Applicant for Insurance Policy Finds He Is Mother's Brother-in-Law, And His Own Grandfather.

The deputy of a fraternal insurance society recently obtained the application of William Johnson and gladly escorted that individual before the examining physician. In the process of filling out the papers, Mr. Johnson was asked to name his nearest relatives, that they might be designated as beneficiaries. He explained as follows:

"I met a widow and married her; she had a step-daughter. My father, a widower, visited us; he married the stepdaughter. My wife became the mother-in-law of her father-in-law, and my stepdaughter my stepmother. My father is my stepson."

"After a while my stepmother, the daughter of my wife, had a son. This boy is my brother, being my father's son, but he is also the son of my wife's daughter, and so her grandson. Therefore, I am my brother's grandfather."

"Then my wife had a daughter. My mother-in-law is her step-sister, and also her grandmother, because she is her stepson's child. My father is the brother of my daughter, who is also the daughter of my grandmother. I am my mother's brother-in-law, my wife is her own child's aunt, my daughter is my father's niece, and I am my own grandfather."
