By United Press to The Rend Bulletin. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 8 .-The democratic national committee meeting place for the democratic national convention, which is set for June 28. Movements of William Jennings Bryan in Washington as attracting as much attention today as the meeting of the democratic national committee. Bryan arrived here early, ostensibly to make a speech at the Jackson Day banquet tonight, but in reality, many believe, to try to capture the leadership of the party. Wilson Policy Upheld.

The democratic national committeemen appear to be almost solidly in favor of backing President Wilson in the treaty fight. Bryan, accord ing to political gossip, opposed it. He wants a treaty compromise quick-Bryan believes, it is understood, that the democrats of the nation would rather follow him, and get some kind of treaty, than follow the president and possibly get no treaty at all.

A resolution putting the democratle party on record as squarely behind President Wilson in his fight for ratification of the peace treaty, were unanimously passed by the Democratic national committee at their meeting here today. The senator opposing ratification, and who want reservations, which were char-neterized as "nullifying," were declared to be worthy of the "contempt of the world."

Fight Spirited.

The committee held a public session at the Shoreham hotel, to be followed tonight by the Jackson Day dinner at the Willard, where promfnent Democrats from every section of the country will discuss the issues of the campaign and the position of the party. Incidentally, it has fore has been held but once in four years, shall become a yearly event, and that instead of being a District of Columbia event, it will be nationalized. It is to serve in future as an annual Democratic party love feast, at-which ideas for the good of the party will be exchanged by chieftains from every section.

As the Democrats gathered, the figith for the convention was spirited. San Francisco, St. Louis, Cincinnati. Cleveland, Indianapolis and Kansas City all have been urging their claims party leaders.

Third Term Interests.

The most absorbing topic on every hand was whether President Wilson will be a third term candidate, and if he is not, whether he will indicate his choice among the many who are being discussed. It is considered certain that the President will make his position plain on the third term question before the convention is held. That he will not again be a candidate was also the belief of most of the leaders. They expect him to keep his hands off, and to have no part in selecting the nominee.

Among those most talked of as candidates to-day are William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, and President Wilson's son-in-law; Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio; Senator Gilbert Hitchcock of Nebraska; former Secretary of
