(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin)
DEVIL'S LAKE, N. D., Sept. 7.

James M. Cox stated here today that he doesn't intend to interfere with the 18th amendment. His statement, his first on the liquor question, was made to a woman who questioned him on prohibition as he shook hands with her. "My dear lady," he said, "I've always voted dry, and don't intend to interfere with the 18th amendment."

FAVORS COOPERATION

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Sept. 7.—Cooperative buying and selling by farmers was advocated today by Governor Cox in his first speech in North Dakota, here. He warned that measures must be taken to stop the trend from farm to city or, within 10 years, the United States will be importing foodstuffs. He said that new anti-trust laws, stating just how far labor and cooperative farm organizations must go in their work, should be passed. "The farmers must compete now with the manufacturer, and for that reason should be allowed to cooperate in purchasing and selling," he declared.

LABOR DAY IS ENJOYED HERE

CELEBRATION STARTS WITH PARADE

Speeches, Picnic Dinner, Band Concert and Program of Sports and Races At Park Complete Entertainment Offered.

More than 200 members of Bend labor unions marched in the parade which yesterday morning officially opened the celebration of Labor Day here. The fact that the number of marchers was by no means so large as in 1919 or 1918 was explained by the absence of G. H. Baker, chairman of the committee on arrangements, who was called to Vale on the eve of the celebration. The fact that a number of the unions carried no banners led to the belief among the spectators that these organizations were not represented, but every union had members in the line of march, although for some organizations only a few appeared. The parade was led by an auto in which rode Fire Chief Tom Carlson, with other officers of the department; the fire truck followed, with the bricklayers, carpenters, painters, culinary alliance, electricians, typographical union, hod carriers, laundry workers, timberworkers, printers, barbers and machinists forming the remainder of the procession. The marchers halted at the City park, where addresses were given by Rev. E. B. Johnson of the Baptist church, Fred K. Hollister of Seattle, "See America First" booster, and C. E. Stead. A picnic dinner was enjoyed by hundreds and in the afternoon, with the crowd constantly growing, an instrumental concert by the Shevlin-Hixon band was enjoyed. The band members appeared in smart green uniforms and the music was in keeping with the appearance of the organization. A program of athletic sports and feature races vied with the concert for popular favor. Organized entertainment came to an end shortly before 5 o'clock.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin)
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 7. —Anthracite coal miners represented in the insurgent wing of the United Mine Workers voted today to continue their "vacation" strike. For the second time in a week they served notice on President Wilson, coal operators and the recognized officers of the union that they will not return to work until given higher wages and improved working conditions.

MOORE ADMITS EVIDENCE ONLY SECOND HAND

COX REPRESENTATIVE GOES ON STAND

REITERATES CHARGES

Plan For Raising $10,000,000 Made By Republicans Before January, He Declares—Paid Money Raisers Are Employed, Charge.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin)
CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The senate committee investigating Cox's slush fund charges "is not seeking the best evidence it could get," E. H. Moore, Cox's personal representative, charged on the witness stand before the committee today. He said he came to Chicago at Cox's request to give the committee "leads." "I'll give you evidence to show that, before last January, a plan was perfected by the republicans to raise $16,000,000," Moore stated. Moore said the committee could get first-hand evidence from many men proving his "$16,000,000" charges, while his evidence would be second-hand. With considerable heat, Moore told the committee that if it wanted evidence, it should call men "who are in the confidence of republican leaders; 'I'm not," he said.

Ways and means committees, named in cities and counties, are largely "scenery," Moore said. The real work, he declared, is done by paid money raisers under the direction of Assistant Treasurer Blair of the republican national committee. Moore said the committee could get first-hand evidence from many men proving his "$16,000,000" charges, while his evidence would be second-hand. With considerable heat, Moore told the committee that if it wanted evidence, it should call men "who are in the confidence of republican leaders; 'I'm not," he said.

SMOKER CARD IS 13 ROUNDS

TAYLOR WINS FROM CHICAGO LAD WHO FORFEITS AFTER SIXTH—GREEK GEORGE AND KNORR GET DECISIONS.

Fast, clean fighting characterized the boxing smoker held last night at the gymnasium as the evening feature of the Labor Day celebration and, as a result of that same speed and hard hitting, each Central Oregon man on the card walked off with the decision.

Kid Taylor, weighing in at 120 pounds, fought the best battle of his career when he was pitted against Frankie Howard of Chicago, a 124-pounder, in the main event. From the outset it was Taylor's fight, and while his entire style of combat was easier and more effective, the most marked improvement noticed was in the use of his left.

Outboxed and outpunched, the Chicago lad could have stayed the 10 rounds without serious trouble, but in the sixth he left his chair with the evident determination to end the fight then and there. For perhaps half a minute he rushed the local boxer, and then was forced to take the defensive. Taylor hit him at will and after the sounding of the gong Howard was so badly used up, in addition to suffering from a hemorrhage from a smashed cauliflower ear, that he gave up the fight.

Groke George, weighing in at 125½ pounds, and Nipper Davis of Portland, fighting at 129 pounds, went their full six rounds in the main preliminary. George got the decision for, though outboxed, he had a good edge on his opponent in the matter of general results.

