KNICKERBOCKER IS SEEKER FOR OFFICE

Sister Rancher Out for Democratic Nomination for County Commissioner.

M. W. Knickerbocker, rancher in the Sisters country, has definitely entered the race as a candidate for the democratic nomination for county commissioner. Mr. Knickerbocker, by the way is the only man to seek the democratic nomination for the position, although several republicans are already in the running. Mr. Knickerbocker is one of the older settlers on the irrigated lands tributary to Bend. Formerly a farmer in the Cloverdale district, he sold his holdings, and removed to the Willamette Valley for a short time last year. He soon returned to Central Oregon, however, and is taking an especial interest in the raising of purebred livestock.

DEATH IS CAUSED BY HEART FAILURE

Frank M. Mench, Ex-Soldier, Answers Last Call—Post to Have Charge of Funeral.

Change to a high altitude is believed to have been a tributary cause of heart failure which caused the death last night of Frank M. Mench, aged 43 years at Sherwin-Hixon Camp No. 1. The deceased was a member of the American Legion, having served during the war as a member of the medical detachment at the Vancouver Barracks post hospital, volunteering in spite of the fact that he was well past the age limit of the draft. He was unmarried and is survived by one brother, residing in Bend.

Mr. Mench had complained of a pain in his side yesterday, and retired early. Shortly before 9:30 o'clock, he left his bed, drank a glass of water, and again retired. A few minutes later a fellow workman heard a gasp from his bed, and on investigating, found that the ex-soldier had expired.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced, but it is expected that the services will be conducted under the direction of Percy A. Stevens Post No. 4, American Legion.
