PITCH LONGEST GAME

Here are the two pitchers who set the new major league record by battling 26 innings to a 1 to 1 tie, game called on account of darkness. It is Joe Oeschger of Boston Braves and Leon Cadore of Brooklyn. Both pitchers hurled superb games, but sensational fielding saved both at times. The former big league record was in 1918 when Boston beat Pittsburg in 21 innings.

ENGLAND'S "RED EYE" FOR PUSSYFOOT'S OPTIC

Prohibition as a world movement is adopting "Blylock" methods, says England. It's an eye for an eye. England rowdies put out "Pussyfoot" Johnson's eye—now the prohibition forces insist England must give up its "red eye" in return. William E. "Pussyfoot" Johnson, the American, who is a leader in the world-wide prohibition movement, is back from England. He is shown here as he greeted his wife and daughter at the dock in New York. Johnson says a "dry world" is certain. England in 10 years, India in two years, France and Italy soon. Johnson says he sees all this—even with his one glass eye. His home is at Westerville, O.
