"What's Your Husband Doing"?

Honeysuckle Inn had fallen. It's scandalous days were ended. The Pleasantville jail was full for the first time in seven years --full of frantic wives and trembling hubbies--their only hope in the shield of their nommes de roadhouse.

And in the cold grey dawn they said,-- "Good morning Judge"--oh, what revelations! You'll laugh 'till your weak.

AGRICULTURAL BOSS' SON CRACK RIFLE SHOT

Although his daddy is now in Washington at the head of the United States Agricultural Department, Edward T. Meridith, Jr., lived in Iowa long enough to develop a hobby for dogs and guns and even though only 14 years old has won prizes in rifle contests. These are new pictures of Edward, one of his guns and pet dog.

DAYS ARRIVE FOR GINGHAM THOUGHTS

What woman does not look forward with a great deal of pleasure to "gingham days"? Time was when gingham could only be thought of as "an around home frock," but the dainty coolness and bewitching appeal of such summery apparel makes them permissible for varied wear. Here is one of the season's new models and already milady is busy in planning her summer wradrobe.
