSOLUTE RATIFICATION.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—Compromise reservations to the peace treaty, agreed upon by the "mild reservationists," were offered to the Senate today by Senator McCumber. He explained that the reservations proposed, represented the endeavor to harmonize differences who believe that reservations in some form or other are desirable. "None claims," he said, "that the treaty can go through without some kind of reservation."

SPHIER APPEAL MOTION DENIED

SUPREME COURT RULES TODAY ON FORECLOSURE SUIT INVOLVING POSSESSION OF BEND BUSINESS BLOCK.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
SALEM, Oct. 21.—The State Supreme court today granted a motion to dismiss the appeal in the case of the Western Loan and Building company vs. D. H. Sphier and others.

The decision made by the Supreme court prevents further litigation of the foreclosure suit brought by the loan and building company against Mr. Sphier, and leaves approximately six months for the redemption of the property involved, the Sphier building, on Wall street, before it actually passes into the hands of the company, according to E. O. Stadter counsel for the company. The suit brought by the company, which Mr. Sphier, through his attorney, W. P. Meyers, sought to appeal, was decided by Circuit Judge T. E. J. Duffy in February, and involved $19,000, which the company sought to recover.

MINERS ASKED TO COMPROMISE

COAL WORKERS DECLARE THEY WILL STAND FIRM FOR SIX HOUR DAY AND A FIVE DAY WEEK, HOWEVER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—A plea for a compromise to avert the threatened coal strike on November 1, was made today by Secretary of Labor Wilson to the operators and miners who met here. Nearly 200 delegates were present.

Wilson urged them to show a conciliatory spirit, declaring that a coal strike would badly hamper the nation's industries. Before going into the meeting, the miner delegates declared that they would stand by their demands for a wage increase, with a six hour day and a five day week.

ADVANCE CAUSE OF PREVENTION

FIRE DANGERS TOLD AT SCHOOL

Jay Stevens and J. H. Scheivly, of Pacific Fire Prevention Bureau, and Assistant State Marshal Skyes Visit Bend.

After conducting a series of meetings in Bend to usher in Fire Prevention week here, Jay Stevens, coast manager of the Pacific Fire Prevention bureau, J. H. Scheivly, publicity manager, and Horace Sykes, assistant state fire marshal, left last night for Portland, declaring themselves entirely satisfied with the interest taken locally in the cause they are furthering. The three officials are covering the entire state, and by concentrating their work on the schools, intend to reach every home in Oregon, before leaving on a similar trip through California. "Bend used to have a bad fire record," Mr. Stevens said, "but it is improving markedly from year to year."

Fire Film is Shown.

Accompanied by Fire Chief Tom Carlson, and city school Superintendent S. W. Moore, they visited the Bend schools yesterday, beginning with the primary grades, and finishing at the high school. Mr. Scheivly spoke to the tiny tots in the beginners' classes, emphasizing the need for care in prevention of fires, and telling stories to illustrate the many causes which may underlie highly destructive conflagrations. Mr. Sykes and Mr. Stevens, who was formerly chief of the Portland fire department, spoke to the older pupils, and also at the Liberty Theatre, where the fire prevention film, "America's Greatest Crime," produced by Thomas H. Ince at a cost of many thousands of dollars, was shown free of charge.

Mr. Stevens stated that another film to teach the same lesson, is now being produced in California in three reels, and that when it is completed, it will be shown in Bend. More of the comedy element will be introduced, and like its predecessor, it will be given to the public free.

The Bend fire department is emphasizing the importance of preventive measures in safeguarding property from fire, and the department's activities will be particularly brought to the public attention on Thursday when a number of drills, practice runs, and one or two novel surprise stunts are planned.

RIOTING STARTS IN FOREIGN DISTRICT

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—Several were injured in a riot in Braddock near here today. The cause of the fighting is not clear. State police stationed near Braddock were dispatched to the scene of the trouble. Police report that the fighting was confined largely to the foreign district.

BEND PORK PRICES UNTOUCHED BY GENERAL DROP IN MARKET

Although today's swine quotations in the Portland markets ranged from $12.30 to $15.50, live weight, Bend butchers are paying from $18 to $20 for pork raised in Central Oregon, a survey of the local markets revealed today. Dressed pork will cost the Portland retailer from 18 to 19 cents a pound, while the Bend dealer pays 24 to 25 cents. This is the reason why prices to the consumer have shown little or no change in the past two months here, as far as fresh pork is concerned, while cured meats, which are shipped in from outside points, give the housekeeper the advantage of five or six cents a pound over former quotations.

