PUBLIC SPIRIT

The thanks of the people of Bend and of every citizen of this section interested in its problems, especially irrigation, are due the Commercial club and other public spirited men for the services rendered in connection with the entertainment of the distinguished party that arrived last night. From the time the Bend men took the party in charge at Crater Lake until it was turned over to the next committee, not a single thing, except car trouble, happened to disturb the program, and the possibility of car trouble had been foreseen and provided for.

Two men who were of especial aid should be especially mentioned because of the thing they did. They are George D. Gove and P. E. Chase of the Brooks-Seanlon company.
When it was discovered late Thursday that more cars were needed, they were asked to make the trip. They had just finished a hard day's work, but they willingly consented to go, drove all night and, hardly three hours after their arrival at the lake, started on the return journey. The community is also indebted to these others who gave themselves and their cars: Clyde M. McKay, D. G.
McPherson, T. A. McCann, E. J. Catton, A. M. Pringle, Norman Jacobson, H. J. Overturf.

Great thanks are due also to the people of Crescent for the delightful lunch served under the trees. Everything was perfectly arranged and perfectly served. The visitors will long remember the occasion.

And, finally, the management of the Pilot Butte Inn is to be congratulated on the character and manner of the dinner last night.

Our congressional visitors find Central Oregon in the same position as a portion of the democratic convention at San Francisco—dry and wanting to be wet.

Seaside Musings

I walk beside the sea and muse, among the surge lashed rocks; the waves roll up and wet my shoes, and spoil my green silk socks. It seems to me the ocean's sound is one great, endless knell; its waters are the battle ground of all that in them dwell. Like cannibals fish make their meals of relatives that pass; the swordfish fills itself with eels, the dolphin eats the bass. All fishes are avoiding foes by every futile means; the salted codfish briskly goes, pursuing canned sardines. I sense an endless tragedy where'er the breakers boom, the thrilling epic of the sea, that tells of death and doom. And if I bade the warfare cease, I'd simply waste my breath; in vain I'd preach a balmy peace to those whose trade is death. Until the end of stars and suns the hungry fish will slay; the big will chase the little ones, and stow the same away.
The sharks would look on me with mirth, or bid me amble hence, just as the people do on earth, when I talk peace and sense. And on the land as in the sea red blood must always flow; alack, alas, and woe is me, that such things should be so!

O'DOWD VS. ORTEGA FIGHT CALLED OFF

PORTLAND, July 10.—The scheduled fight between Mike O'Dowd and Battling Ortega was not held here last night, the managers of the two boxers being unable to agree as to the referee and the size of the purse.
Four draws were fought: Eddie Shannon vs. Willie St. Clair; Neill Zimmerman vs. Johnny Fiske; Baby Blue vs. Danny Edwards; and Young Fisher vs. Kid Taylor.

WILL REBUILD STONE GARAGE

WORK ON BUILDING GUTTED BY FIRE TO COMMENCE AS SOON AS ADJUSTMENTS ARE MADE, SAYS LON L. FOX.

Just as soon as insurance adjustments have been made, work will be started to rebuild the stone structure on Bond, near Greenwood, formerly occupied by the Cent-Ore Motor Co., which was gutted by fire earlier in the week, Lon L. Fox, owner of the property, announced this morning.
He estimates that the expense will total about $12,000.

The side and front walls remain intact, and what is left of the rear wall will be torn out and the building extended east to the alley, adding 15 feet to its former depth of 125 feet. A reinforcement of concrete pillars will be provided. No steps will be taken toward building on the lot just south of the stone garage structure until this work has been completed, Mr. Fox states. He hopes to have rebuilding finished early in the fall, and has already three applications for a lease.