Duffy Knorr of Terrebonne and Bobby Lewis of Portland fought at 125½ and 129 pounds, respectively, and Knorr won just before the end of the first round when his opponent was unwilling to go on with the mill. Duffy bored in from the start, and with such good results that Lewis is presently informed Referee Houston that he wished quit. A few seconds after the decision had been awarded Lewis changed his mind, too late.

DEMPSEY WINS BY KNOCKOUT

MISKE UNABLE TO WITHSTAND ONSLAUGHT OF CHAMPION—THREE ROUNDS DECIDE RETENTION OF TITLE.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin)
BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Sept. 7.—Jack Dempsey, human thunderbolt, knocked out Billy Miske in the third round of his first fight as heavyweight champion yesterday. In the third round, Miske, who had been floored in the second, went down under a right to the ribs, taking the count of nine. As Miske arose and turned around to face the champion, Dempsey caught him on the chin with his right. The challenger fell, going over on his face, where he lay, motionless, while the referee counted him out. The knockout came one minute and 13 seconds after the third round began.

The first round was even, with Dempsey feeling out his opponent. In the second round Dempsey won a great lead by dropping Miske to the canvas with a left hook under the ribs.

MEXICO GETS U. S. PROTEST

CONTINUANCE OF CARRANZA POLICY OF OIL PROPERTY CONFISCATION OBJECTED TO IN NOTE.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 7.—The United States has sent a note vigorously protesting to the new Mexican government against the continuance of the Carranza program against American oil properties in Mexico, it was learned today.

The government's communication is understood to leave an inference that American recognition of the new Mexican government will be impossible if the confiscatory policy of Carranza toward American oil interests is continued.

GRAVEL FOUND FOR ROAD WORK

PRACTICALLY INEXHAUSTIBLE SUPPLY PLACED AT DISPOSAL OF COUNTY BY C. O. I. FOR FIVE CENTS A YARD.

Work on graveling The Dalles-California highway, which has been delayed for some time owing to inability to secure surfacing material, is commencing today, H. F. Wickner, contractor, announced this morning following the discovery of a deposit of gravel, practically unlimited, on holdings of the Central Oregon Irrigation Co., about 10 miles from Bend.

Following the location of the deposit, County Commissioner C. H. Miller waited on F. S. Stanley, president of the irrigation company and was told that the county could have all the gravel it desired to take at 5 cents a yard. At least 13,000 yards will be used from the one gravel pit, Mr. Wickner states.

FIRES ARE LEFT BY CARELESS CAMPERS

Forest Supervisor Plumb Finds Six Near East Lake—Scenic Beauty of Woods Menaced.

Despite warnings of fire danger, six campers at East lake left as many campfires burning yesterday when they drove away, Forest Supervisor Plumb reported this morning on his return to Bend. Most of the campers were from this city, Mr. Plumb said. "The timber surrounding East lake is of no commercial value," Mr. Plumb declared, "but it is of great scenic value, and every effort should be made by the people of Bend to insure its preservation. The wind had already spread the fires when I reached the lake, and a general blaze could easily have followed."

ATTENDANCE AT TERM OPENING BIGGEST EVER

SEATING FACILITIES INADEQUATE

NEED NEW BUILDING

Present Enrollment Only Two-thirds of What May Be Expected By End of Week, According to Past Records—Housing Problem Feared.

Registration at the Bend schools this morning for the opening day of the fall term offered complete proof of the prediction of a record enrollment made by City Superintendent S. W. Moore. With the exception of the Central school buildings, seating facilities just did take care of the crowd of pupils, while at the bungalow buildings on the Central grounds the attendance overflowed, easily enough to fill an additional room. Exact figures on totals will not be available until tomorrow, when an enrollment enumeration will be made.

According to attendance figures of past years, the enrollment on the opening day of the fall term averages about two thirds of that at the end of the first week, and unless it is shown that the attendance today marks an unusual development of punctuality on the part of pupils, a real housing problem may confront the district, Mr. Moore fears.

"I know there are many high school students who have not yet appeared, who will be in later in the month," he said.

Many New Teachers. One thing that is hampering the school administration in placing the large number of pupils is the fact that some 70 desks, which are needed at once, have failed to arrive. A half dozen desks for teachers have also failed to come in.

A feature of the opening of the fall term is the big proportion of new instructors who are appearing in the city schools. Eleven out of 18 in the high school are teaching in Bend for the first time, with seven out of nine in the Kenwood school, three out of six in the Central school, two out of 10 in the Reid school and both camp instructors.

Today was given over to the registration and purchase of books and tomorrow school work will begin in earnest.

NATRON CUTOFF IS NOT FOR THE S. P.

Cost of Money Too High and Limitation of Net Earnings Too Low, Declares Kruttschnitt.

PORTLAND, Sept. 7.—There will be no completion of the Natron cutoff, connecting Portland with Klamath Falls by way of Eugene, as far as the Southern Pacific is concerned, Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the executive committee of the company, declared here Saturday night, on his arrival with other officials of the railroad on a trip north from San Francisco.

"A railroad with net earnings limited to 6 per cent is in no position to pay 7 per cent interest on money spent for extension of trackage," he said.