While swine shipped into Portland, actually bring considerably less than those marketed here, it would not be advantageous to local dealers to ship from the larger centers, on account of freight charges and with this is coupled the fact that they are anxious to patronize Central Oregon ranchers.

The chief cause for higher wholesale prices prevalent here, as out-

DOG RIDES IN AIR DERBY ACROSS U. S.

When Lieut. Maynard, the "flying parson," hopped off at New York for San Francisco with fifty other flyers in the big race across the continent and back, he had a mascot in "Trixie," a German police dog, that rode with him. Maynard was a minister in Carolina before war. He won the recent New York-Toronto air race.

VOTES RETAINED IN BIG CONTEST

WHIRLWIND FINISH IN POPULARITY RACE INDICATED—MISS ALLEN REACHES SECOND PLACE IN COUNT TODAY.

"Every little bit added to what you have makes just a little bit more" believes Miss Fern Allen, a candidate in the Revelle popular girl contest. Miss Allen added enough votes to her total with the count at noon today to put her in second place in the contest. With the exception of Miss Dora Gillis, who still retains the lead several of the candidates advanced their position in the list. Many of the contestants are holding back votes in the hope of springing a surprise on their opponents, it is understood, as a number of those who have been extremely active in enlisting support are showing practically no advance on the records.

In addition to the various business houses in Bend where votes be secured, the carnival company is aiding in the contest by placing books of the voting tickets in one of the booths on the lane of fun. The count at noon today was:

Miss Dora Gillis	327
Miss Fern Allen	238
Miss Florence Downing	183
Miss Gladys Farnsworth	156
Miss Mildred Hunnell	149
Miss Hilah Brick	60
Miss Juanita Gillis	58
Miss Mabel Boyer	50

COUNCIL TO MEET.

Members of the Bend city council will hold their second regular meeting of the month at 8 o'clock tonight in the city rooms on Minnesota.

SUGAR STOCKS ALMOST GONE

FEW BEND GROCERS HAVE ANY LEFT

Retailers Keep Purchasers Within 25 Cent Limit, and Jobbers Cut Sales to 300 Pounds—Prohibition Blamed.

The unit of sugar measurement is no longer the sack—it is the pound, and soon it will be the ounce, according to local grocers, whose stocks are either entirely depleted, or are so nearly so that another day will see the end. Several merchants have been out of sugar for weeks, and have assumed the fatalistic attitude that "when our orders are filled, they will be filled, so what's the use of worrying." Others, more fortunate in their early ordering have new stocks on the way, but these, in general, amount to but 200 or 300 pounds for each grocery. Merchants who still have sugar on hand have cut down purchases to 25 cents worth for each individual, and jobbing houses, also in bad straits, have cut down the orders of their customers in much the same fashion.

Two causes are given for the continued shortage, one that the 200,000 sack government order from the Pacific coast, is responsible, while a more basic reason is given that the coming of prohibition has increased the demand of sugar 25 per cent, far exceeding the sugar equalization board's estimate of the country's needs. The increase of sweet drinks to take the place of alcoholic beverages, is also blamed. Relief is promised when the beet sugar crop is marketed, but although the refineries were busy grinding out the finished product by the middle of the present month, it has not yet come into circulation. Bend merchants hope that the situation will be remedied by the early part of December, but they admit that it is only a hope.

CIVIL LAW IS FELT BY M. P.'S.

CITY ADMINISTRATION TURNS TABLES ON MILITARY OFFICERS IN RETALIATION FOR WHOLESALE ARRESTS.

Martial law went out of existence in Bend at midnight last night when the Mayor's proclamation reached its time limit, and city officials promptly turned the tables on the military police who held sway yesterday, when Chief of Police L. A. W. Nixon spread his net and effected the arrest of the judge advocate, the officer of the day, the sergeant of the guard, and a number of other members of Percy A. Stevens Post who took an active part in the wholesale imprisonments and convictions of civilians on the opening day of Revelle Week.

Mrs. Clara Upton and Mrs. Eleanor Fowler, of Portland, who are making their headquarters here this week raising money for the building of a baby home, were present at the session of police court, and advised Judge Peoples against showing any leniency, as the fines collected were diverted to the baby home fund. Mrs. Upton and Mrs. Fowler were among the prisoners who were taken into camp yesterday afternoon by the M. P.'s.

Charges preferred against the American Legion members were not entered on the docket, an effort being made by the city administration to keep the proceedings of the afternoon a secret.
