JAMISON HAS MAN SIZED JOB

NEW COUNTY AGENT
O. A. C. PRODUCT

Specialty is Dairying, But Has Had U. S. Biological Survey Experience in Dealing With Rodent Control.

When D. L. Jamison, accepted the position as county agent of Deschutes county, he stepped into a man's sized job. Deschutes county has been favored with several county agents in the last few years.

Mr. Jamison was fully advised as to conditions in Central Oregon. He knew that he was not coming to an

Co. near Seattle and later was with the U. S. Biological Survey in rodent control work. In the army Jamison was with the artillery, medical corps and finally ended up with the chemical warfare service on the Atlantic Coast.

Coming to Deschutes county Jamison has launched into the work with the Deschutes county farm bureau in its efforts to build up one of the strongest and most effective farmers organizations in the state.

Months of Winter.
Astronomically winter is reckoned to begin in northern latitudes when the sun enters Capricorn, or at the solstice (about December 21), and to end at the equinox in March; but in ordinary speech winter comprises the three coldest months—December, January and February, being reckoned the winter months in the United States, and November, December and January in Great Britain.

D. L. Jamison, County Agent

old settled country where everything was running smoothly, but rather in a section of Oregon where agriculture is in the stage of finding itself.

D. L. Jamison is a product of the Oregon Agricultural college of the 1915 crop. His specialty while studying under O. A. C. specialists was agronomy and dairying. For 10 months after his graduation Jamison spent 20 months in cow testing work in Curry county of this state and seven months in Jefferson county Montana. Then for several months he was in charge of the purebred dairy of Thiessen & Son of Milwaukee, Oregon. For two months he was associated with the Mayflower Dairy

NEW COATS
In A Delightful Collection of Styles

THERE is a charm about these newest coats. Perhaps it is due to the fact that painstaking attention is given every detail of tailoring. Perhaps it is the welcome newness each radiates—little differences that are as gladdening as spring flowers, soft breezes and blue skies. At any rate it will be interesting to choose one now for Easter wear. Priced at—
