WIFE SETTLES FOR HUSBAND'S MISDEEDS

Roll of Bills Found in Handbag Pays Fines of J. D. Leavett and His Guests.

The misdemeanors of her husband and her husband's guests cost Mrs. J. D. Leavett, of McKay avenue, $50, when the police court case in which Ray Stevens and Mrs. Bertha Howard were charged with drunkenness, was tried last night. Leavett had already pleaded guilty to having liquor in his possession and the other two defendants admitted that they had become intoxicated on their host's home made beer, but that they had not been disorderly.

Ten dollars each was the fine given Stevens and Mrs. Howard. "You seem to be responsible for all this," Judge Peoples told Leavett, and it will cost you $30." Leavett attempted no argument with the court, but calmly secured his wife's handbag, removed therefrom a roll of bills, stripped off a ten and a twenty to hand to the court, presented Stevens and Mrs. Howard with $10 each, and returned the lightened bag to Mrs. Leavett.

STATE CONSTABULARY MAKES FOR NEW POLICY IN IDAHO

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.) BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 30.—In any emergency involving law enforcement, Idaho can quickly establish a definite policy, state-wide in its effect. This is made possible by the fact that at the state house all police authority is centered in one man. This feature, according to Robert O. Jones, state commissioner of law enforcement, is one of the greatest benefits of the Idaho state constabulary system.

Jones summed up for the United Press today the results of eight months' activity of the constabulary. Created primarily to enforce liquor laws, it has been used chiefly to corral I. W. W. who have entered Idaho from the northwest.

Following the Centralla killings, Idaho officials announced that radicals were entering the state in great numbers. The constabulary was then brought into full play for the first time.

"The state constabulary began its operations May 8, 1919," said Jones. "It is composed not only of state

BULLETS FIRED INTO DEAD MAN

FRANK MCCORMICK TESTIFIES HE KILLED CHARLES BROWN—WILL BE TRIED ON MURDER CHARGE.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Jan. 30.—Testifying in defense of Mrs. Gertrude Wilson, his sister, Frank McCormick declared today that he shot and killed Charles Brown in self defense.

"As I pushed open the door of the cabin, Brown shot me in the mouth," McCormick testified. "Brown was eight feet away from me when I pulled my rifle and shot him. He fell and never moved."

McCormick's testimony was designed to show that Brown was already dead when Mrs. Wilson fired bullets into his body from her small revolver. McCormick's trial, on a charge of murder, will follow the present trial of Mrs. Wilson.

AUTOMATIC CONTROL GETS REAL TRYOUT

Rising and falling, the wail of the city fire siren sounded continuously for more than half an hour this afternoon. There was no fire, but the automatic control, a device by which the alarm can be turned in from the telephone office, and which has just been installed, was being given a most thorough tryout.

NEW BRIDGE IS NEARLY READY

CAN BE USED IN TWO MORE WEEKS

Walk Widened to Six Feet, Good Clearance for Boats Is Allowed, and Placing of Water Main Is Changed.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new footbridge over the Deschutes, and within two more weeks, says M. J. Danielson in charge of construction, the river can be crossed at this point. A crew of seven men has worked more than two-thirds of the way across the river. The total length of the bridge will be 350 feet.

Marked improvements over the old bridge, which was swept out by ice in December, are noted in the substitution of a six foot walk for the four foot width of the old structure, and in the slight arch making for strength as well as improving the appearance of the span. A six foot clearance over high water will be allowed making a stretch of clear river for approximately half a mile from the power day to the Tumalo avenue wagon bridge, which will be available for boating.

The B. W. L. & P. water main, instead of being nearly at the water level, is being placed on the top of the stringers, and will constitute an additional element of strength, acting as an anchor for the bridge instead of aiding to tear it away as was the case in the old structure, Mr. Danielson states.

The bridge is to be of a semi-rustic type, but this will apply only to the railings, for which peeled poles will probably be used. Aside from this, solid timbers and planks are being put in by the builders.

FIGHTS WILL WHICH WOULD AID WILHELM

Property Left to Former Ruler to Further Military Policies of Germany.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—Long before the Versailles conference decreed there should be practically no German army or navy, Herr Knorr, Pan-German and true to the kaiser passed away and left a will.

