URGES EXAMINATIONS FOR EX-SERVICE MEN

Lungs Attacked by Gas Especially Susceptible to Tuberculosis Infection, Says Miss Cronen.

All men who were gassed during the war should have medical examination, even if they consider themselves to be entirely recovered, is the belief of Miss Mary E. Cronen, representative of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, now in the city on an official trip to this section. The lung tissues which have been MILL MEN GIVE TO FUND FOR B. A. A. C.

That interest is growing in the campaign to raise funds for the discharge of the obligation against the Bend Amateur Athletic club, was indicated this morning when subscriptions voluntarily made at the Brooks-Scanlon mill were made public. With the exception of the subscription of Sam Blakely and E. T. Gerish, of the logging department, the donations were all from members of the night crew at the mill. The list of subscribers is as follows:
