A NEW RECLAMATION FUND.

It now seems apparent that the Mondell bill, by which it was hoped to obtain funds for the development of reclamation projects, and especially in this section, the construction of the Deschutes project, has gone by the board. The last heard of it its sponsors were waiting for action by the American Legion at its Minneapolis meeting in November. That meeting has come and gone and there has been nothing new on the bill. It may safely be considered as dead.

Because this bill has come to nothing is no reason why the Deschutes valley should give up hope of construction involving the Benham Falls reservoir and the watering of the thousands of now arid acres in this and Jefferson county. So long as there is a dollar to be spent by the United States reclamation service in irrigation work that dollar will be marked for attack by the people of this section who want to see this great project carried through.

Just now the point of attack is in connection with the Western States Reclamation association which, at its recent Salt Lake meeting, urged a direct appropriation of $250,000,000 for expenditure by the Reclamation service. If this fund is made available some of it will almost surely be spent in the Deschutes valley. Urge your congressman to aid in getting the appropriation made.

Wint'ry Weather.

The ice is on the river, the ice is on the lake; and on the shore I shiver, and feel rheumatic ache. I see the schoolboys skating upon the well known ice; for me, ah! watchful waiting must evermore suffice. Among the youthful friskers I have no place, alas! Behind my stack of whiskers I sit and watch them pass. The snow is in the valley, 'the snow is on the hill, and there the children sally; they're coasting with a will. I hear their joyous laughter, as down the slope they whiz, while I, in slat and rafter, have pangs of rheumatiz. I sit behind my galways, and to blithe words give tongue "your youth won't last you always, so go it while you're young!" I don't admire the gaffer, the ancient, drooling lad, who chides the happy laughter, and makes Youth's spirit sad. I cannot join the skaters, I cannot tool a sled, or dance, in tireless gaiters, when others are in bed. But all the joyous playing of the kids look good to me, although my head is graying, and I've a spavined knee. The young, with smiling faces, are playing in the snow; behind my hanging laces I bless them as they go.

Used as Washboard.
The sides of a new vacuum washer for laundry purposes are corrugated, so it can be used as a washboard.

AT THE MOVIES
Wallace Reid, Paramount star, has had some thrilling and hard fought battles in his numerous Paramount and Artercraft pictures, but what is conceded to be one of the most sensational fights ever staged in a screen production, is shown with vivid realism in "The Valley of the Giants," his new Paramount-Artercraft picture which will be shown at the Liberty Theatre Christmas Day. and unscrupulous politician in the town of Sequoia, in the heart of the big Redwood Forests of California, has bribed the mayor of the town to vacate a franchise which he had previously granted to Bryce Cardigan, which part is played by the star, to build a railroad leading out of the Valley of the Giants. The ensuing fight is said to be one of the most realistic ever screened.

The picture is based upon Capt. Peter H. Kyne's famous novel of the same name and was directed by James Cruze. A capable cast supports the star.