Under the terms of the testament, Knorr gave most of his fortune, consisting of property and securities, to the kaiser to be used for military purposes. Now the widow of the old man and her half-brother have gone to the courts to demand their share of his worldly goods.

The Knorrs argue the man would never have given the kaiser his property and money if he had known it could not have been used in the furtherance of German military policies. The former emperor's interests are represented by an attorney.

BIG PROFIT ON SUGAR DIVIDED

MORE THAN 100 PER CENT ADDED TO REFINERS' PRICE FOR EXPORT, REPORTS INDICATE.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 30.—Evidence that jobbers, wholesalers and retailers are dividing a profit of more than 100 per cent on sugar at 20 cents a pound, is found in reports to the United States department of commerce.

The reports show that in December, eight and a quarter cents was the price at which American refiners sold sugar for export. During the same month, the price charged by retailers in 50 cities averaged 14 1-2 cents, showing that after the sugar had left the refineries, six and a quarter cents had been added to each pound sold. In many cities the retail price was over 14 and a quarter.

TWO PAY FINES FOR CARRYING LIQUOR

Fire Test for Alcohol Used Before W. B. Douglas and Frank Miller Are Brought Into Court.

More than a month after bottles were removed from the persons of W. B. Douglas and Frank Miller by police officers, the two were hauled into police court today charged with having liquor in their possession. Each pleaded guilty and paid a $15 fine.

The fact that no one was willing to test the contents of the bottles confiscated by the officers, prevented a charge being filed until yesterday, when the idea of trying out the alcoholic contents of the flasks by fire was suggested. The characteristic alcohol flame leaped up when the match was applied, and the warrants were immediately issued.

WILL DECIDE RAIL POLICY

BILLS WILL BE PASSED EARLY IN FEBRUARY TO PREVENT HITCH IN PLANS FOR RETURN OF ROADS TO OWNERS.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 30.—A final agreement of senate and house conferees on railroad legislation is near, it was learned today. It is believed that certain railroad bills will be passed early next month, so that there will be no hitch in the plan announced by the president to return the railroads to their private owners on March 1.

An overwhelming majority in Congress still favors the return of roads to their owners as soon as possible, despite the efforts of labor and other organizations to extend government control for two years in hope that the Plumb plan can then be put into effect.

Welterau arrived here this morning from Camp Lewis and Portland, and will remain in Bend and the vicinity until Sunday night. In furthering the work, slides will be shown at the moving picture theatres, but especial emphasis will be laid on the essay writing contest which the army men hope that the Bend and Deschutes county schools will enter.

The contest is nation wide, and many thousands of children all over the United States will write on the subject, "The Benefits of Enlistment in the United States Army." All essays written here must be at District headquarters at Portland by February 20. There are 56 enlistment districts and the 56 best essays will be sent in to Washington, D. C., where the three best will be selected. The writers of these, accompanied by parent or guardian,

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)

MONTESANO, Jan. 30.—Three more jurors were tentatively passed by both sides in the Centralla murder cases today, making a total of 11. The twelfth was expected to be secured before night.

Frank Van Gilder, chairman of the American Legion intelligence committee, issued a positive denial of the story that a legion jury will sit at the trial here. "The story that the American Legion plans to have a jury at Montesano is absolutely true and without foundation," he declared.

Jurors passed at the morning session were: John Hill, poultry rancher; E. E. Torpen, retired farmer; and A. H. Kuhn, shingle mill owner.

Mr. Seward has travelled extensively since leaving Bend, but declares that he considers opportunities are better here than in any other city he has visited. During the last two years he was in the signal corps, and made a number of trips to the Philippine Islands.

The studio in the Lara building on Oregon street is being remodeled to take care of increased business, and will be reopened shortly. Mr. Seward will take a special interest in commercial work, while portrait photography will remain largely under the direction of Mr. Todd.

Stadig, manager, announced this morning when he arrived in Bend from his Lower Bridge ranch. The offer is really lower than the price made in a recent sale to Washington growers, when $4.25 a hundred was given for the run of the field, and Mr. Stadig has not yet agreed to sell.
