ONLY ONE SHOE IS TAKEN FROM STORE

Boy Unable to Tell Court Why He Did Not Appropriate Pair—Too
Proud to Ask For Money

Why he had taken only one shoe from the second hand store of G. W. Cook, on Greenwood, when he could just as easily have taken a pair, was a question which Albert Stingley, 17 year old son of S. G. Stingley, of Bend, was unable to answer when arraigned in Justice court yesterday afternoon. He told Judge Eastes however, that he had made with a pair of leather cuffs at the same time, because he needed money and was too proud to ask his father for it.

The boy is a man as far as size is concerned, and had been doing a man's work, the authorities said. When his age was learned, however, he was transferred to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

FINE LESS THAN FORFEITED BAIL

By failing to appear for sentence yesterday afternoon, William Wilson, who pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness earlier in the day, lost a good share of the $20 bail which he had deposited with the court. "It was really more than I had intended to fine him," Judge Peoples commented, "but I guess he must have been scared."

JOHN DUBUIS NAMED ON O. A. C. FACULTY

Engineer Well Known in Central Oregon is Appointed Instructor in Irrigation Engineering.

CORVALLIS, Dec. 23.—John Dubuis a graduate of Cornell university in civil engineering and from another institution in classical courses, has been appointed instructor in the department of irrigation engineering at O. A. C. He has had 10 years of practical experience, having been employed for the last few years by the state engineer.

Mr. Dubuis has been in charge of the Walker Basin irrigation company improvement program this summer, and is well known in Bend and Central Oregon.

ROOMER IN JAIL IS FOUND INSANE

Tony Forza Adjudged Mentally Abnormal and is Committed to Asylum at Pendleton.

While making his second stay in the county jail within a week's time, Tony Forza, who at the time of his first arrest gave his name as Tony Ferrato, was examined yesterday afternoon by County Physician R. W. Hendershott, pronounced insane, and committed to the state asylum at Pendleton by Judge W. D. Barnes.

Forza, who has been working in the woods for The Shevlin-Hixon Co., suffers from a periodical type of insanity, and during these abnormal periods, develops an intense longing for music.

SCHOOL AT LA PINE SUFFERS FROM SNOW

LA PINE, Dec. 22.—Mrs. Eugene Jensen entertained a few friends at her home Thursday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in card playing and fortune telling. Those present were: Mrs. and Mr. W. G. Fordham, F. W. Weber, Miss Lilly Brown and Miss Rose Hunnell. Ernest Tomes and James Dosek gave an informal reception at the Tomes residence Friday evening. The principal features of the evening consisted of dancing, card playing, and games. An elaborate supper was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fordham, Mr. and Mrs. Cavanaugh, George Mayfield, F. W. Weber, Robert Covey, the Misses Sly, Hunnell, and Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fordham entertained a few friends Wednesday evening at card playing, fortune telling, and dancing. Those present were: F. W. Weber, Ernest Tomes, James Dosek, Miss Rose Hunnell and Miss Lilly Brown.

A party consisting of W. L. Powers of the Oregon Agricultural college, George Murphy of Bend, J. C. Cunningham, F. A. Freeman, and F. W. Murphy, and W. A. Scott of Portland came in from the Summit station where they camped Friday night. Thursday they came all the way from Summer Lake to the Summit station. George Murphy broke his arm while cranking his car at Summer Lake. W. L. Powers was at La Pine, Bend and Redmond in 1912 doing agricultural work for the O. A. C.

George McLaughlin opened up the road from La Pine to Bend with his tractor Sunday, leaving La Pine at 2:00 o'clock. E. L. Clark and Burton Oney accompanied him to repair the telephone line near the Vandevent ranch. W. D. Hill and the driver of the tractor also were with the tractor or caterpillar.

The roof on the north end of the schoolhouse caved in Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and gave the schoolhouse such a loud jar that the pupils in Miss Hunnell's and Miss Brown's rooms came running out into the hall and went down into the basement and school was dismissed for the day. A crew of nine men were put to work shoveling off the caved in roof and the attendance at school Thursday was twenty and only nineteen on Friday. Mr. Harriman, Mr. Hill, Mr. Jayze, Bill Johnson and Clifford Clow succeeded in opening the road so that the pupils from the north end can be transported. Bill Johnson and Clifford Clow went to the Masten mill Friday and returned Saturday, but they were unable to get a load of lumber for the repairing of the roof at the schoolhouse on account of the deep snow.

George Graft came in from his ranch Friday on horseback.

Jay Saltzman who has been at Beals since Tuesday evening with the mail for Fort Rock and Silver Lake returned to La Pine Sunday.

Clarence Young started for Bend with the mail Tuesday evening but succeeded in getting as far as Harper, where he had to stay until the following Monday morning.

P. H. Sprague, of Fort Rock, walked from the Brook-Scanlon camp to the Vandevent ranch Friday and continued his journey to La Pine Saturday, and left for Fort Rock Sunday to look after his cattle.

Quite a number of people in La Pine are out of wood on account of the heavy snow fall. Mr. Bice and Mr. Swayze were hauling wood Saturday and Sunday.

