FARCES WILL BE GIVEN AT GRANGE

GRANGE HALL, April 27.—Thursday evening, May 6, the Grange Hall school will give two plays at the hall.

Three boys from the seventh grade will present a negro farce entitled, "Embalming Ebenezer." The characters are: Herbert Nelson, as Horace Hardup; Le Roy Smith, as Ebenezer Rosenstaine; Chris Stock, as Dr. Jackson; Horace Hardup has spent his friend Ebenezer's "las" two quantahs" for an insurance policy in his own favor. Ebenezer "ain't got no notion of dyin'," but when the agent arrives he plays the corpse, not without some expostulations. Jackson proceeds to embalm "the corpse," but flees in terror leaving Ebenezer master of the situation and of the insurance money.

The second play is entitled, "Jumbo Jum," or "Mr. Gobbleton's Ward." The characters are: Bennett Young, as Jumbo Jum; Katharine Helgeson, as Hannah Filkins; Elizabeth Reynolds, as Mr. Gobbleton's Ward; Anna Smith, as Lawyer Cheatem; Dorothy Young, as Mr. Gobbleton; Karna Hottman, as Mrs. Gobbleton; Clyde Smith, as Harry, the young officer with whom Mr. Gobbleton's ward is in love, very much against his wishes. LeRoy Smith, Clyde Smith, and Herbert Nelson are laborers.

In addition to the plays there will be music, recitations, and singing. After the program there will be a pie social. Every lady is asked to bring a pie, and everyone is invited. Mrs. C. M. Rasmussen has been

The Need For Larger Quarters

We've outgrown our little store. It's too crowded now to enable us to take care of our rapidly increasing patronage.

So, on or about MAY 1, we will be in new quarters, in the rooms recently vacated by Mrs. Logan in the O'Donnell Building, between the postoffice and O'Donnell's market.

With plenty of space and a complete rearrangement, we will be better able to care for your business than ever before.

Call on us at our new location on or about the FIRST OF MAY.
