

TO TRAIN MEN FOR ATHLETICS IN ARMY

Five Officers From Each Department Will Take Course in Practical Gymnastics.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin) WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 26.—Plans for the establishment of a school at Camp Benning, Georgia, to turn out army physical instructors have been completed today by the War Department.

Five officers from each department of the army will be detailed to the school for instruction in physical training and athletics. At the end of the course, each officer will return to his post equipped with the knowledge and training requisite for an instructor in athletics. The instructor personnel at the Camp Benning School will be made up of physical training specialists.

Besides the athletic program, instructions will be given at Camp Benning in such war activities as hand-to-hand fighting. The instructions planned by the army will make every soldier fit to meet the severe modern warfare requirements of body control, agility, strength and endurance it is believed.

The organization of a school for army chaplains at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, now is being worked out by the War Plans Division at the War Department, also.

nearest post-office and buys a check for two British pounds which he may mail to England. It is payable at any English post-office for two pounds. At the U. S. post-office, however, the American purchaser pays in $9.74 to cover the order plus 10 cents for the check. At the express company, he may get the check for nothing and need pay only $7 to cover it.

The U. S. Post-Office Department takes the $9.84 and need spend only about $6.50 for the two pounds sterling which it must place at the disposal of the British post-office which pays the check. The profit to the post-office, therefore, amounts to $3.24 for this transaction alone.

Approximately 1,000,000 persons sent post-office orders to France, England and Italy last year.