The thermometer went 42 degrees below zero on the evening of December 12 and 30 below the next night. Almost three feet of snow fell in the vicinity of La Pine during the storm period.

Quite a number of people shoveled the snow off their roofs. The La Pine garage is full of cars and trucks. Some of the batteries froze up Friday night.

Sunday school was held at the Foss residence Sunday at 11:00 o'clock.

The following people registered at the La Pine hotel during the past week: J. R. Suttill, R. L. Covey, H. D. Hill, Jake Howard, Lloyd Linville, Casey Jones, Dean and Chester Hollinshead all of La Pine; B. J. Harvey of Seattle; B. S. Bollyell, P. E. Mallory, E. F. Stover and Al Greiser all of Crescent; C. L. Morgan and P. E. Mallory of Davis Lake; P. H. Sprague of Fort Rock; W. L. Powers of Corvallis; George Murphy of Bend; J. C. Cunningham, F.

A. Freeman, F. W. Carey, and W. A. Scott of Portland.

EFFECTS OF SNOW FELT IN MILLICAN

MILLICAN, Dec. 22.—H. K. Cooke, Albert Tauscher and Mary C. Keller went to Bend with the Tauscher car Saturday and had to return by stage Monday.

J. J. Holland and son Joe called at the R. R. Keller home Wednesday.

C. J. Cooke called at the Keller home Thursday.

Nine of C. H. Graffenberger's calves are missing.

Cliff Evans and Frank Percival's sires died at the J. A. Smith ranch from exposure and lack of food, Friday.

We experienced one of the worst storms in the recent history of Millican. Many cattle were being taken out on account of deep snow, severe cold and lack of feed. Cliff Evans, C. J. Cooke, R. R. Keller, J. A. Smith took some out in this vicinity. J. M. James took a bunch through last week. O. O. King of Brothers, expects to take some out in a few days.

The mail route is very badly hampered, the first class mail, being taken through on horse back. The Link route has been discontinued altogether.

Mrs. L. G. Morgan is in bed with a bad cold.

The Smith's finally got back from Bend Tuesday, after having broke the frame of their car on the way in.

Mrs. L. G. Morgan returned from Bend Monday with E. W. Gurney. She was one of the Smith party Saturday, going in to Bend.

L. G. Morgan called at the Keller home Saturday.

Fred Terriel called at the Keller home Thursday evening.

F. E. Lee is a daily caller at the Terriel home.

Quite a few cars are stalled in the snow.

Mary M. Holland called at the Keller home Saturday.

SNOW IS CAUSE OF LOSS TO FARMERS

GRANGE HALL, Dec. 23.—Don Slaughton is moving on the Denner place north of Deschutes. He will deliver milk to Deschutes to be shipped to Bend, it is stated.

Lester Moore moved to Bend last week. He will deliver milk in the city.

Mail is being delivered to the star route on horseback this week.

Le May's big hay barn caved in from the weight of the snow. The barn was full of hay. Also Bill Warnstaff's barn and Billadeaux' goat barn went down.

Mr. H. Helgesen, O. Dahle, Fr.

Reynolds, E. E. Butler and Charlie Lowe all braved the snow the early part of the week to shop in Bend.

The despised horse has suddenly came into prominence since the snow. And the gas engines are being abandoned. Several cars were abandoned before their owners reached home Wednesday evening.

Lee Beebe's auto is patiently waiting near Grange Hall until the snow melts. Mr. Neff, the R. F. D. carrier, had to abandon his car near Mr. Mosier's ranch, and Gordon Dutt also left his car in the Crowe ranch and reached home Wednesday night, but Kenneth Dutt was not so fortunate. He spent two days at the said ranch before he could get home.

After a few days wait in Bend, until the storm had ceased, Miss Ida Young returned home from a visit in Spokane.

Mrs. Lester returned home from Wisconsin last week. She was able to get to the ranch the early part of the week by riding horseback.

Mrs. C. M. Rasmussen spent Saturday and Sunday in this neighborhood on account of bad roads.

Ether Erickson called at the Helgesen home Sunday.

Mr. F. A. Nelson was a Bend visitor Friday.

L. C. Young butchered a cow for P. J. Young Friday.

H. Helgesen butchered five fine hogs Wednesday. Mr. Pesko helped him.

The snow caught many farmers with scant supply of wood. But what made matters worse they could not find their axes which they declare they left on the wood pile. It was a question just where the wood pile was.

Lester Moore drove his dairy cows which he had sold, through the deep snow Wednesday to Powell Butte.

Mrs. C. M. Rasmussen leaves Wednesday, for her home near Deschutes to spend the holidays.

Mr. O. Dahle took the Grange Hall pupils to school on a sled Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Dahle and Gladys Dahle went to Bend on their sled Saturday.

CHILDREN WILL AID ARMENIAN SUFFERERS

The Baptist Sunday school is raising a fund of $100 for Armenian relief instead of American relief as a mix-up in type made The Bulletin say on Saturday. The sum now in hand is $80 and the full $100 is expected by Wednesday night when the program is given by the Sunday school. The public is cordially invited to attend the exercises.

Put it in The Bulletin.
