CAPITALIZE THE QUARTER SHARE

Sooner or later, if Deschutes county is to continue to cooperate with the state highway commission in the construction of state highways, it must issue more bonds to provide cooperative funds. Crook county, as we have pointed out before, has gone the limit, and to that fact is largely due its success in obtaining state aid on its roads. Deschutes still has a bonding capacity of over $400,000 and it must shortly consider whether it cares to add to its present bond debt of $125,000. Only by doing so will it be able to obtain state road money.

One of the first thoughts any taxpayer will have when a new bond issue is proposed will be concerning its effect on his taxes. In these days, when all things cost so much, and taxes, with everything else, are so high, he will hesitate to add to his burdens, even for good roads. If, on the other hand, he could be shown a plan that meant road bond money and no taxes, he ought to be ready to vote for it unhesitatingly.

We have such a plan. It is simply to follow the same course the state is following in capitalizing automobile license fees.

Under existing law the county receives one-quarter of all automobile license fees and proceeds of the gasoline tax. The other three-quarters are used by the state to pay interest and principal of road bond issues. Why should not Deschutes county proceed on the same course the state is taking and issue bonds, to be paid for out of its quarter share of this fund?

On present information it seems clear that the county could issue $100,000 in bonds, which would be cared for by this fund. The exact amount would depend on the number of automobile registrations, rate of interest to be paid and other factors which may be determined.

If and when this is done, and our bonds voted, we shall be in position to cooperate without having any new expense added to our tax budget. The only loss, if it may be called a loss, will be to our general road fund, which will no longer receive this quarter share for general road work. Such work, however, should be cared for from our general fund as raised in the county.

"We arise to inquire," says the Portland Telegram, "if the two should meet now, what would the 'governor of North Carolina' say to the 'governor of South Carolina'?" Just exactly what they said the first time, we should suppose, namely: "It's a _____ of a long time between drinks."

What's the use of buying overalls when you are wearing nothing but old clothes, anyway?

AMERICAN SPIRIT INFLUENCES SOUTH

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
RIO DE JANEIRO, April 19.—The influence of North America on South America is steadily becoming more evident, even in the Mardi Gras of Rio de Janeiro. Among the throngs of masqueraders during the 1920, carnival season were many "Carlitos," as Charlie Chaplin is called in Portuguese.

There were scores of cowboys with broad-brimmed hats, cartridge belt and bandana handkerchief in true imitation of the movie hero of the American wild and woolly west. Film vampires abounded, with penciled eye-brows and low-cut gowns.

Climate.

I travel east, I travel west, to find the smoothest climate; and when at last I've found the best, no doubt I'll deftly rhyme it. I travel north, I travel south, and find the folks complaining; for here there is a beastly drouth, and there it's always raining. I sit me down beside the sea to write some soulful stanzas, and fogs come up and smother me, and make me yearn for Kansas. Upon the mountain's brow I sit, and view the valleys under, and then the storm fiend throws a fit, with hail and sleet and thunder. I traverse lands across the foam, from Cork to the Nyanzas; and all things say, "You're far from home," and make me sick for Kansas. And Kansas climate is the worst that e'er the Lord invented, with cold and heat and winds accurst—but there I'm most contented. For there my friends are drilling round, the slowest and the quickest; and where my dearest friends are found, the climate is the slickest. I travel up, I travel down, to find an earthly heaven, and always sign for my old town, dimensions, five by seven.

The immigrants to Brazil from Portugal, Spain, Italy and France—the four great carnival countries of Europe—have brought their carnival traditions and customs to South America. In past years the color of Lisbon, of Madrid, of Genoa and of Nice has mingled in the Rio de Janeiro holiday season. Now the spirit of New York, Chicago and Frisco is tumbling into this blend.

FOR THE YOUNG GIRLS

Girls from eight to fourteen years old are provided for this season with many pretty frocks, in colored cottons, that are simply but ingeniously designed. Many of them have white organdy collars and cuffs, or frills, as a finish. The combination is pleasing in blue chambray, or shown in the picture above, where organdy frills make the collar and finish the sleeves and pockets.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

I hereby announce my candidacy on the democratic ticket for the office of sheriff of Deschutes county, subject to the will of the voters at the primary election May 21. I am basing my candidacy upon an intimate knowledge of the duties of the office, having been deputy sheriff of Hood River and Wasco counties. If elected I promise thorough performance of the duties of the office and justice to all.
Adv. GEORGE STOKOE.

SIX YEARS AGO the advertiser signed a contract for space with a sigh. He was gambling and he knew it.

He suspected that often the dice were loaded and that he would not get the circulation for which he was paying.

Today he buys advertising space with the same certainty that he buys any other commodity. It is measured just as surely as the coal for his furnace is measured.

The measuring machine is the Audit Bureau of Circulations, and the A. B. C. report on a publication is his certificate from an impartial weighmaster.

The best publications in the country supply A. B. C. reports to their advertisers.
