ONLY AMERICA OF ALL ALLIES NOT AT PEACE

TREATY GOES INTO EFFECT TODAY

WALLACE IS ABSENT

Ratifications Exchanged After Germans Sign Protocol — War Not Banished From Earth, is Declaration of Foch.

PARIS, January 10. Peace became effective at 11 o'clock this afternoon when the allied and German representatives exchanged ratifications of the Versailles treaty. Previous to the exchange, the Germans signed the protocol, covering enforcement terms. American Ambassador Wallace was not present.

Following the ceremony, several of the allied delegates bowed to the Germans, but did not shake hands with them.

The ratification of the treaty does not forever banish war from the weary world, Marshal Foch warned today in an interview. "It would be foolish to believe that there will be no more war, merely because we don't want to fight," he declared.

MEMBERSHIP OPEN FOR NEW COUNCIL

Discussion of membership featured the meeting at the Pilot Butte Inn last night of the tentatively formed civic council, and it was open until later. The organization will be completed at another session to be held on Friday evening, January 30.

No decision on this point was reached.

VARIED DIVORCE LAWS CAUSE NUMEROUS ILLEGAL MARRIAGES

SEATTLE, Jan. 10.—There are thousands of persons in the state of Washington who are not husbands and wives in the eyes of the law! However, they honestly believe they are lawfully wedded mates.

Divorce Proctor C. C. Dalton is authority for that startling statement. Hundreds of happily married couples, he asserts, are guilty of bigamy, and their children are illegitimate.

By a decision of the United States supreme court, what is divorce in one state is not a divorce in another, and what constitutes a legal marriage in one state is bigamy in another," Dalton declared.

RAIL BUSINESS GAINS IN YEAR

BIG INCREASE SHOWN BY BEND LINES

Revenues Advance $750,000 — Shipments of Autos Double — Those Made in 1918 — Trade Balance Good.

Business transacted by the railroads working out of Bend showed an increase of 42 per cent over the year previous, according to lump figures furnished by Local Freight and Passenger Agent Studebaker, on authorization from road officials in Spokane. The total revenue for the Oregon Trunk and O-W R & N, for outbound traffic in 1919 was $2,500,000, while for 1918 the total was $1,750,000. This includes both freight and passenger outbound traffic.

Freight shipments from Bend for 1919, reached 5500, and of this, approximately 5000 cars were filled with lumber and lumber products, it was learned. Of the other cars, 10 were loaded with potatoes, 300 with livestock and 160 miscellaneous freight.

Most of the freight cars which came into Bend were empty, showing a favorable balance of trade with the outside world. Sixty carloads of hay were brought in, 50 carloads of autos, 50 cars of gasoline, 100 of fuel oil, 160 of sheep brought in for summer range, and 80 of miscellaneous freight.

Ten thousand passengers left Bend last year and paid in round numbers $150,000 for tickets purchased here. The number of inbound travellers is not known.

Forty-five employees of the railroad and their families made their homes here during the past year.

SURE EGGS ARE HIGH VIA AIRPLANE

Sending eggs by airplane is not new—but delivering them in a fast mail is a new stunt which was performed at Washington. Aerial mail deliveries through the use of small parachutes proved practical when this carton of eggs was dropped to Postmaster Chance, who is shown here counting his dozen—not one of which was broken.

SEEK CONTRACT WITH MANAGER

DECORATOR SIGNS AGREEMENT WITH PAINTERS, WHO HOLD OUT FOR WRITTEN PROMISE FROM BIRDSALL.

Re-decorating of the Pilot Butte Inn, which was halted yesterday afternoon when members of the plasterers' union hid down their tools, was not resumed today, and will not be started, members of the painters' local say, until W. C. Birdsall, manager of the Inn, has signed an agreement with the latter local. Mr. Birdsall declares that is in no way obligated to put his name to such a document, and that the fact that his decorating contractor, W. J. Hester, of the firm of Anderson & Hester, of Portland, has signed with the painters, agreeing to employ only union labor, and otherwise to live up to the rules of the local, there is nothing more to be done.

Plasterers were called off the job yesterday in sympathy with the painters, when it was claimed that Mr. Hester, a member of the Master Painters, but not a card man, had started the enamelling of a bathroom at the Inn. Mr. Birdsall contends that Mr. Hester had not yet started to work, and that he stopped all preparations as soon as he was notified that he could not use a brush, under the rules of the local. The painters will hold a special meeting tonight to decide as to what further action will be advisable.

VOTE OF HOUSE AGAIN UNSEATS VICTOR BERGER

328 TO 6 VOTE OUSTS

Extra Guards Stationed in Galleries to Prevent Demonstration — Dallingter Starts Move to Vacate Seat.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 10.—Victor Berger, who while a United States representative, was convicted under the espionage act, was excluded from membership in congress for the second time in two months, this afternoon. The vote was 328 to six with one representative not voting. Berger announced his intention of again becoming a candidate in the fifth district of Wisconsin, and said that his majority at the next election would greatly exceed that in the last.

Berger, following a conference with Speaker Gillette, announced this morning that he expected to take his seat in the house. He came on the floor of the house while the chaplain was praying. He gave his overcoat to a page, and entering the rear row of seats, stood with lowered head throughout the prayer.

Extra guards were stationed in all the galleries to prevent any disturbance or demonstration. Consideration of a resolution for Berger's exclusion began shortly after roll call. In offering the resolution Representative Dallingter declared that Berger should not be excluded because he is a socialist, but because he is disloyal, and therefore ineligible under the constitution.
